Children Must Have Good Light for Studying

A poor light strains the eyes, and the injurious effects may last for life. An oil lamp is best. The light from the Rayo Lamp is soft and mellow. You can read or work under it for hours without hurting your eyes.

The RAYO is constructed scientifically. It is the best lamp made—yet inexpensive and economical. The RAYO Lamp, made of solid brass—nickel plated. Lighted without removing chimney or shade. Easy to clean and rewick. Made in various styles and for all purposes.

—A copy of "Midwest," a sparkling monthly devoted to the interests of the state of Nebraska, has reached our table. It is edited by Will M. Maupin, and is brim full of interesting matter about that state.

—Edgar Allen, of the firm of Allen Brothers, wholesale grocers of Omaha, and owners of the Forest City cannery, died at Omaha, December 21. L. P. Watson, in charge of the Forest City business, attended the funeral.

The January term of our circuit court will convene Monday next, and from what we can learn, will only be in session during the week. The docket is an unusually large one, and thus many cases will have to be continued, and should there be no intervening term until the regular April term, it will prove a hard one to our farmers, who may be called for jury and other service, catching them at a very busy season in their farm work.

THE SENTINEL sends its sincere congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John M. Carlton, of Craig, who on December 18 reached their fiftieth wedding day, the occasion being celebrated Christmas day, by the gathering of their children, of which there are nine, together with 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, and not a death has come to a gloom over the family—a most remarkable incident. Mr. Carlton is now 74 and his wife, 71.

Elder F. D. Augustine, who has been pastor of the Christian church in this city for the past two years, has resigned, and he and his estimable wife will move to Fillmore, where they will make their future home. He has accepted the Rosendale charge for half time, and will also enter the evangelistic field. During their stay here they have made many friends, whose best wishes go with them to their new home and new field of labor.

—Meyer Post, G. A. R., held its annual election of officers at its regular meeting, Saturday, of last week, and selected the following to serve as its officers for 1913: Ben. F. Morgan, commander; T. C. Fuller, Sr. vice; Daniel Kunkel, Jr. vice; D. P. Dobyns, adjutant; Robert Montgomery, quartermaster; Earl Cooper, officer of the day; W. H. Hardman, chaplain. Robert Montgomery was chosen as delegate to the state encampment, which meets in St. Joseph, in May.

—Yes, Uncle Henry C. Williams and his good wife, of the Crossen section, and their son, Claude Williams, and family, of Mound City, were here Saturday last, and they went out to the home of Leonard Landreth, in the Woods district, and had a visit. Mrs. Henry Williams and Mrs. Landreth are sisters, and the latter's husband says the visit of these two sisters will likely necessitate the pawning of his auto to raise sufficient means to make repairs to the premises, caused by the all around time these sisters had, during the visit. The roof is still on the house, but the doors, window shades, the chairs, and best center table look as if they had emerged from a Kansas cyclone.

—Sheriff Gelvin has moved into the jail, and Matt Eller has moved into the Gelvin property.

—Clayton Hudgins, of Forbes township, is now tramping over the country in a Ford Torpedo run-about, he purchased from the Keeves-Cook agency.

—John H. Peret has resigned as teacher of the Bluff City school that he may give his entire time to the duties of the office of surveyor and highway engineer.

Capt. Edwin Roberts, an instructor in the Wentworth Military Academy, at Lexington, Missouri, has been the guest the past few days of Lloyd Thatcher. The captain is assigned to the hospital corps department.

—If the weather is dry peach buds will stand a temperature down as low as 14 degrees below zero. Lower than that there is danger. If the temperature drops to 16 degrees below zero the buds will be nipped even if the weather is dry.

John Owen, wife and daughter, of Kansas City, were visitors for a few days the past week, at the Morris home; they came for a visit with his grandma, Mrs. Muxlow. Mrs. Owens was formerly Orville Kaiser, one of Oregon's school girls.

We are truly sorry to hear of the alarming illness of Mrs. Russell Cotten, of the Kinsey district, from appendicitis. But little hope is held out for her recovery. Later, Mrs. Cotten died Sunday night. We hope for an obituary for our next issue.

Mrs. Clara Maupin left Monday for St. Joseph, where she will next week enter the service of the Martin-Barnes Dry Goods store. Her daughters also left, going to Agency, where they will visit an aunt, until their mother secures a location. Bee will continue her school work and Pauline will enter Platt's Business College.

