Reuter's Life Syrup

is a double medicine, being both an alterative and a purgative in one; such a medicine has never before been made. Heretofore, persons suffering with any disease caused by foul blood or humors, have always been forced to take a purifier to neutralize the poison, and then to take a purgative to carry it out of the system, but with REUTER'S LIFE SYRUP no such thing is necessary: it does the work of both purifying and purging, moreover, it is by far the best stimulator and invigorator of the liver. It tones, strengthens and cleanses the stomach, and is the easiest, surest and safest purge. It is made from plants and herbs, and is as pleasant to the taste and smell that children and sensitive ladies take it as if it were a delicious beverage.
