SCHEMING STATESMEN.

Spectators Excluded From the Meeting of the Republican County Committee Yesterday.

The republican county central committee met at the city hall yesterday and resolved itself, finally, into a kind of Dorcas society. The BAZOO man was of course on hand for the purpose of noting proceedings. Shortly before 3 o'clock the saviours of the nation began to arrive, one by one, but it required much patient waiting, before a quorum of the committee could be gathered, several of the faithful being sent out to bring in delinquent members.

When the reporter arrived the silver-tongued orator, Sam L. Highmeyer, candidate for representative, and E. J. Smith, candidate for county attorney, and oracles of the committee, were in earnest consultation with several other distinguished statesmen. The new friend nearer the earnest looking group, he found that they were busy engaged in mapping out a route over which the aforementioned silver-tongued orators propose to travel during the coming campaign, and to not only electrify, by their fiery eloquence, the denizens along this route, but to endeavor to convince them that the country will certainly go to the devil if the republican ticket is not elected.

A short distance off, the chairman and secretary of the meeting were in earnest consultation, while several of the country members patiently twirled their thumbs and stared into vacancy.

Finally the chairman suggested that as several of the members lived some distance in the country, he thought that it would be advisable for the committee to proceed to business.

Everybody took off their hats and looked expectant when E. P. Crane, of the Second ward, arose and moved that the committee, together with the delegates, go into executive session. The motion prevailed unanimously, and two reporters and two or three spectators grabbed their hats, and with one long, wishful glance back at the great aggregation of talent, silently stole away.

CAUGHT BY THE CARS.

Jerry Sullivan, of This City, Injured at Kansas City Friday Evening.

Jerry Sullivan, son of Pat Sullivan, of East Sedalia, who was employed as a brakeman by the Missouri Pacific company, was seriously injured at Kansas City on Friday evening. He was switching in the yards of the road, near the state line, and while pulling a pin, lost his balance and fell under the cars. Luckily no part of his body lay upon the track, but several cars passed over him, the brakemen, injuring him very seriously. The engineer noticed that Sullivan was not to be seen at the proper time for giving the signal, and stopped the train, when the brakeman was discovered lying beneath the cars mangled and bleeding. He was taken to Mrs. Reagan's boarding house, on St. Louis avenue, between Genesee and Wyoming streets, where he was seen by Dr. Jackson. His head was frightfully bruised and lacerated, his right arm, side and leg being torn in a serious manner. He was badly hurt, and it will be some time before he is again able to resume work.

FEARFUL FLOODS.

A Bridge Filled With People Swept Away.

Plainfield, New Jersey, Sept. 23.—It has been raining here continually for eighteen hours, and the streams are much swollen. The streets are full of water, and the damage to property is heavy.

At 1:30 this afternoon Grove street bridge, over Green brook, in this city, suddenly gave way, while crowded with people watching the flood. Six people were rescued, but a number, it is believed, perished.

Demere's kindling wood factory was swept away, with one man in it, but he was rescued. Both dams at Scotch Plains are washed out, and the water is four feet deep in the streets of the village.

DOWN IN THE DEEP.

Particulars of the Sinking of the Steamer Asia.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—A Toronto special says: Henry Ganvers, another survivor of the wrecked steamer Asia, reached here this morning, and says: I had my suspicions of the vessel, and was very cautious. She was laden so the fore part for thirty feet was out of water, while the stern was some times plunged into the lake and she refused to obey the helm and rolled in the sea. Every strong puff of wind that came wheeled the fore part round until she actually moved as if on a pivot. More than one hundred people were on board—half French and half English—all screaming at once as the waves broke over the vessel.

The officers could do nothing, their commands being unheeded in the confusion. When it became evident that the vessel would go down, Ganvers, with a life-preserver on, jumped into the lake, followed by a woman and child, who clung to him and shortly afterward the vessel disappeared. After being two hours in the water he and the lady were taken on board a smuggling vessel and carried to Collingwood. The lady's name is unknown. She appeared wealthy. She gave Ganvers $50 and also money to the smuggler.

