

Rogers & Thompson.

OVERCOATS!

Overcoats! Overcoats

Better ones for your money here than anywhere. Sounds like we're claiming a good deal for them doesn't it?

But we are right here with the goods, ready and anxious to prove to you the truth of this statement.

Our overcoats are honestly made, of the best materials obtainable at the price, and they have an individuality and style that are found only in the very best makes.

WE ARE ALWAYS GLAD TO SHOW OUR GOODS
AND WILL BE PLEASED TO HAVE YOU
STEP IN AND EXAMINE THE LINE

Copyright, 1904, Kohn Brothers, Chicago.

Following are some of our SPECIALS:

Heavy Union Beaver Overcoat, 45 in long, extra good value at price $5.00

Long Belted Back Coats in fancy mixed cloths, handsome line of patterns to select from at $10.00 and $12.50

Irish Frieze Ulster at $10, guaranteed the best on earth for the price.

For the young men we are showing the Nobbiest, Finest line of overcoats ever brought to Monroe City. Long, Loose, Belted Backed ones at $7.50 up to $12.50. We offer you a chance to be well dressed for little money. And all we ask is for you to come in and see our goods. We will show you the line cheerfully, whether you buy or not.

Our line of H. S. & M. Hand Tailored coats at $15.00 to $18.00 represent the acme of good tailoring. Our trade on this well-known make, increasing every season, is the best proof of their merit.

Come in and Try them on. It's a pleasure to show such ~ Good Goods ~

ROGERS & THOMPSON

Lost.

Boulster spring off wagon between Monroe and Indian Creek. Please leave with Corley and Williams or at Handley's livery stable.

Senator Tillman says we need a large navy because "we are acquiring a pernicious habit of sticking our nose into other people's business." If we can't break the habit we must certainly have a big navy. Mr. Tillman's logic is blameless.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. J. J. Brown on Tuesday, Nov. 15 at 2:30 p. m.

Senator McClintic was a business visitor in Palmyra yesterday and from there he went to Fulton. He was so disgusted with elections returns from the east, he said: Blamed if I don't think I'll stay in Fulton.

Mrs. John Lake, John R. Griffith and wife, Mesdames David Clark and Kittie Shannon, spent yesterday with Hannibal friends.

If you have for sale horses from 4 to 12 years old, fat and well broke, see S. J. Melson at D. D. Melson's barn Thursday Nov. 17.

Ben Stephens and family went to Shelbyville Tuesday to visit relatives.

James McFarland left Tuesday for Louisiana, to take charge of the cable work of the Buffum Telephone lines.

J. W. Lyell, J. S. Lyell, William Shepard, J. M. Proctor, and J. S. Scott are taking in the Pike this week.

From this time I must have the cash for all shoe repairing done. You will be refused if you do not have the cash.
11-10 MAT LOSSON.

Balzer—Thomas

Isadore Thomas and Miss Lydia Balzer one of the sweetest girls ever, were married at the parochial residence of Rev. Fr. John Lyons early yesterday morning.

Miss Mayme Losson and Albert Abell were the witnesses.

May the bride's life be as happy as she was politically that morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bradley, of Quincy, came over to the wedding.

Don't Fit Monroe.

The DEMOCRAT is pleased to say that there are no barber shops in Monroe City like those described from a pulpit last Sunday. The moral tone of our barber shops is as good as other business houses and instead of there being the "pink paper" in some of the shops, at least you will find the testament and prayer book. The literature of barber shops is as its patron are.

Has Sold.

James Kennedy has sold his stock of groceries to Harry Goen and Boy McAllister. While we regret to have Mr. Kennedy leave the commercial world of Monroe, we heartily welcome the new firm. They are both young men, practically raised here and have a host of friends in the city and vicinity.

New Firm.

Richard Hagan and Isaac Borden two of the best known and popular men in this vicinity have decided to enter the harness and saddlery business on or before December 1st. They will occupy what is known as the Dooley building on South Main Street.

Paints, oils and wall paper at W. B. Spalding's.

Sad Mission.

Mrs. J. H. Robinson was called to Shelbyville, Tuesday to attend the funeral of her uncle, Robert Sparks, of Shelbyville. She was joined here by another uncle, George W. Sparks, of Moberly, who was on the same sad mission.

Horses Wanted.

S. J. Melson wants to buy some good horses 4 to 12 years old. Must be fat and well broke. Will be at D. D. Melson's barn Thursday Nov. 17.

You are next at Spiker's.

Get your pork sausage at Spiker's.

Dr. A. W. Ely and wife left Tuesday morning for St. Louis.

John Buckman and wife of Clapper, were shoppers in the Tuesday.

F. M. Scott, wife and daughter of Hester have been the guests of J. S. Scott and family.

James O. Gentry left Tuesday for Hannibal where he is employed by the Wabash R. R.

Clarence Clough and wife came up from Hannibal Tuesday to visit with his father.

Miss Maggie Green of La-Prairie, Ill., has been the guest of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Green.

Mrs. O. Harry Parks left Tuesday for St. Louis to take a course in a ladies tailoring school.

Boys get your guns ready to kill rabbits as soon as it gets cooler we will be ready for them. The early ones will bring the highest price.
11-10 HENDERSON & SON.

Special Sale

Do not fail to attend the grand special cloak sale today at Williamson, Hawkins and Yates. Every thing in the cloak line at right prices for you.

Best Perfumes.—Wood Bros.

One dollar pays for the DEMOCRAT for a year.

Spiker will render your lard and make your sausage.

W. R. Day, of Warren, was a Palmyra visitor, Friday.

Mrs. George Carson has been spending a portion of the week in St. Louis with relatives.

Don't ask George Kidd how an 8 inch pipe fits a 6 inch flue hole.

Mrs. E. B. Shinn and two children left Friday for St. Louis and the Pike.

Woodward always has fresh groceries. If you don't believe that he does give him a trial. He will treat you right.

John Hardwick, of near Hannibal, was a business visitor in the Queen of the Prairies Friday.

After a visit with the home folks, Mrs. Gertie Ford returned to her home, Kansas City, Friday.

J. Miller and wife, of Quincy have been the guests of relatives in the Queen of the Prairies.

Mrs. R. J. Bradley of Quincy, came over Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Balzer.

Mrs. James Quion, of La-Grange came down Friday to visit her cousin, Mrs. J. M. Proctor Jr.

Thomas P. Forsythe of Clayton, Ill., came over to visit the homefolks and to 'rah' for Democratic Missouri.

Charles H. Smith and wife of Brookfield came down Monday to visit the homefolks and vote the Democratic ticket.

Engineers have completed their preliminary work for an electric line or railway between Hannibal and Quincy.

John O. Wood, of Canton and Henry Elzea, of Hannibal, attended Mrs. Samuel Elzea's funeral this city Friday.

R. Manning Walker is now sporting a "Black Devil" sometimes called an automobile. Now girls don't all try to get on the good side of Edwin at once.

Mrs. Sarah Morgan, of Hannibal, spent Sunday in the city with her sister, Mrs. Anna B. Davis and to attend the consecration of the tower erected by her brother, Hugh DeHaven in memory of his mother.

When we fail to get your laundry. When you are ready to send it, phone to us and we will get it in the next lot. Our phone numbers are 122 Buffum and 44 F. M.—Monroe Steam Laundry.

The Heaglers in spectacular production of Zingara will appear at the Monroe Opera House Monday Nov. 14th. This is an entirely new and interesting play and its musical dramatic and scenery features make the evening one long to be remembered. One night only. Tickets on sale at Spalding's Drug Store. Prices 15-25-35cent.