TUESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1903.

The Republican candidate for mayor of Boston was swallowed by Mayor Collins yesterday.

Wonder if Mayor Burke of Burlington will call for the resignation of any one as the result of the fire yesterday.

Statistics recently prepared in New York show that a little over 20 per cent of the people of Manhattan go to church. It would be interesting to know where the other 74 per cent will go.

Senator Hanna is out of the reckoning as chairman of the national Republican committee. Have you heard that before? But really and truly Marous appears to be out this time, although it is no telling actually what he will do until he does it.

At the last meeting of the Montpelier license commissioners to hear the quarterly reports of the police officers as to the working of the new liquor law, the unanimous report was that "conditions have been much better regarding the sale of liquor and the amount of intoxication during the last three months than in previous periods. Officers who have been avowedly opposed to the license law reported that they were agreeably surprised at the workings of the present law." The Rutland News and sundry other skeptical newspapers are hereby notified that license has "took" in Montpelier.

From the results, it would appear that there was a most lamentable lack of headwork on the part of those individuals of West Pawlet, this state, who brought to trial a man, and a minister at that, charged with the grossest neglect and cruelty to a three-year old child which was taken into his household. The most profound secrecy was maintained as to the exact nature of the charges, those instigating them asserting confidentially that when the trial came they would have indubitable proof of the minister's guilt. The trial came and the Rev. Daniel McIntyre was promptly acquitted; and not only was he acquitted by jury but the sentiment of the town was decidedly in his favor. Thus we see a man accused unjustly, brought to trial for something he was not guilty of and his reputation given a certain stigma however much his character was cleared by the trial, on account of too hasty judgment.

"Lives there a man with soul so dead, Who can be indifferent to what is said— By the opposite sex about the style of his clothes?"

Our clothes are cut to make men look their best—this is more than can be said of the results obtained by the average tailor.

The slight man should not slight this hint.

The heavy weight will find heavy odds in our favor.

on the part of his accusers. It should be a lesson, not alone for those misguided West Pawlet people.

CHRISTMAS

ANNIVERSARY SALE.

One year ago this week The Vaughan Store opened its doors in Barre. This is our first anniversary week. To celebrate this event we are going to give you better values this week than you have ever received before from this or any other dry goods store.

ON FIRST FLOOR.

If you knew as much about this sale and the great values we have for you as we do ourselves, you couldn't keep away from this store. We have room to mention only a few items: New Nobby Furs, Ladies' Dress and Walking Skirts, Ladies' White and Fancy Flannel Waists, Ladies' and Misses' Opera Shawls, Gloves and Mittens, Harvard Golf Jackets, Fancy Lace Collars and Shoulder Capes, Fancy Neckwear, thousands of Handkerchiefs, Silk Mufflers, Sterling Silver Novelties, Toilet Sets, Wrist Bags, Purses, Belts, Beads, etc. These, with hundreds of other desirable goods, are displayed on first floor.

ON SECOND FLOOR.

We are showing Blankets, Puffs, Beautiful Outing Flannel, Night Robes, Skirts, Children's Flannel Night Gowns and Petticoats, Peerless Muslin Underwear (the best in the world), Corsets, Draperies, Lace Curtains, Children's Bonnets, Down Pillows and a large line of Fleece-lined and All-wool Underwear for Ladies, Misses and Children.

Lots of people have a wrong impression about the size of our store and the business we do. Perhaps you are under the impression that this is nothing but a small two-by-one store, with its small assortment, etc. If you will only take the trouble to walk through the main store, then up one flight to the second floor, you'll tell a different story. This store has been enlarged and made better in every way. It is a day-light store. Thanking you for your liberal patronage the past year, we wish you all a MERRY CHRISTMAS.
