Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That Betty is the salt that is sprinkled on the tail of vanity.

—That the man who is afraid of being laughed at is in danger of becoming a failure.

—That some people are so unfortunate that if they tumbled into good luck they would hurt themselves.

—That a certain married lady who suspected that her husband was visiting at another's home, went to investigate and was thrown down the steps for her trouble.

—That a certain widow allowed a good-looking due to "invest" her husband's insurance money and when she demanded that she see where her money was invested, he calmly ran his hand into his pocket and turned it wrong side out. Poor widow!

—That when a certain young Miss who wore a hobble skirt last Sunday morning on Church Hill attempted to step into a street car, her dress started ripping and kept on ripping until the slit had gone to her waist. Oh, the styles!

—That a well known gentleman was run over the other day by an automobile because he was watching some well built girls get on the street car and when he was surrounded by on-lookers who attempted to pick him up, he said, "Please leave me here until they get on."

—That a certain well known Pious brother in telling his "determination" at Covenant meeting the other night said: "My eyes are set heavenward and my brain can think of nuthin' else 'cept heavenly things." In about thirty minutes' time the said brother was caught in a raid in a buffet flat. Why was he there? Betty and Sam that he must have been looking for the angels.

They say that if you will call West 380, you'll hear something to your advantage as well as for your health.—Adv.

AN ELEGANT SHOP.

Mr. C. J. Nelson, the well known barber of 1616 East 18th street, is determined to lead in the barber business, as is demonstrated by the many additions which he has made from time to time to increase the attractiveness to his patronage. Mr. Nelson has recently received a valuable addition to his force in the person of Mrs. Willa Bridge of Dallas, Texas, who is a skillful and finished artist, also J. H. Anderson, who has built up a wonderful trade since being connected with this thriving business. Every comfort and convenience for his patrons has been installed and he has a patronage far surpassing other shops of its size in Kansas City. In sad and loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Martha Frazier who departed this life March 13, 1919. I know not what the future hath His mercy underlies.

Assured alone that life and death

And so beside the silent sea

I await the muffled oar

No harm can come to me

On ocean or on shore.

I know not where his islands lift

Their fringed palms in air

I only know I cannot drift

Beyond his love and care.
