

Deseret.

Dr. J. M. Bernhisel, agent at Washington from the Salt Lake country, communicates the following letter to the Washington Globe:

Washington City, Jan. 19. Dear Sir: In conformity with the wish expressed in your late note, I submit an extract from a letter which I have recently received from General John Wilson, of Missouri, dated at the city of the Great Salt Lake, September 6, 1849; he being on his way to California, in the public service, if I mistake not, as Indian agent, or sub-agent. The extract you may use at your discretion. Gen. Wilson is a man of mature years, and of the first respectability. Implicit reliance can therefore be placed in the accuracy of his statements. I will add that it gives me much satisfaction to afford you the means of repelling injurious statements recently put forth, and also to learn as I do, from a source so trustworthy, the good conduct, order, and happiness of your people in the great Salt Lake country. And as they are in the interior of this continent separated by vast deserts and mountains from the scenes of disorder and confusion, in which they were so long involved in Missouri and Illinois, it may desire that they should become a great, prosperous and truly christian community. With sentiments of true respect, I am faithfully, Yours, TRUMAN SMITH.

For Dr. J. M. Bernhisel, agent at Washington, from the Salt Lake country. Extract from the letter referred to in the above note:

A more orderly, earnest, industrious, and civil people I have never been among than these, (meaning the inhabitants of the great Salt Lake city,) and it is incredible how much they have done in the wilderness in so short a time. In this city, which contains now, as I believe, about four to five thousand inhabitants, I have not met in a citizen, a single idler, or any person who looks like a loafer. Their prospects for crops are fair, and there is a spirit and energy in all that you see that cannot be equalled in any city of any size that I have ever been in, and I will add, not even in 'Old Connecticut.'

An Ostrage.—We learn from the Argis of Truth that the town of Henderson has been the scene of great excitement, occasioned by an outrage of an anomalous character. On Sunday night the 6th instant, the land office at that district, situated in Henderson, was entered, and a large portion of the records, files, certificates, and evidences (in many instances the only evidences,) were cut out and deliberately burned, and otherwise destroyed. The extent of the evil, says that paper, cannot now be estimated, but that it is very great, and in many instances irreparable, we have abundant reasons to fear. A committee was appointed to examine, and report upon the extent of the damage; but, after a long and patient investigation, it failed to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion. The people of Henderson will stand high as a law-abiding people; for, though much incensed, nothing like violence seemed to be thought of. As the matter will come under legal investigation, we decline saying more about it at present.

Messrs. A. TAYLOR & SONS, Housick Falls, New York, sends to Dr. G. C. Vaughn, in a letter the following testimony: Housick Falls, March 19, 1847. To Dr. Vaughn:—I feel it a duty to you to make this statement, thinking that some other person affected by what I read, and find relief through the same source. In April last I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism, so that I was perfectly helpless. I applied to three physicians, and after remaining under their care about six weeks, and all the time growing worse, they decided that I was afflicted with the dropsy of the chest, and after trying every experiment, and exhausting every means in their power, they declared my case incurable, and stated that I could live but a very few days at most. About that time my friends saw your Vegetable Lithonitric Mixture, advertised in the papers, they procured me a bottle which seemed to relieve me. I have since taken five bottles, and now my health is restored, and I enjoy excellent health. ELMIRA BAKER.
