"Are You a Mason?"

The Rev. Mr. Smith, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Paris, Ill., being asked the above question by a lady, responded as follows:

I am, of a kind
Who fully stand
In the hands of affection and love,
I have knelt in the floor,
Once wept and in pain,
And there for admission I strove,
By the help of a friend,
Who assistance did lend,
I succeeded an entrance to gain:
Was received in the West;
By command of the Past,
But not without feeling some pain.
Here my conscience was taught
With a moral guide brought
With sentiments holy and true;
Then onward I traveled,
To have it unrevoked,
What I had intended to do.
Very soon to the East
I made known my request,
And "light" by command did attend,
When I perceived,
In due form revealed,
A Master, and brother, and friend.
Thus far I have stated
And simply related
What happened when I was made free;
But five "possibles" since then,
And was "raised" up again,
To a sublime and ancient degree.
Then onward I marched,
That I might be "arched,"
And find out the treasures long lost;
When behold a bright "dome,"
From the midst of which came
A voice which my ears did accost.
Through the "veil" I then went,
And succeeded at length
The "Sanctum sanctorum" to find:
By the "Signet" I gained,
And quickly obtained
Employment which suited my mind.
In the depths I then wrought,
And most cheerfully sought
For treasure long hidden there;
And by labor and toil,
I discovered rich spoil,
Which are kept by the craft with due care.
Having thus far arrived,
I further contrived
Among valiant Knights to appear;
And as Pilgrim and Knight
I stood ready to fight,
Nor Saracen foe did I fear.
For the widow distressed
There's a cherd in my breast;
For the orphan and helpless I feel;
And my sword I could draw
To maintain the pure law
Which duty the Masons reveal.
Thus have I revealed
(Yet wisely concealed)
What I am "free and accepted" wiser know,
I am one of the band
Who will faithfully stand
As a brother, wherever I go.

Regular Convocation of Versailles Royal Arch Chapter No. 72 Friday night, Nov. 12th, and work in the P. M. and S. M. degrees, so every Companion is expected to be present.

Editor Pizer, of the Tipton Times, was over to the best city in Central Missouri Friday, but as he was accompanied by Mrs. Pizer, he was not run in by the police, and was able to find the right train home, even getting onto the end of the car that stops at Tipton. They had a pleasant visit and found the Popper prices on his big stock just right.

B. P. Anderson was a pleasant caller Saturday while up from his South Morgan ranch. He is still a goat enthusiast, having a herd of 400 fine Angora goats, 200 of them pedigree stock. He thinks they are the best thing for the money that can be put on the timber farms of South Morgan. As a side issue he buys and raises mules, and that is where the money comes in wads. A good farm, with a good farmer, in the hill country, is a good proposition.

Walnut Grove.

Mr. Abby and family are now at home on the farm they bought from Mr. Snowden, and are now full fledged citizens of Walnut Grove.

Dave Short lost a valuable mule last week, it was choked to death by the halter.

Whooping cough is raging everywhere. The Akinsville meeting continued until last Sunday. Several were baptised.

Jake Kauffman has had a load of coal shipped. He hauls it home last week.

Corn is selling at 50 cents per bushel.

C. H. Hays has sold Oscar Scott two hundred barrels of corn.

Cameron, of Kansas City, Mo., will deliver his noted lecture on "Birds and their native haunts," illustrated by stereopticon views, at the Court House, Versailles, Friday evening, Nov. 12th, 1909, for the benefit of the teachers of Morgan County. All citizens are cordially invited to be present, it will be worth your while.

Roy Hart made a business trip to Camden county last week.

Avery Price, U. S. Weather Reporter, reports two inches of rain Sunday evening and night. It was really a ground sealer.

Dr. Short, Tuesday, leased his residence on Seymour street, to E. C. Bradford for a term of one year. Mr. Bradford is assisting in the management of the Ouachita Clay & Coal Products Co. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Bradford to Beautiful Versailles, and may they find it a pleasant place.

An Oyster Supper.

Advertising does pay. Last week we intimated in the REPUBLICAN that at the K. P. meeting to be held on Thursday night, if Curtis, Knoop or Guenther was present there would at least be talk of eating. Knoop and Guenther were not present, and owing to this circumstance it was decided, after the question was sprung by "Young Man" Curtis, and put in concrete form by Mel Schannepp, who always believes in pushing a good thing along, that there was oysters enough in town for the crowd present, and when lodge was closed the march was taken up for Bert Lumpsee's oyster parlor, where all were served, and a real enjoyable, social time had by all the brothers present. The K. P.'s never admit any one 'ceptin he comes himself, and when you ain't there you are pretty sure to miss something good. Will likely be work in the rank of Knight Thursday night, and there should be a full house.

Just Received.

A supply of fine papers for letter-heads, envelopes, note heads, statements, visiting cards, etc. Our work the best and prices reasonable. Give us your job printing, will guarantee you won't be ashamed of it.

The Baptist Revival.

The revival at the Baptist church continues, with good attendance and a growing interest. To date about fifteen have been converted, and it is hoped that many more will find their way into the kingdom. Bro. Foster is preaching plain, practical and convincing sermons, and many of our citizens who do not attend the meetings, would be greatly benefited if they did. The meetings will continue indefinitely, and to know when the closing night comes it will be necessary for you to be there.

High School Notes.

There will not be any school this Thursday and Friday on account of the Teachers' Association. Mr. Witten, the county superintendent, has asked the High School to give a program for the teachers Thursday night. All are working hard for it.

The quarterly examinations did not prove so hard as we all expected and some very good grades were made.

The Girls' Basket Ball Team received a challenge from the Tipton girls for a game to be played on the Tipton grounds Nov. 29th. The girls have not accepted yet, but are thinking seriously of doing so.

We have organized a new High School Orchestra consisting of nine pieces. Mr. Edwin Williams is leader.
