D STAKE GOES TO DAN R. Defeat of Anzella.

YORK, Sept. 15 .- The inaugural meeting of the Empire City Trot-ting club began today at its fine track under favorable auspices. The weather was perfect and the track fast.

The best feature of the day was the Bronx stake of $5,000 for the 2:09 pace, for which Dan R was the choice in the pools at 100 to 30 for the field. Twinkle had the pole and at once led off, and at the half led by two lengths, with Prince Direct second, while the favorite, who broke at the quarter, was simply driven to save his distance. Twinkle won easily, with Prince Direct second, a length back. The betting was now 100 to 50 on Dan R, and again Twinkle led off to the half, where the favorite came up with a rush and led around the turn, and in a hot finish home won by a length with Twist-la In the third heat Dan R broke badly and looked as if he was out of it, but he gradually crept upon his field, and in a most electric rush down the home stretch he beat out Prince Direct by half a length. He won the final heat with quite a little to spare. For the New York, 2:11 trot, the California mare, Anzella, which has won all her races this season, was a hot choice at 50 to 1, and the talent had a heavy fall. The black mare Ozanam had the pole, and with the word cut out the work for the party, leading all the way round, with Hawthorne sec-

At the very first shake-up Theodore Chapleski, alias Corbett, looked about to rip the return trip stub, St. Paul to Sioux Falls, from the lining of his vest, but it was all a mistake. After the Senator bunch had piled up three, the young man switched his selection, and there was little doing. The Saints bumped I. Wagner hard in spots, and the set is now evenly divided. Score,

Mr. Chapleski came on from Sioux Falls to do the work. Though hailing from the bush, the young man is an admitted professional. Thoughtful fanatics will remember his appearance here as a Miller early in the season.

The Saints delayed their scoring for several rounds, and during the wait the Senators piled up three. The three came in one bundle right at the start. J. Hart singled, Belden attempted a sacrifice, but Ferguson bobbled. With two on McFarlan hit for four bases. That made the three.

Notes of the Game. Notes of the Game.

The Saints play the third game of the series with Columbus this afternoon.
Miller or Ferguson will work for St.
Paul, McMackin for the Senators.

Manager Kelley was on the bench in uniform yesterday. The big fellow has recovered and may be in the game this afternoon.

Chapleski, the pitcher working for the Saints yesterday was with Wilmot's team at the opening of the season. Chapleski plays under the name of Corbett. The young fellow made a good showing yesterday. He had a bad start but refused to lose his head, and after the first inning worked like a winner.

Charles Ferguson worked at first, and made another good showing with the stick. Though a pitcher, Ferguson is hitting with the best on the team. McFarlan's homer was a long drive, but SAINTS BUNCH HITS Jerry Hurley clouted one that traveled far beyond the spot marking the end of the big fellows' drive.

The Saints bunched their hits. The sixth round offered the only chance to score that was wasted. NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Brooklyn beat. New York in the first game of the interborough series on the Polo grounds today. The visitors hit Matthewson freely, but the poor fielding support given him was really the cause of the defeat, Newton was lucky. It was not until the close of the game that the local players found him. Score:

FORT ERIE, N. Y., Sept. 15 .- Tommy Ryan may be the veteran of the middleweights in the prize ring, but he is still far from a back number. Tonight in the arena of the Fort Erie club, in a vicious, bruising fight, he knocked out "Kid" Carter, of Brook lyn, in the last minute of the sixth round. The knockout was clean and decisive, and came chiefly as the result of the superior ring generalship of Ryan-ring generalship which enabled him throughout to successfully evade or withstand the heavy onslaughts of Round 3.—Ryan put all his force in a right over the kidneys and then sparred away. Carter chopped Tommy on the jaw coming out of the clinch. Carter forced Ryan about the ring, hitting heavily, but not well placed. Ryan was tired, but using a glancing blow from Ryan's left to the head nearly sent Carter down. They were mixing very savagely for a time. Ryan was weathering the storm the better of the two, and while tired, smiled at his friends over Carter's shoulders in the closing clinch.

Round 4.—Ryan began jabbing and playing for the body. Carter tore in with heavy swings and made Ryan fight. Repeatedly Ryan ducked inside blows that would have ended the fight. Tommy sent the kid's head back with a left jab, and a little later slapped him twice smartly over the eye with the left. Ryan began fighting in the clinch, and a right swing from Carter on the head staggered Tommy. They both went at it again hammer and tongs, Carter bleeding badly from cuts on the face. Just before the close a left on the jaw stopped Carter for a moment.

Carter's heavy smashes were blocked or ducked, and Ryan opened up the cut over Carter's eye. Ryan was stabbing his man fast in the face as the round closed, but a heavy right to the body and a left to the head worried Ryan a little. Both sent heavy right swings across and Carter took his corner very tired and with his face crimson with the blood from his cuts.
