NUPTIAL CONTRACT.

The marriage of Miss Ida Jane Downing and Mr. John W. Carrie took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Contee. The ceremony was just at 8 p. m. By that time the friends of the contracting parties had gathered amid the bridal decorations of flowers and asparagus greens and bells. To the lofty strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin played by Harpist Devio, the wedding party descended the stairs and between aisles made with ribbons held by Ushers Carter and Stuart, proceeded to the parlor, where Father Brown tied the knot, amid a bower of flowers and wedding bells.

Mr. Contee, the uncle, gave the bride away; Miss Maud Carrie, the groom's sister, was bridesmaid; Mr. Wm. Slade was best man. The bride was beautiful in white broadcloth with appliques of pearl and battenburg trimmings; court train; bridal veil plumed with orange blossoms and a cluster of diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white bridal roses and a shower of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaid wore pink mouselin de soie with appliques of white lace and carried pink carnations.

The wedding gifts were many and costly. Rarely are so many testimonials of good will showered upon young people. A Morris chair from the D. A. C. and a silver chest from the Denver Club boys were among them.

The hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Contee is famous. Every art was used to make this wedding auspicious. Mesdames Nannie Finley, Edward Grice, J. W. Bush and Frank Gaines assisted the hostess. Misses Annie Moore, Josephine Allyn, Marguerite Patterson and Marguerite Graves served punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrie are at home temporarily at 2609 Lafayette street.

Visitors to the wedding from out of the city were Mesdames G. W. Gross, J. W. Macon, Chas. Banks and Miss Edna Winfrey of Colorado Springs, all relatives of the bridegroom.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my dear wother, Mrs. Mollie Cruse, who departed this life one year ago, Jan. 17, 1910. It is hard to live without her, but surely God knows best. He has taken her from all sorrow and given her sweet rest. Gone but not forgotten.

Her daughter and family,
MRS. LIZZIE WILLIAMS.

Both Mrs. DePriest and son are better.

Mrs. James Washington has been down from Cheyenne this week the guest of Mrs. A. M. Ward.

The baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon has pneumonia.

AN AMAZON ARMY.

The twenty-five ladies who are taking part in the drill next month under the auspices of the Missionary Society of Shorter church have received their rifles. Timid husbands and sweethearts had best look sharp. Suffragettes, take notice! The rifles are the workmanship of W. H. Finley and are complete from stock to sight.
