EAST BRAINTREE

Mrs. J. W. Blanchard is visiting friends in Burlington for several days. Mrs. B. H. Dame is in East Randolph, caring for Mrs. George Boudro and infant son. Robert Ferguson has finished work in Windsor and is at home here with his parents. Mrs. Eugene Chadwick celebrated her 55th birthday last Wednesday by entertaining Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Cladin of Randolph and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fisher. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hubbard of Randolph Center were guests Saturday at E. A. Wheeler's. The ladies' aid will meet Friday, Jan. 21, with Mrs. Richard Rowell. Mrs. Janet Crain has been quite ill for several days with a troublesome chronic derangement.

ROXBURY

The funeral of the Secinton baby was held Sunday with a Catholic service and burial was in the Catholic cemetery in Northfield. Mrs. F. E. Wainwright suffered a shock last week. Although not considered a hard one, she is quite poorly and is being cared for by Mr. Wainwright and her daughter, Mrs. Averill, and granddaughter, Mrs. Tilden. Mrs. McKenzie was in Northfield Wednesday for the day. Automobiles have not been in use in this vicinity for several weeks until during the past week three are reported as coming here from Northfield and Montpelier. J. B. Kilder was in Northfield one day last week on creamery business. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Orent were here from Montpelier to spend the week.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is Quickest Relief Known

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing nose running; relieves headache, dizziness, feverishness, sneezing. "Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance. Tastes nice. Contains no quinine. Insist upon Pape's. Adv.

end at the home of her father, W. A. Averill. Mrs. George French was a visitor in Northfield during the week. Monday was a decided change in our winter weather, it being the roughest day so far this winter. Saturday was a day that was very noticeable also, because of the very icy condition of the sidewalks. Not much effort seemed to be made to remedy it. Harold Wainwright of Needham Heights, Mass., was here a few days last week to see his mother, Mrs. F. E. Wainwright, who has been quite ill. He returned home Sunday. Mrs. R. P. Nichols spent Saturday in Northfield and was a guest at the home of W. H. Cady. A shower party was given Miss Dora Bacon Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. C. Hall. Roy Lawton was a business visitor in Northfield recently. Dr. and Mrs. Albert Cram of Bridgewater are rejoicing at the arrival of a son Jan. 15.

WEST TOPSHAM

School was in session only two days last week on account of the illness of the teacher, Miss Welch. Monday was a good day to stay in the house and to be thankful for a comfortable home and plenty of fuel, but the worst day this winter for enjoying one's self out of doors. George Hight and F. B. Abbott, who have been quite ill with the prevailing influenza, are better. Mrs. and Mrs. Benjamin Lowrey of East Barre visited at L. M. Flynn's Friday and Saturday. Remember that the service next Sunday will be in the evening at 7 o'clock. Sunday school at noon at Mrs. Waldo's.

Mrs. George Tullar is very ill. Part of her children have been called home. On Thursday evening, Jan. 13, at the parsonage at East Corinth, Leslie Welch and Ruby, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Colby, were united in marriage. They are to reside with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Welch, in Waits River, on the Minard place. Dr. Marshall of Chelsea was at A. Andre's on Saturday in council with Dr. Deming in the case of the three-year-old child, who has an abscess on his neck, due to the effects of the scarlet fever. He is still badly afflicted and in quarantine. The benevolent society is placing a quilt for the college boys who are connected with the missions. Mrs. Wallace Chalmers was at her son's, Clifford, three days last week and called on a few of her former neighbors. Eleanor Chalmers has been carrying her arm in a sling as the result of a fall upon the icy pavement at Bradford, not being able to attend school last week.

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole.

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain. Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back, joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds on the chest. Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use.
