

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

The steamer Vermont made its first trip of the season on Lake Champlain today.

The granite industry at Hardwick opened up today under the new wage schedule of $8 a day.

G. L. Nichols of East Enosburg recently sold 21 registered jereys for $4,800 to go to Meredith, N. Y.

While Walter Sticher of Weybridge was trying to catch a calf, he was thrown onto a wire fence and five gashes were cut in his arm.

The oval inside the race track of the Caledonia county fairgrounds at St. Johnsbury is to be graded to make it a landing place for airplanes.

Fifteen of the houses built in Springfield by the Fellows Gear Shaper Co. have already been sold to employees of the company and are being occupied as fast as completed.

Clark, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Corliss of Springfield, while playing with a 22-caliber rifle a few days ago, put a bullet through the second toe of his right foot.

Principal H. A. Swaffield of Smith academy at Hatfield has accepted a position as principal of the high school in Montpelier. Mr. Swaffield has been principal of Smith academy for six years.

A big apartment convention is to be held in Burlington June 22 and 23, backed by all state societies having to do with outdoor life, including the State Trap Shooters' association and the Vermont Fish and Game league.

A wooden building in West Halifax used downstairs as a blacksmith shop and upstairs as a wood turning plant was burned to the ground Friday, with a loss estimated from $1,200 to $1,600. The building was erected 48 years ago.

More than $5,000 damage was done to the Central Vermont roundhouse in Brattleboro Friday morning. Six engines were in the building, but all except one were run out. The damage to the building is estimated at $2,000 and the damage to the engine was said to be $3,000.

It has been learned that it was Col. Preston Brown of the war college at Washington, who visited St. Johnsbury recently, instead of General Pershing, as was generally announced through the state press. Col. Brown is said to have a strong resemblance to the general, except that he is much heavier.

Henry T. Ames, son of Senator Harry B. Ames, has brought suit against the director general of railroads to recover $10,000 for loss of eyesight alleged to have taken place when he was employed repairing an electric headlight on an engine on the Grand Trunk railway. The case will be tried in United States district court at Newport.

The annual summer outing of the Vermont Press association is to take the form of an automobile tour through southern Vermont, beginning June 17 and ending June 20. Special places of interest will be visited and on Saturday the excursionists will be entertained by James Hartness at his underground observatory in Springfield.

Rev. Clement G. Clark of Chicago, having accepted the call of the Springfield Congregational church to be its pastor, commenced his new duties yesterday. His salary is to be $4,000 a year. Mr. Clark has been engaged in the interchurch movement since completing Y. M. C. A. work overseas. He was pastor for seven years of the Congregational church in Minneapolis, Minn., and for four years in Peoria, Ill.

M. B. Carvey, a prominent citizen of Poulney, died Saturday morning at the age of 84 years. He had been first selectman for 18 years, also overseer of the poor and fire warden for a number of years. He was treasurer of the Poulney order of the A. O. H. for 16 years, for 20 years conducted a general store and for seven years was superintendent of the Ande & Carr Co., one of the largest slate operators in the vicinity.

A party of seven people, three young men and four young women, all students in the Bristol high school except Miss Perrington, the teacher, were in an automobile accident while returning from Lake Dunmore a few days ago, when the car went into a ditch, turned turtle and buried the occupants beneath it. Miss Perrington was injured about the arms and shoulders and Miss Emma Bucklin had a sprained wrist and many bruises. She was unconscious for a time. The car had a broken mud shield, a badly jammed radiator, broken axle and steering gear.

Dr. W. A. Merrill, who since Feb. 21 has had a very peculiar illness, at his home in Springfield, which was at last diagnosed as tuberculosis, is now on the road to recovery through a strange series of circumstances. On the date above mentioned, Dr. Merrill felt sure he swallowed a piece of bone from a pork chop. He soon developed a case of acute bronchitis and then one lung became affected. Recently Dr. Merrill had a violent coughing spell, during which a piece of bone half an inch wide and three-fourths of an inch long was expelled, which had been buried in his right lung three months. The abscess on the lung is now healing and the man is expected to rally rapidly.

U. V. M. INSTRUCTOR RESIGNS.

Prof. J. F. Messenger Going to Idaho September 1.

Prof. J. F. Messenger, for the past 11 years director of the summer school at the University of Vermont and head of the department of education in the College of Arts and Sciences, has tendered his resignation, to take effect Sept. 1. Prof. Messenger leaves to accept a position in Idaho university. This is one of the growing educational institutions of the country, and while the state of Idaho is not large, as population goes, the university has two-thirds of a million dollars a year with which to operate. The department of education there has been made into a distinct college this year, and Prof. Messenger will be the first to have charge of it.

