Sheldon, the guest of honor's costume was a delicate gray silk mull and diamonds. In the evening the affair was continued with games and dancing, the gentlemen being present, who seemed to enjoy themselves. It was a late hour when the guests dispersed to their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon many such events.

Mme. Walker, the hair grower, after spending two successful weeks in Trinidad and Pueblo, will spend the week of August 20th in Colorado Springs, after which she will return to Denver, where she will remain only two weeks, to straighten up her business affairs; after which she will positively leave on her southern tour. Mme. Walker's wonderful hair grower has proven beyond question to be the most wonderful hair preparation yet discovered. It is soothing to the scalp and brings quicker results than any other. Those who have been treated by Mme. Walker need no invitation. Those who have not should not miss the opportunity of receiving at least one treatment before she takes her departure from Denver. She has a natural gift for growing hair and guarantees to start it to growing with one treatment, as no other has yet done. Mme. Walker will be at home to her many customers the 26th inst., and will remain only two weeks before leaving to put her wonderful hair grower on the market throughout the country. Address 2410 Champa street.

First Aniline Dye.

It is 50 years ago since William Henry Perkins extracted from coal-tar the first of the aniline dyes—"mauve." The jubilee of that event is about to be celebrated and honor done to the discoverer.