—Don't forget the date of excursion rates to Southern Arkansas, January 7th, 1913, with F. L. Zeller.

J. Wellington Morehouse suicided December 21st, at his home near Hopkins, by drinking carbolic acid. He was a brother of ex-Governor Albert T. Morehouse, who suicided September 23, 1891, at his home in Maryville, by cutting his throat. His son, Edwin V. suicided by shooting himself at his home in Maryville, in December, 1907. A son-in-law of Wellington Morehouse, named William Richey, suicided only a few years ago.

Mrs. L. E. SMITH,
Oregon, Mo., Route 1.

—Ed Dunham, our circuit clerk, played a good hand Christmas day. He made a show down with a "full house"—and all of a kind. There was S. E. Judy, wife and daughter, and Charley Judy, wife and daughter, all of Craig; G. A. Judy, wife and son, of Mound City, and Larry Judy, of New Liberty—all at his house at one time, Christmas day, and now they are wondering how they managed to make it so delightfully pleasant for all but they did—he did too, for the whole bunch was his wife's relations.

—Miss Florence Blazer, of Maitland, Mo., and Miss Helen Duncan, who were Christmas guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Duncan, have returned home. Miss Tom Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, was a Christmas babe and celebrated her birthday with a dinner Christmas night. Among the gifts was a quilt, made and presented by Miss Tom's grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Duncan, a large, single star, very appropriate to the occasion, recalling the Star of Bethlehem. St. Joseph News-Press.

—A nicely dressed young woman—a stranger in our midst—entered the postoffice last Saturday, hesitated a moment and stepped up to the stamp window. John Simpson looked up expectantly and she asked: "Do you sell stamps here?" The clerk politely answered: "Yes." "I would like to see some, please," was the unusual request. John dazedly handed out a large sheet of the 2-cent variety, which the young woman carefully examined. Pointing to one near the center, she said: "I will take this one, please."

—Begin the New Year aright. Take careful stock of your existing ability and make only those resolutions that you can keep. Nothing so rapidly saps character as broken promises and shattered resolutions. If you are a man and a smoker, make a pledge that you will not smoke more than ten cigars a day and live up to it. Then when 1914 rolls around you can pat yourself on the back and point with pride to the record of an unbroken pledge. The principal is of unlimited application and is not copyrighted.

BARGAINS IN FARMS.

No. 11.—160-acre farm, 5 1/2 miles southeast of Oregon. 60 acres in corn, 25 in oat stubble, 17 in alfalfa, 6 acres of orchard, the balance in good timber and pasture. Fair 6-room house, barn for 5 head of horses, corn cribs, granaries, etc. Good cistern and fine arched cave at the house. Good spring in barn lot, runs year round. Price, $75 per acre. Half cash and good terms on balance.

No. 12.—80 acres, six miles north and some east of Oregon. This farm is practically all in cultivation. Has a good 4-room house, with cistern and cave. Small barn, corn cribs, etc. Good well at barn. This is a bargain if sold soon. See me for price and terms.

No. 13.—357 acres known as the Joseph Groves farm, lying one mile west of Mound City, Missouri. Practically all in cultivation or in grass. Small house and barn and other outbuildings. Well fenced and cross fenced. Price and terms right, if sold at once. See or write me for particulars.

If you have anything to trade or sell, it will pay you to see me before doing so.

If you wish to borrow money on your farm, I can loan the money to you for 6 per cent interest.

Office upstairs in Peacher building, east side of square.

—Please address them hereafter as

"Judge." Peter Raber, of Forbes, and Mart S. Norman, of Liberty township, were in the city, Wednesday, and took their oath of office as judges of the county court—the former representing the First and the latter the Second district. They immediately took their seats, and under the guidance of Presiding Judge Wright began to do business.

After cards have reached friends here announcing the marriage of Miss Regina Jane McGill, of Verdel, Nebraska, and Mr. Bert M. Corey, of Sioux City, Iowa, the ceremony being performed December 24. They will make their home at Bryant, Nebraska. The bride formerly lived among us, making her home with the family of George Meyer, and made many friends here, who will be glad to hear the news of her marriage. Since leaving here she has been teaching in Dakota, and Northern Nebraska. We send sincere congratulations.
