Puts and Calls.

Springfield, Ill., May 2—The house today by a vote of 41 to 26 struck out the enacting clause of the bill to legalize puts and calls on the Chicago board of trade.

For knockers.

You knockers, you grumblers, look over the fence and see what your neighbors have and then shut up. Thursday and Friday it was cool but read this:

The estimated loss of corn and cotton in Texas, is Ten Million Dollars. Replanting in Indian Territory and Oklahoma was necessary. Strawberry crop of Northern Arkansas and Southern Illinois damaged Seventy-five per cent. Indiana badly damaged. Sleighting in the North and Northeast

Missourians are tilling the garden spot of the earth.

Miss Mary Fuqua is spending the week in Hannibal with her friend, Miss Bernadine Brown.

M. E. Engle left Grand Old Missouri and has tried several states and territories. Now he is back and says, I'm going to stay back.

A Most Liberal Offer.

All our former readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we this year make, which includes with this paper, The Live Stock Indicator, its Special Farmers' Institute Editions and The Poultry Farmer. These three publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm home. To them we add, of a local county and general news, our own paper, and make the price of the four one year only $1.50. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The three papers named, which we club with our own, are well known throughout the West, and commend themselves to the reader's favorably attention upon mere mention. The Live Stock Indicator is the great agricultural and live stock paper of the West. The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer, while The Special Farmers' Institute Editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published. Take advantage of this great offer, as it will hold good for a short time only. Samples of these papers may be examined by calling at this office.

In a few weeks you will notice a good many sound boards in the plank walks broken. Boys on horseback driving cows ride onto and across walks just as though they were the gravel streets.

L. M. Redman, Dr. F. S. Turner and B. O. Wood are putting on airs or putting things in ship shape for pedestrians. The side walk from Main to Davis on north side of Second has been relaid.

Pa Rockefeller's little boy John D. Jr., has been playing with the leather market and the game cost him Three and One Half Million Dollars. Even the big fish get it in the neck at times.

J. H. Woodward and Rev. F. Boyd, who lately engaged in the grocery business have moved their families from Barry, Ill., to this city. The former secured the F. W. Ragland place on Court Street and the latter the cottage at the corner of Locust and N. Border Streets. Good citizens are always welcome in Monroe.

Brutal vs Brntality.

If the Filipinos were called Apaches and General Miles were a few years younger he would think it was all right, suggests The Chicago Journal. Hello! here's some one else who wants to rake up Miles early record.—Atlanta Constitution. What could be more brutal than Gen. Miles treatment of Chief Joseph and his 160 warriors handicapped with their women and children in 1877. Chief Joseph with his handful of men fought Miles and 1600 men over a thousand miles of territory and when he surrendered in the dead of winter, dictated his own terms. Miles violated those terms by sending Joseph and his people to the Indian Territory where half of them died.

DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. Margaret Maddox Died at Her Home at Hydesburg Yesterday.

Mrs. Margaret M. Maddox died at her home at Hydesburg at 2:20 o'clock Saturday morning, May 9th, 1903, aged 70 years. The deceased was the widow of the late Bailor Maddox and was a most estimable lady. She had been ill and in very feeble health for a year or more and since last February had been confined to bed and comparatively helpless. Her sufferings at times were great yet she never complained but bore them with Christian fortitude. She had been a faithful member of the Christian church and died in the full assurance of that faith which gives comfort to the true Christian. There was no person in the neighborhood who was more loved and more highly esteemed than Mrs. Maddox, for to know her was to love and admire her for her magnanimous nature and cheerful disposition.

The funeral obsequies will be held at Hydesburg church at 11 o'clock a. m., Monday conducted by Rev. Marshall, pastor of the Christian church of this city. The interment will be in the Hydesburg cemetery and friends of the family are invited to attend without further notice.—Hannibal Journal.

Mrs. Maddox was the mother of William and John Maddox and Mesdames Susan Boardman and Node Green, of this city and of Howard and Misses Juliet and Minnie who lived with her.

Handbills vs Newspapers.

When a handbill is dropped at the door, do you see three members of the family rush for it at once? asks the Western Publisher Do they clamor good naturedly for the first perusal of a dodger? Does mother divide it into parts, give one part to father, another to Willie still another to Susan, and keep the advertisement part herself? Do they drop into easy chairs and read that handbill through from the northeast corner to the southwest angle? Do they ever and anon break forth into "Ams!" and "Ohs!" and read an excerpt for the benefit of the whole listening coterie? Do they? Not on your tintype, Horatio! The first one that finds that handbill mutters an imprecation of dissatisfaction, crumbles it into a wad and throws it into oblivion! Don't they? You know they do because you have been angry at yourself at finding your mail box full of "truck" and your front porch all littered with vari-colored paper! No use talking, no use arguing against this gospel: The man who puts his ad in the home paper is the man who gets there!—Quincy Herald.
