The Cause of the Mighty Slaughter---The Critical Moment Has Arrived

That is the situation here now. We openly admit we are overstocked and badly in need of cash. Our bills are overdue, our creditors are clamoring for their money, and in order to satisfy their urgent demand I have been forced to take this step and sacrifice my entire stock, in order to save my good name, which is more than money to me. My entire capital is tied up in merchandise, so therefore meet the situation promptly and emphatically. The enormity of my stock, the vital danger it implies at this critical financial stagnation, forces me to sell out at any cost. My loss is your gain.

Notwithstanding my reputation as a giver of best values, I now give an extra twirl to the wheels of trade by offering such astonishing low values that competition is not even attempted. It is unnecessary to go into details relative to the high class of merchandise I carry, for every man, woman and child in this community is well aware of the fact that anything bought of me is the best money could buy. Now is the time to reap the harvest. Come to this sale expecting the greatest bargains ever attempted, and your expectations will be more than realized. Save this bill and bring it with you.
