BETHEL

George McNichol has moved from Williamstown into the C. F. Waldo house on River street. He is a last block manufacturer, buying the stock from J. S. Davis & Sons and other producers and turning out the finished product with machinery. He is seeking a suitable building in Bethel in which to carry on his business, this being a natural center of that industry, due to the abundance of raw material in the upper valley of the White river.

A. C. Batcheller goes next week to Sharon to engage with O. C. Sawyer in mercantile business. He has been employed about 10 years at A. N. Washburn's grain and feed store and before that ran a farm several years in company with his father-in-law, Fred E. Gilman. Mrs. Batcheller has been active in club and musical circles during this whole period. Mr. Batcheller came here from Bedford, Que.

South Main street is being resurfaced with gravel from the local farm. Two trucks leased by the town from Jones & Greeley of Windsor are carrying the gravel.

The Hammond farm in Barnard has been sold by the Cadwell estate to O. E. Orton, who has been living at the Keller place the past year.

E. L. Bass has set out 2,000 white pine seedlings in the Jerusalem district in Rochester.

D. C. Rogers is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Leon Thomas, in Montpelier.

Jerome F. Shaw has moved from Stockbridge to the Welch house, near W. L. Parsons.

Dr. W. H. Cook and family have been visiting his parental home at West Fairlee.

Mrs. W. J. Brooks is in Springfield, Mass., with her daughter, Helen, who teaches there.

Mrs. F. M. Bowen was operated on Monday at the Randolph sanatorium and was doing well at last reports.

Joseph Roby of Island Pond is visiting his aunt, Mrs. John J. Wilson.

The condition of Fred A. Marsh, who is critically ill at the Randolph sanatorium, was reported slightly better yesterday.

James P. Marsh is in Boston for a business trip and also to visit his son, Ralph C. Marsh, and family at Waltham, Mass. His store is being kept open by F. B. Moxham.

Mrs. V. B. Eddy is visiting her daughter in Windsor.

The masquerade ball with music by Gilson's orchestra, under grange auspices, which was postponed some weeks ago because of the prevalence of influenza, will be held Friday evening of this week.

Miss Victoria Morse, formerly of this place, a government employee at Washington, D. C., has bought a farm at Swansey, N. H., and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morse, are living on it.

MARSHFIELD

Carroll Peck of Cabot is to begin his weekly moving picture shows in the Marshfield hall Tuesday evening, May 4. Good music for dancing after the pictures.—adv.

The Period of Thinking

should be followed by a period of action. Merely thinking about life in advance won't help any if the need of it should come suddenly. That year National Life Ins. Co. (Mutual) S. S. Ballard, general agent, Bialle block, Montpelier, Vt.

IT PAYS FOR ITSELF

DELCO-LIGHT
"Electricity for every farm"

Delco-Light really costs you nothing. It pays for itself by doing work,—running the washer, pumping the water and doing many other odd jobs. This is the opinion of the vast army of Delco-Light users.

WELLS RIVER

Mrs. Kilburn Powers went to Boston the latter part of last week, where she will spend two or three weeks with relatives and friends.

In the first baseball game of the season Wells River high defeated Bath high school by score of 18-8 on Friday last. Batters for Wells River were Chase and Wilbur.

The third wreck in the last week on the Mountain road occurred last Wednesday night. In the entire three there has been no loss of life and little damage.

Mrs. Goss returned Saturday from Boston, where she has been spending several days with friends.

Percy Smith and wife of Montpelier were visitors in town on Friday last at the home of his father, E. W. Smith.

Mr. Winsup spent Sunday with his wife at St. Johnsbury. She is in the hospital of that place following an operation. She is reported as doing nicely.

Samuel Hutchins and wife returned Saturday from a week's vacation in Boston and vicinity.

Elvin Cameron of Newport spent the week end with his father, Sidney Cameron of this place.

The interchurch drive in Wells River netted the Congregational church $2,200. Only $800 was required.

The change in time in Massachusetts caused all the trains to run one hour earlier. Morning trains are all in and out by 2:30, with the exception of the Montpelier train, which waits for the Montreal express, which are not affected by the change. Night trains also run on the old schedule.

Mrs. Frank Bourke and daughter, who have been spending several weeks with Mr. Bourke's people in Melrose, Mass., returned to her home the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Earle Streeter, who has been at Cottage hospital for over three weeks, was able to return home on Friday last.

Mrs. Hazel Henderson Bradley has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Elery Davis.

The house occupied by Carl Dickerman at Moore mill has been bought by Mr. Stone of Woodsville from that place. This house is located near what was the old brick yard. Mr. Stone intends to reopen and operate this yard during the coming season. The brick yard at Woodsville, which has also been idle for several years, will reopen this season.

A food sale held last Saturday for the benefit of the ladies' aid society was most successful.

Due to the change in the time of arrival and departure of trains, the public schools will open and close one-half hour earlier to accommodate the out-of-town students.

John Morris of Thetford was a business visitor in town last Tuesday.
