Friends in this city will be interested to learn of the assignment of a parish at Los Angeles, Cal., to Rev. E. O. Thayer, formerly pastor of the Hedding Methodist church in Barre. Word to that effect was received this morning. The church to which Mr. Thayer has been appointed is situated in a precinct that is rapidly growing. Dr. Thayer reports that churches in that part of California grow by leaps and bounds, and that he is thoroughly content with his assignment. Since leaving this city last April, where he relinquished his duties with the Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Thayer has been located at Long Beach, Cal., a small city a few miles outside of Los Angeles.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

We wish to notify the housewives of Barre that we have just purchased a supply of washable, antiseptic Wall Coating in all shades, to take the place of dusty, germ-collecting wall paper. Everybody knows that paper is the greatest germ-collector known to science. This is a new article on the market and is officially guaranteed by the state boards of health and leading architects of the United States and Canada. It should always be used, especially in sleeping rooms, and will surely appeal to everyone at the present time because of the smallpox epidemic. In any case where the plastering is not good, this Coating adheres perfectly to Wall Paper and disinfests it. We have also purchased a Steaming Machine, which will remove all old wall paper quickly. All of our work guaranteed to be satisfactory and prices right. Let us investigate your work and satisfy you that ours is the only right way. Call at No. 3 Seminary street, or telephone 178-13 to leave orders. TREMBLAY BROTHERS Painters, Paper Hangers and Decorators BARRE, VERMONT

Stafford of Long street returned yesterday from Burlington, where she has been visiting for the past week. G. Andrew Wilkinson, who is employed at the Rutland garage in Rutland, is passing a few days at his former home in Barre. C. S. Andrews follows other business enterprises, along the street by taking the necessary precautions against the spread of smallpox. Mr. Andrews has thoroughly fumigated the People's shoe store with the proper materials. Lawrence Holmes of Montpelier was arraigned in city court this morning on a charge of intoxication, subsequent offense, to which he entered a plea of guilty. Judge H. W. Scott fined the respondent $15 and costs of $4.39, which he arranged to pay. Holmes came back from Montreal, P. Q., last night and intended to leave the train at Montpelier. A little nap which started up the line somewhere lasted six miles too long, and Officer Harry Gamble found the man wandering about the streets around 10 o'clock. He passed the night at police headquarters. Penitentiary Convict Plays His Old Role of a Circus Clown. In the October Magazine appears a description of a great theatrical production given twice a year by convicts in the state penitentiary of California. One of the passages in the article has to do with an old time circus clown who has been in prison for twenty years, serving a life sentence for murdering a trapeze performer. The following is an extract: "Three acrobats took the stage. One was a clown. His jokes were quaint; they were the sort that the sawdust ring knew twenty years ago. The clown did not know that circus fun had changed in the world outside; twenty years represented the time he had been away from it all. In his performance to-night he was getting back, back to that last night in the sawdust; the night he galloped from the ring on a donkey to confront in the dressing tent the trapeze man who had come between him and the queen of the slack wire. The old clown had been here ever since. Apparently it was good to get into contact with his own world once more. Nobody told him that the world he had found again was of the generation that had passed; that it did not exist except in the imagination of a poor old man from the life tier."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Adds Healthful Qualities to the Food

Prof. Prescott, of the University of Michigan, testified before the Pure Food Committee of Congress, that the acid of grapes held highest rank as an article of food and he regarded the results from baking with cream of tartar baking powder as favorable to health.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.