Short in His Accounts.

New York, Sept. 23.—Alonso Follet, a Wall street broker, alleged to be short in his accounts had not, up to a late hour, visited his office to day. His absence has filled the street with rumors of such a nature as to create a decided feeling of alarm among his customers, many of whom called and asked anxiously for him. To all inquirers response was given that his arrival was expected. His clerk, with hesitation, said he thought Mr. Follet was in town. The amount of shortage is now placed at not less than $1,000,000.

Nominated for Congress.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—A Newark, Ohio, special says: A. B. Clark, editor of the Newark American, was nominated for congress by the republican congressional convention of the Sixth district, vice M. Churchill, resigned.

A Freeport, Ill., special says:

The democrats of the Sixth congressional district nominated J. S. Ticker, of Rockford, for the long term, and M. Y. Johnson, of Galena, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. R. M. A. Hawk.

Probable Call for Bonds.

Washington, Sept. 23.—A call will probably be issued this afternoon for $25,000,000 extended 5%.

LATER.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—The secretary of the treasury this afternoon issued a call for redemption bonds of the 5 per cent. funded loans of '81, continued at 3½ per cent. from August 12th, 1881. The call is for $25,000,000, and the principal and interest will be paid at the treasury on the 23rd of December next, and interest will cease on that day.

Heavy Frosts Reported.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Specials from various points in the northwest report more or less heavy frosts in eastern Iowa, northern and central Illinois and northern Indiana. In only a few places was it heavy enough to materially injure the corn crop.

Heavy Rains.

New York, September 23.—A very heavy rain storm has prevailed here and in the interior almost continuously for two days. A considerable loss of property is reported.

THE EASTERN WAR.

The Work Accomplished by Gen. Wood and His Command.

NEARLY ALL DESERTED.

Alexandria, Sept. 23.—Gen. Wood, on his march to Damietta, reached Chierbin last evening and was to remain there until 3 o'clock this morning. The railways are blocked by deserters from Abdell's camp. Gen. Wood telegraphs that Abdell's troops continue to desert. Of the 7,000 originally, only 800 hundred blacks remain, and they have plundered the barracks.

HE SURRENDERED.

Damietta, Sept. 23.—Gen. Wood, with two regiments, arrived at Damietta to day. Abdell surrendered at the railway station. The troops are expected to surrender their arms this evening. The surrounding country is quiet and the crops are in splendid condition.

THEY FLED.

Damietta, Sept. 23.—The negro garrison, instead of surrendering, fled, taking, besides plunder, a quantity of ammunition.

ARRIVAL OF MAC PHERSON.

Cairo, Sept. 23.—Gen. Mac Pherson and staff arrived last night. The Indian troops leave Zagazig to-night to march hither.

DEPOSED.

Alexandria, Sept. 23.—It is officially announced from Jiddah that the great shereif of Mecca has been deposed, and imprisoned at Caffé, where Midhat Pacha was a prisoner. Abdallah Abricoun has been named grand shereif. He is a brother to the shereif murdered some time ago, as supposed by orders from the sultan, because he was favorable to the British.

An Unique Marriage Ceremony.

One of the counties of the state of Connecticut boasts of a judge who, though poorly furnished with those little refinements usually met with in polished society, is an energetic, shrewd man and a promising lawyer. A neighbor of his, some weeks ago, was about to give his daughter away in marriage, and having a deep-rooted dislike to the clerical profession, and being determined, as he said, "to have no infernal parson in his house," he sent for his friend, the judge, to perform the ceremony. The judge came, and the candidates for the connubial yoke taking their places before him, he thus addressed the bride:

"You swear you will marry this man?"

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"And you (to the bridegroom) swear you will marry this woman?"

"Well, I do," said the groom.

"Then," says the judge, "I swear you're married."
