Here At Home

Barre Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise, there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Barre citizen:

George W. Lander, 92 N. Main street, Barre, Vt., says: "I had frequently seen Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in the local papers by citizens of Barre, but had no occasion to use them until my back began to bother me about ten years ago. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they acted as a tonic to my kidneys. I have never needed a kidney remedy since. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a reliable remedy."

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

To-night "What Happened to Mary," at Barre Opera House.

"What Happened to Mary," a new play by Owen Davis, author of many successes, is a comedy to be presented at the opera house to-night. The Mary stories already published in The Ladies World met with such popularity that it suggested the incidents contained in this play with the result of making it a delightful entertainment.

The theme is a condition little discussed yet often met in modern life—one that is said to be close to the heart of every mother and father. Mr. Davis has handled it with skill and courage and his adroit construction shows a distinct comedy vein with deep touches of seriousness. There is a convincing moral and the production will in every way be one of merit. The cast is an excellent one and the scenic effects and costumes will be in keeping with the value of the offering. This is one of the plays that can be enjoyed by every member of the family. The little joys and sorrows are pleasantly handled and the whole is convincing. It comes well endorsed by the entire press of New York where it had a phenomenal run of several months.—Adv.

"Fine Feathers" Saturday.

"Fine Feathers," which will be seen here on Saturday matinee and night at the opera house is said to be valuable in picturing with exactness the pervasiveness of moral short-sightedness in financial matters and the casual manner in which wickedness is regarded as long as it pays. It is said to be a smart, entertaining and illuminative play of today.

In this play Bob Reynolds, who is working for $25 a week in a laboratory has a beautiful wife, who finds herself burdened by a life of waiting for a better fortune than a house in Staten Island and a maid at $2 a week. Enter John Brand, a contractor and college pal of Bob. He throws a good job and a bonus of $40,000 at Bob if he will certify to ordinary Portland cement for use in an irrigation dam, in place of the super refined cement called for in the specifications.

Brand sees the specious mentality of the wife, and uses her as a means. She applies to Bob the same logic that takes business men either to the penitentiary or a bank directors' meeting and, by threat of leaving her husband, who will not regard marriage as a partnership, brings Bob over to Brand's way of thinking and gets him to become a dressmaker. In the first act she has

FACE BROKE OUT IN RED SPOTS

Blotchy All Over, Became Scaly, Scratched Until Made Them Bleed. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face and Head Cured.

24 Gilbert St., New Britain, Conn.—"My little boy's face used to get awful red and sometimes when I used to wash it it would bleed. Then it got blotchy all over and was horrid looking. His face broke out in red spots and then became scaly. He used to scratch them, until he would make them bleed. Then his head started to break out. He was restless at night and complained of his face being sore. His head was all little cuts from scratching it."

"So I thought I would send for a sample of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I only used them for a few days when there was such a change in his looks. His face began to get clear. When the sample was gone I got one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I washed his face with the Cuticura Soap and warm water every night and morning and applied the Cuticura Ointment for four weeks and his face was cured. I got another cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and was only using them for two weeks and they made his scalp nice and clean. His head was cured." (Signed) Mrs. Isabelle Guenther, May 26, 1913.

For treating poor complexion, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have been the world's favorite for more than a generation. A single set is often sufficient. Sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

After Long Suffering

Women Are Constantly Being Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Worth mountains of gold," says one woman. Another says, "I would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all the other medicines for women in the world." Still another writes, "I should like to have the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound thrown on the sky with a searchlight so that all suffering women could read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their ills."

We could fill a newspaper ten times the size of this with such quotations taken from the letters we have received from grateful women whose health has been restored and suffering banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished such a universal success? Why has it lived and thrived and kept on doing its glorious work among the sick women of the world for more than 30 years?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has ever approached its success is plainly and simply because there is no other medicine so good for women's ills.

Here are two letters that just came to the writer's desk—only two of thousands, but both tell a comforting story to every suffering woman who will read them—and be guided by them.

FROM MRS. D. H. BROWN.

Iola, Kansas.—"During the Change of Life I was sick for two years. Before I took your medicine I could not bear the weight of my clothes and was bloated very badly. I doctored with three doctors but they did me no good. They said nature must have its way. My sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I purchased a bottle. Before it was gone the bloating left me and I was not so sore. I continued taking it until I had taken 12 bottles. Now I am stronger than I have been for years and can do all my work, even the washing. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold. I cannot praise it enough. If more women would take your medicine there would be more healthy women. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. D. H. Brown, 809 North Walnut Street, Iola, Kan.

MRS. WILLIAMS SAYS:

Elkhart, Ind.—"I suffered for 14 years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanitive Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
