

A TONIC FOR GIRLS

Girls who study hard or work hard, who grow pale and thin, who come home from school or shop too tired to do anything even in the way of amusement—these are the girls who will get most benefit from a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. No medicine ever offered the public has been such a boon to suffering women and girls as this tonic remedy. These pills are not a mere stimulant, giving temporary relief; they build up the body anew by making rich, red blood that imparts splendid health, brightness, cheerfulness, energy and ambition.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills begin their work of improvement with the first dose. The first sign of improvement is usually an increased appetite, the absence of distressing symptoms after eating, more refreshing sleep, a better color in face and lips. These are signs that pure rich blood is now circulating through the body and that, with this necessary assistance, nature is effecting a cure.

Mrs. John Brawley, of R. F. D. No. 5, Harbor Beach, Mich., who was cured by these pills, says:

"I began to be anemic, while in school, for the hard study and confinement caused me to become run down. I suffered from severe headaches and such dizzy spells that I could hardly walk. I could not sleep at night, and although I would get hungry, could not eat without distress. My heart fluttered and there was such a pain around it that I could only take short breaths or gasps. I was very nervous, lost in weight and had no color. I was not confined to bed, but could hardly drag around."

"For two years I tried many doctors and medicines but without much help. At last I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon my blood became rich and pure, my heart strong and I felt better than in years. I continued taking the pills and was cured."

There is new strength for tired girls and women in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People; they make new blood that dispels the "always tired" feeling and the continual backaches. They banish headaches, low spirits, palpitation of the heart and fits of nervousness.

Two booklets, "Building Up the Blood" and "Plain Talks to Women," will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, or by mail, postpaid, upon receipt of price, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Uncle Ezra Says.

The Men Who Succeed

as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, to-day, demands health. To all is to fail. It is utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half-alive condition, when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Charles B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Honest Advice to

Consumptives

Somehow there exists a vast amount of scepticism as to the possibility of curing Consumption. We state none but facts, and are sincere in what we assert. If we were afflicted with Tuberculosis, we should do precisely what we ask others to do—take Eckman's Alternative promptly and faithfully. The reason we should do this and warrant we have for asking all Consumptives to take it, is that we have the reports of many recoveries, one of which follows:—
"1019 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.
"Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number totaled nearly one hundred. Our family physician advised another climate, as to remain would probably be fatal. However, I remained, and in February 1902, I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I learned of and started taking Eckman's Alternative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. Since that time I have had no more slight attacks of pneumonia and I have recovered to no other medicine to effect a cure."
"I am at present in excellent health and feel that as long as I can obtain Eckman's Alternative I have no fear of Consumption. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."
(Signed) EDWARD L. KLOTZ.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"A Night Out" at Barre Opera House Next Wednesday.

May Robson, who has won a definite position in her profession and earned a recognition from the public and the press by her excellent portrayal of eccentric characters has in collaboration with C. T. Dazey written her new starring vehicle, "A Night Out," and will give a pretentious production of the play at the opera house next Wednesday, Oct. 2nd. The story and the action of the piece are entirely different from "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," but offer a greater and more fitting opportunity for Miss Robson's clever acting. The motive of the comedy is to illustrate in part the phases of heredity influence—not seriously, but in full measure, for Miss Robson's genius for characterization and humor.

ROOSEVELT READY TO SHOW LETTERS

Says If Hearst Will Give Dates, He'll Publish Them Himself.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 27.—Col. Roosevelt was asked here about the article published in Hearst's Magazine for October, containing letters in which his name is mentioned. The magazine has not yet got out into this section of the country, and none of the Roosevelt party had seen it. The colonel at first refused to discuss the subject until he could see what the charges against him were. He was told, however, that a telegram from New York to a reporter conveyed the information that one of the letters was by Congressman Sibley and was to the effect that Roosevelt, who was then president, wanted to see Archibald and that he, Archibald, would receive a first-class welcome and a great surprise.

"I don't remember the incident," said the colonel, "but if Sibley or any other congressman asked permission to bring any man to see me who wanted to give me any information, or make any complaint, I always made the appointment. I saw Mr. Harriman, I saw Pierpont Morgan, I saw labor leaders who came in the interest of Haywood and Meyer, I saw everybody. Once John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came to see me by appointment arranged through Cleveland Dodge. Mr. Rockefeller and I didn't talk about trusts, though we talked about the white slave traffic, a subject in which he was much interested."

You remember he was the chairman of what was called the white slave grand jury, and we talked about a baseball game between the police and fire departments in New York. I never sent for Mr. Archibald in my life, but if Mr. Sibley ever told me that he wanted Mr. Archibald to come and see me I probably told him to go ahead and bring him on. That was my uniform rule in all such cases."

The colonel was told that Mr. Hearst, according to the telegram, had threatened to publish more letters unless Col. Roosevelt came out and told the truth. "Well," said the colonel, carelessly, "if Mr. Hearst has any more letters, I entreat him to publish them. Furthermore, if he will indicate the approximate dates of the letters so that I can get some line on about what time of the year and in what year they were written, I'll save him the trouble, I'll publish them myself."

This $12 Set at the Expense of The Times

Everybody needs an encyclopedia, but heretofore the high prices have made it impossible for many to possess a set. Ordinarily the prices average about $30 or $40 a set, running as high as $150 to $200. The volumes are large and cumbersome, some sets taking up a space equal to two or three shelves in the book case. Now compare these with the featherweight edition of EVERYBODY'S CYCLOPEDIA, which is less than one foot, complete. Compare the price of EVERYBODY'S CYCLOPEDIA listed at $12 against even the cheapest set of the large, unwieldy volumes at $30. Then consider that this newspaper assumes the manufacturing cost allowing its readers to pay only the items of expense necessary to distribution. It then becomes a matter of comparing $30 with $1.98, the total expense amount required for a complete set of EVERYBODY'S CYCLOPEDIA. Is there a reader of this paper that cannot meet this expense? Is there any that can afford to be without this great reference library? It is a necessity in every home, for the use of every man, woman and child—the teacher, the student—at home or in school.

Color, Monotone and Text Illustrations costing thousands of dollars, and unequalled in any work of this character. This feather weight edition contains a wealth of useful information unequalled by any other similar work. It treats 35,000 subjects, in all branches of knowledge; but this is your last chance to get it, so ACT AT ONCE.

ONE COUPON clipped from another page of this paper together with the EXPENSE AMOUNT gets the set.

his right eye and many other bruises caused considerable irritation.

Mrs. Marconi, who was not hurt in the collision, sat up nursing her husband through the night.

King Victor Emmanuel, it was said, would visit Mr. Marconi to-day.

Further details of the accident show that Mr. Marconi was driving at the time that the automobile with which his car collided was practically wrecked.

It belonged to a lawyer named Beltrame, who for 30 years resided in the United States. He was severely bruised about the breast, while his son's teeth were all broken. The other occupants of the automobile, with the exception of the driver, were thrown out but not hurt.

Mr. Marconi's secretary suffered a dislocation of the arm. Mr. Marconi, in spite of his injuries, at once sent a telegram to the naval department here asking for assistance.
