Our neighbors, the Palmyra Methodists, have been agitating the question of building a new church—a good move, in which we wish Bro. Mapel and his people success.

After a long continued illness and absence from church, Mrs. John Shearman again takes her accustomed place among us at the regular church services. Her many friends rejoice to see her again.

Special Easter music will be prepared by the choir for next Sunday's services and the church will be appropriately decorated. Please do not forget that the Presiding Elder, Rev. I. T. Nash, will preach in the evening at which time the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the Epworth Leaguers Sunday evening at their special service. The service was a distinct success. The Leaguers acquitted themselves most creditably, and the offering amounted to about $30.

A delightful feature of both the Sunday morning and evening services was the solos sung by Miss Medora McMullen of Van Rensselaer Academy. Flinch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Henderson entertained some twenty-six of their friends Friday evening and with the exception of refreshments, Flinch or Ministerial euchre was the all absorbing feature of the evening.

Since the last meeting of the club it has grown by a membership of two, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith having become full fledged members.

We will bet a cookie that there is not a club of any description in the city that has as much unalloyed pleasure as the Flinch Club.

The Prairie View Addition Lot Sale will be the largest lot sale ever held in Monroe City. Don't miss it.

CITY DEMOCRATIC

Primary, the Hottest In City's History.

Monday was an ideal day and the vote was a large one.

J. S. Scott for Mayor without a running mate pulled 271 votes.

J. H. McClintic and C. B. Anderson made the race for Aldermen in First Ward; McClintic winning by 14 votes.

Judge J. T. Umstattd and C. E. Gillam made a neck and neck race in the Second Ward; Umstattd winning by a majority of 5.

In the Third Ward it was tame. P. W. Huston lead a lone hand and got the pie without an effort.

R. A. Kirby for Collector and J. W. Bell for Police Judge, were a lonesome lot for each had the entire track to run on.

The real interest and hot stuff was over the Marshalship which John W. Stevens captured once again by a plurality of 33 votes.

Democratic Committeemen, First Ward W. J. Rouse and R. S. McClintic; Second Ward D. M. Proctor and J. Hays; Third Ward W. R. Yates and J. W. Cox.

Hind Part Before.

W. L. Ely entertained his Sunday School class, composed of sixteen ladies, Saturday night at a Hind-Part-Before party at his cosy home.

The ladies put their dresses on hind part before. Their masques were on the back part of their heads and the heads covered with white sunbonnets so they could see through the rear of the bonnets. They carried their hands (behind them) in front and walked backwards.

The evening was devoted to game and music but on your life the refreshments came straight to the front and one of the ladies said to us: No, sir, we did not do like the little boy whose boy clothes were put on him backwards; we did not say our prayers. Now I lay me down to sleep, hind part before; I should die before I wake I pray the Lord my soul to take, hind part before.

New Things.

C. C. Cassidy is re-roofing his home and laying some new floors.

E. E. DeLashmutter is putting in some 1-4 sawed hard wood floors.

Jack Rouse is building a good barn.

Mrs. Laura Boulware has had a hard wood floor laid.

Fred Apple has re-roofed his barn and built a wash house.

Rolla Armstrong has had his house raised and a cement block foundation put under it.

W. W. Handley is building a barn. John Dirigo has added a porch to his home.

Dr. A. W. Miles many friends here are glad to hear that his health has greatly improved and that he is now practicing at Brush, Colo.

There is 13 less working springs on the New Black Hawk Core Planter No. 15 than on some planters of other makes.—Wade & Dawson.

Major Maddox and Sweeney Carpenter of Huntington were here visitors in the city Tuesday.
