Owing to the mild weather all the military exercises so far have been conducted in the open air. This has enabled the Commandant to bring the students to a high degree of efficiency much earlier than in former years. The new armory is now ready for occupancy and will lend additional interest to the military work mapped out for the winter months.

Our Lady's Chapel: The women in charge of Our Lady's Chapel in the new Cathedral added the sum of $645 to the building fund at the last meeting and plans have been made for the fall campaign to complete the fund as soon as possible. Papers will be given as follows: "Early British Church," Mrs. M. W. Fitzgerald; "Mission of St. Augustine," Mrs. R. J. O'Connell; "A Canterbury Pilgrimage," Miss Mary Copley. The discussion will be led by Mrs. J. J. Daily.

The new Stations of the Cross for the Pro-Cathedral will be solemnly blessed and erected Sunday evening, November 8, by Reverend Valerius Nelles, O. F. M., of St. Paul, who will also preach the sermon.

The alumnae of the Pro-Cathedral school are preparing to repeat the comedy, "Breezy Point," Monday evening, November 16, in the school hall. On the same evening the young men of the Alumni Association will present a two-act comedy.

Seton Guild: A concert under the auspices of the Seton Guild of Minneapolis will be given in the Radisson ballroom Wednesday evening, November 10, at a quarter past eight o'clock. The proceeds will be used to enlarge the Seton clubhouse at Minnetonka.

The attendance at the Seton Guild classes, conducted in the guild rooms at 206 South Fourth Street, is growing steadily and the enlargement of the classrooms will soon become necessary.

Church of St. Joseph: More than $4,000 was cleared at the bazaar which was held in the parish hall of St. Joseph's Church, Minneapolis, last week. Practically all of this amount was raised by the sale of articles donated to the fair. There were no contests; but the abundance of hand-made articles, embroidery and fancy work of every description showed with what zeal the women of the parish had worked for the bazaar. The Young Ladies' Sodality, the Christian Mothers' Society, the Men's Athletic Association and even the school children worked with loyal enthusiasm for the success of the enterprise. The decoration of the hall was carried out on an extensive scale and made it a most attractive center during the week. The proceeds will be added to the fund for the payment of the debt on the new parish house.

The present house which has served as a residence for the priests for forty years will either be razed or moved to another location.

An excellent supper was served each evening of the bazaar by the members of St. Joseph's Married Ladies' Society.

The Catholic Foresters have purchased from St. Joseph's congregation the old frame church building which for a number of years had served the parishioners as a house of worship. During this week the services in the evening are for the women and girls of the parish. The eloquent sermons of the missionaries have attracted such large audiences that many of the hearers were obliged to find place in the aisles of the church. The mission services next week will be for the men. The exercises are given by Reverend C. M. Thunette, O. P., and Reverend R. F. Larpenteur, O. P., from Minneapolis.

Father Kramer is a native of Waseca, Minn. He made his classical course at the College of St. Thomas and completed his studies for the priesthood in the St. Paul Seminary. He said his first Mass in the Church of the Sacred Heart, Waseca, last Sunday, November 1, the Feast of All Saints. After Mass the women of the parish served dinner in the Workman's hall and a proper reception in his honor was held in the same hall in the evening.

An entertainment was given in Cotter High School auditorium Wednesday evening, October 28, by the "Exhibition Party" of the Gaelic League of Ireland. The various features of the program were thoroughly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. Rev. P. F. O'Brien of St. Mary's College, presided, and after a brief address introduced the representatives of the league. Fionan MacCollum, chief organizer of the league, dwelt on the number and variety of the poetical and musical compositions of old Ireland. Miss O'Brien spoke about the Irish folk dances, many of which were interpreted by Miss Halpin, and Miss Cassidy sang several solos. Before leaving Winona the party visited the normal school where Miss O'Brien addressed the students and Miss Halpin played several old Irish selections of the violin.

College of St. Teresa: Miss Nelly O'Brien, assisted by Miss Teresa Halpin, Gaelic League visitors from Ireland, gave an entertainment of unusual interest at the College of St. Teresa on Tuesday evening, October 27. Miss O'Brien's lecture on the work of the Gaelic League was supplemented by Miss Halpin's illustration of her playing dances and Gaelic songs and her playing of Irish airs on the violin. Miss O'Brien's delivery is clear and distinct, her voice carries well and her lecture was marked by a pleasing spontaneity. Miss Halpin's work has a refreshing charm and simplicity; her voice is soft and clear, her execution on the violin artistically pleasing and her dancing light and graceful. Miss O'Brien has the characteristic poise and dignity of the Irish aristocracy which she represents. Miss Halpin, though a young artist, is sure of herself at all times and her work is delightfully simple and spontaneous. Both appeared last evening in Irish costume. Miss O'Brien and Miss Halpin are guests at the College of St. Teresa during their brief visit in Winona.

The entire program was given in German and consisted of instrumental and vocal numbers and a play entitled "Kitchen Warfare" staged by members of the Club. CATHOLIC ASSOCIATION

A CENTRE OF RELIGIOUS ACTIVITY AMONG THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA—SUNDAY MEETINGS ADDRESSED BY PROMINENT PRIESTS.

(Communicated.)

The affairs of the Students' Catholic Association at the University of Minnesota are progressing in a very satisfactory manner. Meetings are held every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building, as in previous years, and these meetings have been very well attended. Father Wilbee, the pastor of St. Lawrence parish, Minneapolis, and spiritual director of the association, has addressed the meetings on three occasions and always in an interesting and instructive manner. Father Moynihan, president of St. Thomas College, and Joseph L. Murphy, Minneapolis attorney, also favored the association with lectures earlier in the term. On Sunday, October 25, Father Crenin of St. Paul Seminary, gave a very instructive discourse on the causes of the anti-Catholic propaganda which comes up periodically.

On Sunday, November 8, Father McGinnis of St. Thomas College will address the meeting. Father McGinnis in past years has always favored the association with something exceptionally good and a large attendance is expected to hear him. On that occasion also Professor and Mrs. Skaden of St. Paul will furnish music.

Sunday, November 15, the day after the Wisconsin game, will be "homecoming" at the U. C. A. and all the former students who are in town on that occasion are invited and urged to come around and meet the old friends again, as well as to become acquainted with the new members. Father Byrnes of St. Paul, spiritual director of the association for many years, will address the meeting.

The names of practically all the Catholic students in the university, about 475, have been secured and an organized effort is being made to have every Catholic student become an active member, a condition which is absolutely necessary if the association is to serve the purpose for which it is intended, namely, to bring into closer relationship the Catholic students of the university; to foster a feeling of good will and good fellowship between Catholics and Protestants; to study the fundamental principles of the Faith and the doctrines of the Church; and to promote the moral and religious life of the university.

On Wednesday evening, November 11, the Social Club of the organization will give an informal party at the Hennepin Council, Knights of Columbus, club house, 428 South Eighth Street, Minneapolis. All former members of the association, together with their ladies, are invited to attend.
