MONROE CITY DEMOCRAT

VOLUME XXIX.

MONROE CITY, Mo., THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1916.

Monroe City Chautauqua, August 22 - 27 Bigger and Better Than Ever

UNOFFICIAL VOTE OF MONROE COUNTY

|                 |             | ty.         | ¥            | Fotal Vote inCounty |
|-----------------|-------------|-------------|--------------|-------------------------|
|                 |             | Monroe City | Indian Creek | otal Ve                 |
|                 |             | 120         |              | g fal                   |
|                 |             | No.         | Ta de        | 50                      |
| For Governor    |             |             | _            |                         |
|                 | lordner     | 53          | 2            |                         |
|                 | Atkinson    | 110         | 3            |                         |
|                 | toach       | 120         | 56           |                         |
| 1.5             | larke:      | 15          | 13           |                         |
|                 | indsey      | 60          | 10           |                         |
|                 | fouchin     | 33          | 4            |                         |
|                 | Painter     | 7           | 5            |                         |
|                 | amm, Rep.   | 9           | :50          |                         |
| 27              | wanger "    | 7           |              |                         |
| For Congress 2  | nd Dist.    |             |              |                         |
|                 | tucker      | 237         | 49           | 1829                    |
| L               | nzier       | 155         | 54           | 1759                    |
| For Senator 13  | th Dist     |             |              |                         |
| N               | AcClintic . | 273         | 66           | 2358                    |
|                 | liford      | 135         | 34           | 1121                    |
| For Prosecuting | g Att'y     |             |              |                         |
| N               | deriwether  | 406         | 78           | 1837                    |
| E               | Barnes      | 2           | 14           | 1400                    |
| C               | rockett     | 6           | 5            | 384                     |
| For Sheriff     |             |             |              |                         |
| N               | lolen       | 255         | 52           | 1724                    |
| G               | rimes       | 85          | 22           | 726                     |
|                 | Mexander    | 9           | 3            | 518                     |
| r               | Delaney     | 61          | 9            | 582                     |
| For Assessor    |             |             |              |                         |
| G               | lascock     | 109         | 45           | 1407                    |
| F               | Ragsdale    | 245         | 38           | 1381                    |
| ŀ               | lendricks   | 50          | 12           | 474                     |
| For Treasurer   |             |             |              |                         |
| N               | leteer      | 173         | 48           | 1902                    |
| V               | Voodsen     | 219         | 46           | 1542                    |
| For Judge East  | tein Dist.  |             |              |                         |
| G               | rigsby      | 196         | 17           | 947                     |
| T.              | Dooley      | 214         | 80           | 929                     |
| For Constable   |             |             |              |                         |
|                 | raves       | 207         |              |                         |
|                 | ireen       | 129         |              |                         |
| 1               | ling        | 70          |              |                         |

MERCHANTS PICNIC WAS A HUMMER

Big Picnic in Monroe City

At an early hour the crowd began to gather and in spite of heat others, unable to tell who was who, their vote and dust the city was filled with people ready to enjoy themselves and thousands of people were here down a discription.

A representative of the Democrat was pleased. Many said it exceeded 'Monroe City has ever had. their expectations were live wires and the next time a m. and one at 6:30 p. m. Monroe City advertises a big picnic. the town will not be able to accom- gave several exhibitions. modate the crowd.

The Shelbina Band and the Ladies Band from Edina were with us and furnished most excellent music, but second to none was our own little band They haven't been organized long but they can all read music and they certainly surprised the people, not only in their music but in their "make up." In fact, some were so well "made up" that their friends never did recognize hit that we are publishing in this a big day.

Thursday, July, 27th, will long issue some verses that have been be remembered as the day of the sent in We regret that the poet did not give a verse to each member but perhaps she was like some Houchins surprised many with

The parade was a surprise to all. About thirty vehicles were in line They were from Missouri, they had and the showing was a credit to read the advertisements and came any town of this size. We would to hear the bands, to see the pa- like to tell our readers, who were rade, the free shows, the baloon not able to be here, about each disascensions, the ball game and hear play. We had our pencil and pathe political speeches and they per ready but soon found out they were not disappointed in anything, were passing too apidly to even Everything was just as promised really see them well, let alone write

Enough to say that everyone did circled through the crowd and all they could to make it a success asked different ones what they and they succeeded. It is said to thought of the picnic and everyone be the best display of the kind

Cassidy, of Quincy, made The men in charge of affairs two baloon ascensions, one at 10:30

The trained dogs and monkeys

The dancer in gorgcous costume was all that the crowd expected. while the acrobats were artists in their line.

