

The Holt County Sentinel.

47TH YEAR.

OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1911.

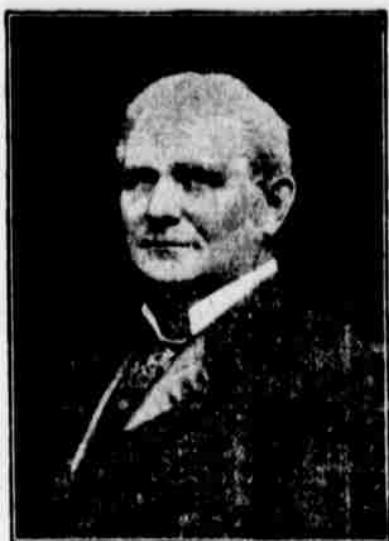

NUMBER 12.

9 NINE BIG DAYS 9

If you want to hear Music Wit, Humor, Sense, Nonsense, Religion, Philosophy, Politics, Magic, Art, attend the

Oregon Chautauqua, August 5 to 13, 1911.

If you will attend full time, and then feel you did not get value received for the cost, your intellectual capacity is great, and your think matter limitless.

Hon. Champ Clark

Every man, woman and child in the country know of Champ Clark, the Speaker of the House—Missouri's Son all the way from Pike. We have a contract with the Redpath Bureau that he will be here, Tuesday, August 8. Come and hear a big man, both mentally and physically.

Hruby Concert Company

All lovers of music will drive a long way to hear the famous Bohemian Family, "The Hruby Concert Co." the father and eight children. They will be with us four days, August 6, 7, 8, 9, and all who heard the five brothers last year, know what a treat is in store.

The National Band

One of the best musical organizations in the country, will be with us Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, August 10, 11, 12 and 13.

S. W. Gillilan

And it came to pass in the days of the Chautauqua that the committee wist not what to do, for the burden of selecting the men who were to speak forth the words of truth and soberness was very great, when one opened his mouth and spoke: "Verily, there is a man in the Far East who will deliver the goods, and his name is Strickland Gillilan," and verily he did compose and write, "Oh Agin, Oh Agin, Gene Agin, Flanigan." And the committee with one accord took him. And whosoever will may come and enjoy two hours with him, Saturday, August 5th.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook

Once upon a time, not very long ago, the desire to explore and reach the North Pole, raged tempestuously in the breasts of a very few men, not women, and as the whole world knows Dr. F. A. Cook became inoculated with this self-same desire. He went further north than any man in Holt ever expects to go, and, by the way, he went after Peary in a very different way, however. He will tell the people his own story on the afternoon of August 9th. Don't fail to hear him.

Ralph Pariette

Ralph Pariette is as full of good recipes as a Methodist Church Cook Book, and he often puts in much truth and more philosophy into a sentence. Here is a sample: "Don't wait to be thanked. Hurry on to avoid the kick. Do good to others because it makes you happy, but don't wait for a receipt for it. It may be fatal." Hear him, Friday, August 11th.

A. M. Reitzel
