A Fire Alarm Snake Story.
The following story taken from the New Albany, Ind., Tribune speaks for itself. And we doubt not the truth of the story could be proven if one had witnesses. be proven if one had witnesses. seasoh, has been received from Martinsburg on the Paoli pike north of this city. Several mornings ago the whistle at the flour mill began blowing shrill blasts excitement among the inhabibaints as they hurried to the building Upon investigation by the engineer, Ira Durnill, be found a around the whistle rope the Weight of the reptile having been sufticient to open the valve and cause the loud blasts which is cause the loud blasts which is the signal for fire in the little the signal for fire in the little burg. It is supposed his snakeship had sought the boiler room for warmth and when the heat became two strong started to ed for the whistle cord.

Devoe's predicted cooler wea her for the 12th and 13th, came Sith, but pot here just the same W. W. Batro just the same Papinsville, Mo., are visitors the Wonder City this week and are thinking very seriously of tocating in this city. We would indeed be very glad to welcome them as residents to this pince.
