THE SILENT REAPER.

CARDER.

Again death has come into our midst and taken from us our friend and neighbor, Mrs. Margaret Carder, (nee) Harmon.

The deceased was born in Holt County, Missouri, February 5th, 1844, and departed this life at her home in Oregon, Mo., April 19th, 1907, aged 63 years, 2 and 14 days.

She was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. P. Watson, April 19th, 1863, and to this union were born five children: Jones, Nettie, George, Edith and William who survive her. Her husband died September 15th, 1873, and she remained a widow for 10½ years and then was united in marriage with Wm. Carder. To this union was born two children, a son and a daughter, the former died in its infancy and the daughter Elsie survives her. Mr. Carder died November 13th, 1887, leaving her the care and burden of the family. She is also survived by a brother, George Harmon, who resides at Wichita, Kas., and a sister, Mrs. David Kennedy, of Maitland.

Mother Carder, was converted in early life and united with the German Methodist church, and later the Methodist Episcopal church, but at her death she considered herself a member of no church, but attended services at the Evangelical church as such as her health permitted.

Funeral services were conducted at the Evangelical church Sunday afternoon, by R. vs. Hobbs and Tonat, the former speaking in English and the latter in German. She was laid to rest in the Oregon cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

Thus we go, one by one—"But let me die the death of the righteous" and "Let my last end be like his." X

WILLIAMSON.

The people of Maitland and surrounding country were shocked on receiving the telegraphic information, that D. R. Williamson, who only a few days ago left them for the west in seemingly perfect health was dead. He had been a resident of Clay township for a number of years, and ever enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens. On April 12th Mr. Williamson took his departure for the west pleasure bent, and also with the view of locating if our soundings suited. While on his journey and before reaching his final destination he expired suddenly, near Denver, presumably from heart disease, brought about perhaps from the high altitude. He had been to Denver to be present at the marriage of his son George to Miss Mable, daughter of W. H. Roberts and wife, formerly of Maitland, which occurred on April 14th. Following the wedding, the party started west, and on Thursday, April 18th, Mr. Williamson passed to the great unknown.

The party had reached Stevens, Idaho, about 35 miles from their destination where they took conveyances, and started for the place where they were to locate. On the way, Mr. Williamson was suddenly taken sick, and they stopped for awhile. He then began to feel better, and they resumed their journey, when he was taken sick, and falling forward on his face, expired in a few moments.

Mr. Williamson was born in Dearborn county, Indiana, in 1851, and came to Holt county in 1871, locating in Clay township, his home being four miles west of Maitland. In 1877 he married Sarah, daughter of George W. Zuck, and to them five children were born, two of whom, Bert and Floyd survive. His wife died in 1887. In 1888 he married Miss Eva Riley, and three children were born to them—Earl and Earnest survive. Mrs. Williamson died September 12th, 1906, thus leaving the father with four children, and now these are deprived of their father.

On Wednesday of this week, the remains arrived at Maitland, and on Thursday the funeral services were held, conducted by Rev. Allison, of the Mound City Christian church, to which organization Mr. Williamson has been a member for the past 20 years.

Circuit Court.

Circuit court convened Monday, the court arriving after the noon hour, and by four o'clock an adjournment was taken to Monday, 29th inst. This was necessitated on account of Judge Ellison having been called to try some felony cases at Bethany, Harrison county. The petit jury had been notified not to appear until the second Monday. The court made an order for a grand jury venire, and heard motions in several cases, and the following entries were ordered:

Silas Bucher vs C B & Q R R Co. Damages. The defendant filed motion and bond for removal of cause to the federal court.

James Bush and Elizabeth Bush vs C B & Q R R Co. Damages. Defendant files motion and bond for removal of cause to the federal court.

J A Kipp vs Alex McArthur and wife. Appeal from J P court. Defendant files motion to require plaintiff to file additional bond.

State ex rel, James H Meador vs E L Gaffney, A Lawrence, et al. Bond. Defendant files motion to require plaintiff to file additional bond.

Lilly S Perkins and Charles W Perkins vs Frances Berg, Frances Kelley, Robert Berg, Nellie Berg, et al. Partition. Defendants files motion for plaintiffs to give cost bond.

Last of the Platte Presbytery.

Several facts combined to make the recent meeting of the Platte Presbytery in St. Joseph, one of more than ordinary interest, was the statement of Elder Montgomery, who occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning, and gave an interesting account of the late meeting of the Presbytery. The meeting was held jointly with Platte Presbytery of the Cumberland church and a delightful spirit of fraternity was manifest throughout the various sessions of these organizations. It was the last meeting of these two historic bodies as such. The union of the Cumberland with the Presbyterian church has necessitated an entire redistricting of the state with the result that in place of five Presbyteries in Missouri there will be ten. The old Presbytery of Platte embraced the five counties in the Platte purchase, for which it was named, and some fourteen other counties in Northwest Missouri. In the work of reconstruction, this territory has been reduced ten counties and the name of the Presbytery changed to that of St. Joseph.

With the dissolution of the old Presbytery, all the offices become vacant and, at the direction of the general assembly, the new Presbytery of St. Joseph will convene in the city of St. Joseph on June 18th for re-organization. The call for this first meeting provides that Rev. Henry Bullard, of St. Joseph, shall act as moderator, and Rev. W. O. Perry, of Stewartville, shall act as stated clerk until officers are elected to fill these positions.

Rev. Henry A. Sawyers, formerly pastor here, was among those elected commissioners to the general assembly, which meets in Ohio next month. The regular fall meeting of the Presbytery will be held at Grant City, some time in September.

A Great Work.

The President in response to numerous petitions from commercial bodies, particularly in the Mississippi Valley, has created a commission, charged with the duty of preparing a comprehensive plan for the improvement and control of the river systems of the United States.

While the names of those named as members of the commission do not suggest broad and comprehensive consideration of the problem, the President's instructions to them show a grasp of the situation which should inspire and concern to treat the work assigned to them upon the broadest lines of national policy.

The defect in much of our former work for the control of waterways has been, as the President says, that they "have thus far been usually undertaken for a single purpose, such as the improvement of navigation, the development of power, the irrigation of arid lands, the protection of low lands from floods, or to supply water for domestic and manufacturing purposes."

The time has come to bring these different, and often conflicting interests within the scope of a comprehensive plan designed for the benefit of the entire country. All users of waterways and streams should be considered together and in their relations with each other, such comprehensive consideration of the problem in all its aspects, it is plainly the desire and effort of the President to obtain.

The task is an enormous one, but national welfare demands that it be undertaken, and the President deserves great credit for beginning it upon the broadest lines.

Our line of ladies shoes and Oxfords is strictly new and nobby and the price no more than the out of date kind.