It is said that over a thousand attended the ball game while the north park was well filled and dur ing this time Main street was full of people

After the band concert in the evening the crowd went to their homes, a hot, tired lot of people, them. Their leader made such a but all satisfied that they had had

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Gardner Heads Ticket. McAllister Nominated. A Strong Ticket and Worthy the Support of all Good Democrats

The battle of the ballots in the primary has been fought. There are those clated with victory and those who must stand defeat. None of us have won all of our first choice All have won and lost, so honors are even It is now up to the Democracy to stand shoulder to shoulder for the ticket as nominated It is composed of good men. It is true all the nominees have failings, so did the candidates whom you boosted

COL. F. D. GARDNER.

Senator James A. Reed was nominated with practically no opposition Gardner leads for Governor by about 20,600; Crossley for Lieutenant Governor: Pool for Secretary of State: Gordon for Auditor, Mid dlekamp for Treasurer: Woodson for Supreme Court No 1 and Williams for Supreme Court No. 2 appear to be le ding. Frank W. Mc Allister was nominated for Attorney General

Dickey will be the Republican candidate for U. S. Senator and Swanger is leading for Governor.

Atkenson was second on the Democratic ticket. Lindsey and

M A Rowjue, of Macon, appears to be leading for Congress in the

W. W Rucker won over Ralph Lozier for Congress in the Second District. He has no Republican opponent for the November election R. S McClintic wins over Alford by about 1500 for State Senator. Roy Merriwether is quite a sprinter and has a nice majority over both his opp nents. Ralph Noleu will be Monroe County's next Sheriff and made a race of which he should be exceed- team defeated Bevier. ingly proud.

Lines to Scudder.

When he the street along As stiff as starch, Unto the great ding-dong Most proudly marched.

He knew the reason why The ladies smiled, And breathed a wistful sigh At all his style.

Our doudy Drum-major, He is the man, ho unit his on before The Mouroe band

Remember, we cle all kinds of cloth

SENATOR JAS. A. REED

Whose splendid service as Senator was endorsed by Missouri Democracy. Missouri is proud of him because of his ability and work for the whole people of Missouri and the

Mrs. Settles Given the Machine

A large crowd, especially when you consider the weather, were present Saturday afternoon when the "Free" sewing machine was given away at the Proctor. Jewelry and Music store. Owing to the heat and crowded conditions the drawing was held on a platform in front of

The judges were Mrs. E. A. Thompson and Mrs. T. E. Willard and a little girl drew the numbers

The crowd decided that the seventh number should be the lucky one and when each one of the sev en numbers were called the duplirate number was there. No one wanted to miss a chance on the machine

Mrs. J. W. Settles held the seventh number and received a beautiful $60.00 machine and she is very proud of it and well she may be, for it is not only a handsome piece of furniture but it can do the work.

Monroe 4. Bevier 3.

In a big contested game et Proctor's park picnic day, the local

The game was one of the best ever played here and the teams were very evenly matched, and as a result 10 innings were played before the locals succeeded in running in the wining score which was accomplished by Gosney making a a long drive, thereby getting a home run.

Our boys outplayed the visitors at every point, but the visiting umpire could not, or would not, give us our rights, making the game harder than it would have been otherwise.

Clarksville was to have played here Sunday but owing to the intense heat the game was canceled.

Read the Democrat.

Roy B. Meriwether

Who will be Monroe County's next Prosecuting Attorney is one of Monroe City's most popular young men, as was attested by the vote here Tuesday, getting 406 votes all exc p 8 which were given his two opponents. His vote was the largest ever polled in this city by any cardidate with opposition. He receiv d the largest vote of any candidate in the county His many friends are rejot ing over the

He is an honorable, concienticus, young man, worthy and well qualified to fill the office to which he has been nominated.

Camping

Cecil Swearingen, with seven of the boys of his Sunday school class Bailey Green. Paul Lynn. Sterling Alexander, Eara Treaster, Carley, Hickman, Carroll Swearingen and Ebey Rouse, are spending part of the week on North river. They has plenty of eatables and were expecting to have a fine time