—John Gray, alias John Graves, an old man who stole 21 head of cattle from R. R. Staples, of Nodaway county, and shipped them to St. Joseph, last August, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny in the Nodaway circuit court last week, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary by Judge Ellison. The defendant is an old man, and the fact of his age, together with the additional consideration that he pleaded guilty and gave information to the prosecuting attorney concerning an accomplice, who is still at large, was no doubt the cause of the light sentence.

—The electric lights were turned on in Maitland last Monday night, Nov. 21, 1904. The street lights were all in readiness, and a little while after the sun had gone down, the current was turned on and the illumination began. It had been the intention to celebrate the event, but owing to the uncertainty of just when the connections would all be completed, no set preparations were made. People turned out on the streets and viewed the lights. A bonfire was built, and the Bird band was out to make music. It was the verdict of all that the street lights were a big improvement over the "dark-town" era, and that they would prove a great convenience to everybody.—Maitland Herald.

—Henry Krug, Sr., one of St. Joseph's pioneer citizens, died at his home in that city on Wednesday of this week, November 30, 1904. He was the founder of the Krug Packing Company, and had many friends in this county among the older citizens. He was 82 years of age.

—Orla Davis has sold the old Kunkel mill property to Loyd S. Walter, of Kansas City, who it is said expects to put it in thorough repair and operate it. He is negotiating with Daniel Kunkel for machinery and to take the job of making the repairs. A mill is greatly needed here.

—George Burrier brought in two fine wild geese, this week, that were killed on the bar on the Missouri river, southwest of Forest City, by his uncle, Hugh Burrier, this week. We are informed that Andy Burrier and Seib Carson, superintendent of the Poor Farm, have also bagged a few fine geese, recently.

—G. W. Murphy was attending court at Savannah, last week. One of the cases in which he was interested was the incorporation of the Nodaway Drainage District, No. 2. Judge Burnes granted the decree of incorporation, and it now seems that the work of reclaiming the overflow lands of the lower Nodaway can proceed.

Monarch.

—Rev. Walker will preach at Monarch the first Sunday in December.

—Taylor Davidson who has been very ill, is on the mend at this writing.

—Rev. Hull filled his appointment at Monarch last Sunday. It was a very interesting meeting; he delivered an able discourse at 11 o'clock Sunday.

—Mrs. Garner has improved so much after her accident, as to be able to ride to the school house on Thanksgiving day to hear the exercises by the pupils.

—Rev. Turner, of St. Joseph, will hold a protracted meeting the second Sunday in December at Monarch. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

—The ladies of our neighborhood intend to have a box supper to prepare for a Christmas tree. They intend to have a meeting Wednesday evening at the school house to make arrangements to that effect.

—Old Grandpa Karr is very poorly. He has been here for many years and now in his declining days appreciates visits from his friends. Now go and visit him young friends, for "there'll come a time."

The following letters remain uncalled for in the postoffice at Oregon, Mo., for the week ending December 2, 1904:
Albert Barber, card.
F. M. Spencer, two letters.

—Edgar, the little 1-year-old son of George H. Allen and wife, was quite severely scalded, Monday of this week, November 28, on his left arm and knee. The little fellow was playing around the washing machine, when he spied the plug in the machine, which he managed to pull out, letting the scalding water out, some of it striking him on the shoulder and knee. He is now getting along all right, and it is thought no serious results will follow.

—The teacher and pupils of the White school feel that they owe an explanation to the people, who so generously patronized them, for the lack of special music at the oyster supper of November 23. It was by a misunderstanding among the young men, who were to furnish the music, as to the hour. A large crowd attended the supper. $44 being taken in. The school cleared $23.36. This will be spent for the increasing of the library, which now contains sixty-eight volumes.

—We are sorry to learn that Taylor Davidson, of the Monarch district, is very low with pneumonia. We hope that there will soon be a change for the better.

—Charley Bridge and wife removed to Hamburg, Ia., this week, where Charley has secured a job in a hardware store. Charley is a first-class fellow, and we wish him and his wife success in their new home.
