ONE FATAL LOOPHOLE LEFT

Belle Fondly Imagined She Had Escaped the Usual Suffering, But Alas!

The belle of the ball was bored, for she had brains besides beauty, and intellect is not favored by the average worshiper of the two-step.

"Listen to me," she said, gravely, as her partner for No. 17—valse—led her to the sacrifice. "I hate compliments. I am passionately fond of dancing and I think this is a very good floor. I am a lover of music, read a great deal and I have seen all the plays now running. I am not a suffragette and I find rinking very fascinating."

She paused for a moment to get her breath; then, with a fascinating smile on her enchanting face, she added:

"Now, you can begin your conversation."

The young man blushed and stammered. She had used up everything. But stay! A triumphant light flashed into his blue eyes.

"What a wretched day it's been!" he cried, enthusiastically. "Hasn't it?"

SAMPLE OF BRITISH RED TAPE

Roundabout Method by Which Members of Parliament Give Up Seats.

Theoretically, a seat in the British parliament is too high an honor to be resigned. So a member cannot resign directly. He must do something which has the effect of vacating his seat. They have a curious method of doing this and this is the only way of getting out in honor. There is an office known as the stewardship of the Chiltern Hundreds. It is an office of no use or importance, as far as is known, but it carries with it a small salary. This stewardship is practically always vacant. When a member of the house of commons wishes to give up his job, he simply asks for the stewardship of the Chiltern Hundreds, and gets it, of course. His acceptance of a position of profit under the government at once vacates his seat. Then he promptly resigns his stewardship to which he has just been appointed and leaves the door open for some one else who may wish to use it.

ENDED HIS RHAPSODY.

"Ef it wuzn't fer springtime an' fried rattlesnake," he said, "the blamed meat trust would sure have the best of me; but, as it is—oh, don't open yer eyes so wide, like you thought I wuz lyin', 'cause I ain't! As it is, rattlesnakes air plentiful, an' thar's no better meal for breakfast, dinner, or supper than rattlesnake, cooked proper. Rattlesnake meat is more tenderer than spring chicken, an' fur more life sustaining. You jest cut the head off—kaze the head's whar the pizen stays—an' then you—"

But he stopped short. "You Hiram!" called the woman in the doorway, "Ef you don't come right here an' git that washboard, an' he'll me scrub these here cloze, you'll know why!"

"All right, Molly," said the snake man meekly. "I'm comin'!"—Atlanta Constitution.

A SWELLING.

"Two soldiers," said Capt. F. C. Church, at a dinner at Palm Beach, "once decided to celebrate Valentine day with a little beer."

"There being no canteen, one soldier got leave, went out and bought a pail of foaming lager."

"As he was returning to the barracks with the pail under his coat, his company officer stopped him, saying:

"What have you got there, my man—a tumor?"

"No; a can, sir," was the reply."

S. P. C. A. AGENT'S REPORT.

The society's officer, who arrested a man for cruelty to a miserable looking horse, asked his prisoner if he ever fed the animal.

"Ever feed him?" replied the human brute. "He's got a bushel and a half of oats at home now, only he ain't got time to eat 'em."

INGENUOUS CONFESSION.

"I love to make dainty dishes of the left-over food," remarked young Mrs. Nuwedd.

"So?"

"Yes; and since I began doing the cooking I have plenty of left-over material to work with."—Kansas City Journal.

Women Suffer

much needless pain when they delay using Cardui for their female troubles. Cardui has been found to relieve headache, backache, pain in the side and dizziness, arising from deranged organs. It does more than relieve,—if used persistently,—many have written to say that it cured them.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Maxwell Johnson, Tampa, Fla., writes: "Cardui cured me after doctors and everything else had failed. I had been suffering with numb spells ever since I was 16 years old. One day I decided to take Cardui. I have now taken 5 bottles and I can say that it has cured me. I advise all suffering women to give Cardui a long and fair trial."

Mrs. Johnson suffered years. Have you? Do you wish to? But why suffer at all? Take Cardui. Give it a fair trial.

DO IT NOW

Montgomery City People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, dropsy, bright's disease, gravel, or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular or passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. Nancy Laird, of Montgomery City, Mo., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with the best of results. The contents of three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Crump & Kidwell's Drug Store, disposed of a case of lumbago and kidney trouble of long standing and although two years have since passed, there has been no return attack."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