NORMAL SCHOOL REUNION

Graduates of Old R. S. N. S. to Meet Those of V. S. A. at Randolph Center.

An especial feature of the V. S. A. commencement at Randolph center will be the reunion of the normal school alumni.

At the banquet held in the middle of the day Thursday, June 17, the toast master at the post-prandial exercises will be the well-known educator, Andrew W. Edson of New York City, who is himself an alumnus, as well as a former principal of the school. Charles H. Morrill of Bakersfield, well remembered and beloved by his former pupils, will respond to a toast. There will be two other speeches by graduates of the R. S. N. S. and three by V. S. A. alumni.

The Celebration of Independence Day at Grafton.

On Saturday, June 3, there will be held in Grafton one of the principal Independence day celebrations of Vermont and New England. Aside from appropriate Fourth of July exercises, there will be a dedication of large playgrounds and a new bandstand in memory and honor of the soldiers who went from Grafton to the World war and other wars of national defense.

Hon. John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American union and former United States minister, who was born and brought up in Grafton and is honorary president of the Grafton, Memorial and Improvement association, will come from Washington to act as the presiding officer and make a brief address describing the significance of the playgrounds and the bandstand as memorials to Grafton's soldiers.

The principal address will be delivered by Maj. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, commanding general of the northwestern department, United States army, and the commander during the greater part of the war of the Yankee division on the battle front of France. General Edwards has received numerous decorations and has been awarded many medals and citations for his services in the World war. He is a native of Grafton and is a member of the Grafton, Memorial and Improvement association.

Governor Percival W. Clement has just accepted the invitation to attend the celebration and will speak just after General Edwards.

In view of the brilliant career of General Edwards, his position and his popularity in New England, as well as his ability as an eloquent and forceful speaker, it is believed that there will be a great outpouring of people from southern Vermont and from southeastern New Hampshire to hear his address. A large attendance will certainly be a compliment to him and an expression of the regard of Vermont and New England people for him.

The speaking and dedication exercises will take place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of June 3, but in the morning and later in the afternoon there will be competitive games, a baseball contest followed by fireworks at night, and other features.

"FEEL TWENTY YEARS YOUNGER"

That Is What Contractor Says After Tanlac Rid Him of Troubles.

"For the first time in nine years I am a well man, and I can do twice as much work now as I could before I took Tanlac," was the statement made a few days ago by Gideon Gaudette, the well-known shoemaker living at 108 Winter street, Manchester, N. H.

"I had been bothered with stomach trouble so much that for years and years I was not able to sit down and eat a good meal and enjoy it. My appetite had gotten down to where I didn't average two light meals a day, and even then I had to sometimes force myself to eat. I had constant pains in my stomach and I would bloat all up with gas and have a heavy full feeling for hours afterwards. Why, at times there were such awful pains in my head I thought they would drive me frantic. These spells got to coming on me every day, and many a time I had to leave my work and go home and try to get relief. My nerves were all unstrung and I was no restful I would wake up five and six times during the night. I didn't know what it was to ever feel good, in fact, I was so weak and listless I felt myself playing out altogether.

"But my relief has come at last, thanks to Tanlac. A friend of mine advised me to try it, and while I have taken only three bottles I am already feeling like my old-time self again. Tanlac went right to the spot and relieved those headaches in just a few days, and now I am never troubled with them in the least. My stomach is in the finest kind of shape, and it makes no difference at all what I eat. I never suffer any bad after-effects whatever. My nerves are all O. K. and I am sleeping as sound as I ever did in my life. I am working every day and I am feeling so good I am getting in lots of overtime. Tanlac has helped me when nothing else did, and I am certain recommend it, because I believe it will help anybody who gives it a fair trial."

Tanlac is sold in Barre by the Barre Drug Co., in Northfield by Nat. A. Wheeler, in Waterbury by Brubaker & Brubaker, in Westbury by E. H. Nersey—Adv.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

Settlement Reached in Suit Brought by Brattleboro People.

Boston, June 14.—A settlement out of court has been reached of the bill of equity brought by the Society of Seamstresses, Needlewomen and Shop Girls of Brattleboro, against Richard M. Bradley of Boston, one of the two trustees under the will of Thomas Thompson, who many years ago left a million dollars for the benefit of this class of workers at Brattleboro, and at Rhinebeck, N. Y. The settlement stipulates Bradley will continue as trustee but the share of the income for the town of Brattleboro will be turned over to a committee of citizens of that town for distribution.

Ardor Might Be Resented.

"The doctrine 'Love thy neighbor as thyself' may be all right in theory," said the egotist, "but I don't think it would work."

"It might not in your case," replied the man who knew him. "You'd have to be entirely too demonstrative."—Boston Transcript.
