Was it an Attempt at Murder?

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 28.—Mrs. Perry Farrow, whose implication in a scandal with Howard Farrow, her husband's cousin, caused a great social and church sensation, and resulted in the trial and expulsion of both from the Baptist church of this city, was found late last night in an alley, directly in the rear of the home of Farrow, in an unconscious condition and apparently dying.

As soon as possible she was conveyed to her home and medical aid summoned. Everything possible for her relief was done, but with little hope of success.

A REMARKABLE IDIOT.

Kept Fastened With Strap and Manacle For Half a Lifetime.

Providence, R. I., July 28.—One of the most remarkable instances of idiocy, or lunacy, to be witnessed in any part of the world may be seen in an old farm-house in the town of Smithfield, about seven miles from this city.

The man is well-formed, his head is of the round type and the brain apparently well developed. He does not talk, but utters shrieks and cries at intervals, and sometimes tears at his head with his hands as if suffering pain.

The State authorities investigated the case some time ago and came to the conclusion that the man was better off where he was than he would be in a lunatic asylum.

Fell From a Window.

Kansas City, July 26.—G. A. Perkins, a saddler working at 706 Walnut street, and roaming over the store, fell from the second story window last night, at half past 1 o'clock, and was badly injured.

Perkins is unmarried and rooms with Fry Fox. Fox says Perkins came into the room about 1 o'clock. He was awakened by the noise in the room but dropped off to sleep in a few minutes.

Arrested for Kissing.

Chicago, Ill., July 28.—Justice Lyon was to-day called upon to decide the question whether kissing in a parlor in front of an unblinded window was disorderly conduct.

A large crowd of witnesses was in court to testify against the defendants, and such a mass of feathered bonnets and silk ties has seldom crowded the Army.

EDITOR ANTHONY

Once More Feels the Sting of The Lash, But Don't Complain.

Leavenworth, Kan., July 28.—D. R. Anthony, the notorious editor of the Leavenworth Times, was horsewhipped by Captain W. H. Bond, councilman from the Second ward, about noon to-day on Delaware street, and though there were many people around, no one interfered, while shouts were heard: "Give it to him, Billy; kill the—"

A Missing Husband.

St. Louis, July 27.—The absence of Henry H. Hess from his home, 2307 Dodder street, is a mystery which his wife thinks she has solved, though there is a bare possibility that she has reached her conclusion by a woman's extravagant methods of induction and deduction.

Feminine Feet in Kansas.

At a dance at Harper recently, one of the belles of that place stepped on her partner's foot and mashed his toes so badly that he was obliged to have two of them amputated.

A Clear Complexion.

How can you expect a clear complexion when the blood is full of impurities and the stomach clogged? The blood becomes impure because the liver does not act properly and work off the poison from the system, and the certain results are blotches, pimples and eruptions.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pains, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea.

For A Fact.

Had McGarigle, the escaped Chicago boodler, been an Anarchist, his desire to take a bath would have at once created a suspicion.

Endorsed by Physicians and Druggists.

Everybody knows the general uses of a plaster, and that Benson's Caprine Plasters are the best.
