Mud, mud, mud, ankle deep, knee deep, belly deep, from the Missouri river to the Ohio state line. Therefore, farm news is scarce. We could not get to the farmer, nor he to us.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 23.—An incident of the Berkshire sow sale at the J A Leland Woodside farm was the disposal of Masterpiece, the great Berkshire boar, for $2,500, the highest price ever paid for an individual Berkshire. The sale was private and had nothing to do with the brood sow sale of Berkshires, as Masterpiece was sold by A J Lovejoy of Roscoe, Ill., to W S Corsa of Whitehall.

McClintic and Donley have bought 2 beeves from J B Mc-Clintic, 2 from Manning Elliott and 9 hogs from N G Barger.

fancy bred Aberdeen-Angus bull at Callao. He believes in the stock and gets the best from his point of view.

ing 2, E C Phillips 70, Mr Hawk-half dozen fancy bred Cornish India Game hens. That sounds sporty, but they are beauties if they are black.

public sale at his farm 10 miles northeast of this city, March 8.
See list of stock in another column.

Hayden and Yates bought 7 head of horses and mules from

Terrible

Monday Dr. W. A. McNutt accompanied by Tom Aylor and six year old son, Ryley went to Quincy to see surgeons.

Some two years ago one of the children held up a board in the floor and the then four year old child peeped under it.
While his head was still beneath the board, it slipped from the other child's hands and a wire nail that was in it penetrated the back of the little ones head.

Since then the child has been an Epileptic and he was taken to Quincy in hopes that trepaning the skull would relieve him of his terrible afflic-tion.

Good Time.

Swing your partner, balance all, ladies to your seats, was what accompanied the pitty-pat of the dainty feet and the rosin de bow, out at Billy Mc-Leod's, Monday night.

For pure unadulterated pleasure, there is nothing that will compare with a dance in the country where health, youth and joy abounds.

Placed.

Miss Margaret Jones will spend the millinery season at Clayton, Ill. Miss Sadie Hagar at Winchester, Ill., where she spent last season and Miss Mollie Geotze at Headland, Ala.

One On Jim.

For some time J. H. Robinson, of the firm of Robey & Robinson, has been known as Mr. Robinson's little boy.

A few days since he was delivering some lumber when Richard Kirby's little 4 year old boy saw him and cried out: Say, boy, what are you doing with that lumber?

Creamery Meeting.

The stockholders of the Monroe City Butter and Cheese Factory met at the council rooms Tuesday afternoon. The building has been accepted, well completed. The stock is comprised of 41 shares at $100 per share and to be fully paid up.

Five Directors were elected as follows: J. H. Jett, Robt.
Meriwether, L. M. Redman, W.
F. Adkins, Benj Hatton.

There will be no preferred stock.

The creamery is now on its feet and as soon as the spring fully opens the creamery will be in full blast for the stockholders are in earnest, for an example: P. F. DeMuth, of near Clapper, Ben Hatton, of near Hunnewell and Mr. Peffauner, of near Hunnewell and Mr. McCulloch of the same vicinity walked through the mud that distance to attend the meeting.

The Creamery is now a success and don't you forget it.

Bad Accident.

We should think the male members of the Griffith family would fight shy of a wood pile.
A few years ago a wood saw almost made mince meat of Alex Griffith and a few days since, his son Roy, while at the wood pile, split his left foot open and had to get Dr. George L. Turner to mend it for him.

He do Move.

Don't ask us where Vint C.
Spalding now lives, for he is a rapid mover, nothing but his hounds being able to keep up with him.

For instance, last week up to Saturday morning, this was his record: He sold his 110 acre farm to L. K. Lawrence. Consideration private. He then bought the J. D. Rathburn 40 acre tract and sold it to Leo Yates. Consideration private.
Then he bought 80 acres known as the Green farm from T. J.
Yates. Consideration private.

That makes the third time he has owned and lived on the Green farm.

Getting on Top

The Farmers Co-operative company held their annual meeting here Tuesday. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. L. J. Haupt;
Vice President, J. M. Welsh; Secretary, J. J. Sullivan; Directors, B. Peyton, M. Burns, James Lynch, John Heitzman, D. Bayler, W. McCarthy. With these officers and our present manager Mr. A. Grimm, the Collis store is bound to be a success. It is their intention to build a large two story brick building in the spring. They are already hauling stone for the foundation and work will begin as soon as the frost leaves the ground.—Collis (Minn.) Herald.

Andy Grimm was born, raised and received his business education in this city, where he was a general favorite.

Forsythe-Veach.

The wedding of Tuesday afternoon was a surprise party to the friends of the interested parties.

Ezra Veach and Miss Ella Forsythe were married at the home of the brides brother, T.
P. Forsythe, by Dr. E. McNair.

May their pathway through life always be as happy and bright as the glorious sunshine of that afternoon.

Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McClintic entertained a party of friends at Euchre Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Thomas Proctor of Chicago.

It was a mingling of congenial friends which was heightened by the refreshments served.

Mrs. Thomas Proctor, of Chicago, arrived Monday to visit relatives and friends.
