Root, Gardner and the Elks.

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 31.—V.he promoters of the proposed Root-Gardner fight, which was scheduled to take place at the salt palace, Aug. 14, today obtained a license to pull off the contest on Aug. 15. This, in the opinion of Mayor Thompson, takes the matter out of the jurisdiction of the Elks, who have blanket licenses on all amusements in the city for Aug. 12 to 14, inclusive. Upon hearing of this action the Elks today forwarded to Gov. Wells the letter from Grand Exalted Ruler Pickett asking for intervention.

Lexington park Sunday morning. The double exhibition is given for the benefit of the striking coremakers of Minneapolis.

The ball game will be a masquerade affair, and the programme committee promises that this part of the entertainment will alone be worth the money. Teams from the ranks of the St. Paul coremakers will clash with the coremakers from Minneapolis, Oom Paul will cover the first bag for the Saintly coremakers, and G. Washingond and Chech and Kelley tallied.

Stimmel opened the third by passing Kihm. O'Brien attempted a sacrifice and lifted an easy one into Stimmel's hands. Kihm was doubled at first. Coulter rapped out a single and Fox walked. Heydon singled and Coulter came round. That ended the Indians

Minneapolis made it three straight from Louisville by taking both games today. In the eighth inning of the first game Tindill called Clymer out at second and Clymer lost his temper and ran at Tigdill. The two men clinched, but no blows were struck. Clymer was sent off the grounds until the second game. In the second game, with the score 6 to 5 in favor of Louisville and two out in the last haw of the ninth, Katoll knocked a home run. Lynch followed with a double and was brought in by Lally with a single. Kerwin took Coons' place in the sixth inning in the second game. Attendance, 1,200. Scores:

GRAND CIRCUIT CONTESTS AT COLUMBUS

Fanny Dillard Wins the 2:07 Pace, but Loses the Second Heat-Casconda Not a Real Contestant in the 2:13 Pace, in Which She Was Favorite-Twinkle the Winner.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 31 .- The grand circuit races today were tame, but there was a large attendance and great deal of speculation. The feature of the afternoon was the 2:07 pace. In the over night pooling Riley B was a hot favorite, selling at $50 to $25 for the field. Just before the race he was drawn. C. F. W. was also drawn, leaving only four to score for the word. Fanny Dillard was made the favorite in the new books at $25 to $20. The mare won the first heat with ease in 2:05¼, lowering her record a full second. In the second heat she broke badly in the first turn, and barely beat the flag, the heat going to Maj. Mus-covite in 2:08 \( \). Before the third heat there was a very heavy play on the field to beat Fannie Dillard, who brought $150 to $25.

Snow brought the Dillard mare home a winner by a neck over the Bishop, who made a try for the heat after Maj. Muscovite had died away. The day's upset came in the 2:13 pace, for which Casonda was a heavy favorite. She was never a contender and Twinkle won in straight heats Sylvia On and Prince Durect secured second and third moneys.

The Roman, as expected, outclassed his field of 2:17 class trotters, and none of the three horses that were sent after him in the three heats had so much as a look in. The unfinished 2:19 trot was won by Ella Lee, a Columbus mare, strongly backed by the local talent. The 2:16 pace had only thee star-ters, all of poor class. Eugenia Burch Wins the Second Half of the Produce Stakes.

NEW YORK, July 31.-The second

NEW YORK, July 31.—The second half of the Produce stakes, which is for fillies two years old, was run at Brighton Beach today, and Mrs. L. Curtis' Eugenia Burch, with Odom up, came home a winner with odds of 7 to 1 against her, when she looked to be at least an 8 to 5 shot. The field that went to the post today was much better than the one in the first half.

better than the one in the first half, which was won by Mexican, and in which there were only three starters. Seven high-class fillies sported silk, with P. H. McCarren's Gold Money favorite at 15 to 20, while Duster, who was reported to have worked very fast Eugenia Burch was first to show to a good start. Court Maid second and Duster third. The favorite was off fifth. Odom sent his mount right along, and at the half-mile pole was along, and at the half-mile pole was leading by one length, with the favor-ite second, Court Maid third. Rounding into the stretch Gold Money managed to get her nose in front, and her backers had visions of cashing, but Odom had something left with Eugenia Burch and she drew away again, winning in a furious drive by one-half with Gold Money second and Court Maid, the despised outsider, third. Swiftmas and Mackey Dwyer were the TRENTHAM WINS BY A NOSE. Bad Failure of Dick Welles, the Favorite, at Harlem.

CHICAGO, July 31. — Dick Welles, held as a 11 to 10 favorite in the Test stakes at Harlem today, failed to land inside the money. The purse, worth $1,580, went to Trentham, the extreme outsider in the betting at 15 to 1, with Gregor K second and Fox Kane Trentham made a fine burst of speed in the sixth. Coming from far back, he barely got up in the last jump and won by a nose.

Only four of the twelve original starters went to the post, with Foxy Yang added to the list. Estrada Pal-

Kane added to the list, Estrada Palma, who finished second to St. Minor in the first race, was disqualified for fouling. With Estrada Palma set back Senor was given the place and Tancred third money. Weather wet, track sloppy.

Regan Wins By a Neck. Regan Wins By a Neck.

DETROIT, Mich., July 31.—The second race on the card, a five-eighths of a mile affair, furnished the surprise of today at the Highland park track, when John J. Regan won by a neck. He opened at 40 to 1, but liberal backing forced the odds down to 12 to 1 at post time. He ran second into the stretch and then came away in a hot drive and won by a head from Judge Voorhees.

Hair-Raising Duel. ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 31.—Latuka, Elastic and Clales were the winning favorites at Delmar today, the other events going to two second choices and one third choice. Vajo and Zazel had a hairraising duel in the fourth race, the feature of the card, the former winning by the shortest of noses. Weather clear; track fast.

HULL, Mass., July 31.—Miss Anna D. Collier, a school teacher of Worcester, and Miss Jean Brown, of Detroit, both summer guests at Bay Side, were drowned in the surf while bathing today. The undertow was responsible for the accident.

Strike Coming In Chicago CHICAGO, July 31.—Refusal of employers to sign a scale of wages presented by the Bollermakers and Shipbuilders' union today, is expected to result in a strike of 2,500 men tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—It is said here that the Commercial treaty between Great Britian and China, approved at a conference at the London foreign office yesterday, is to serve as a pattern for similar treaties to be negotiated by the other powers with China.

SINGAPORE, July 31.—In a collision off Malacca straits settlements, between the British schooners Prince Alexander and Ban-Hin-Guan, the former vessel was sunk and forty lives were lost.
