

SPAULDING'S BACKS RAN WILD

Romped Over Montpelier
High By Score of 45 to 0

ABBIATTI STAR
WITH LONG RUNS

Montpelier's Only Strong Point Was in Sheridan's Punting.

Spaulding high school easily defeated Montpelier high on the National Life field at Montpelier yesterday afternoon by the score of 45 to 0. Montpelier lacked weight to stop the tearing, plunging backfield from Barre. Captain Abbiatti was the star of the game, his long runs being the sensation of the afternoon. The Barre team started fast, and before the first half had ended ran up the score of 18 to 0.

Spaulding started the game, kicking to Comi, who ran the ball back 15 yards. Spooner made seven yards and on the next play was thrown for a loss of five yards. Montpelier fumbled and Galli recovered for Spaulding. Straight line plunging by all the backs on the Barre team brought the ball within scoring distance and Ingram took it over for the first score. Erickson missed the goal. The second score came a few minutes later when Galli intercepted a forward pass and raced thirty yards to the goal line. Watkins missed the goal.

Montpelier was outclassed in every department of the game except punting. Sheridan's kicks were long and high. His distance was splendid but his teammates could not throw the heavy Spaulding backs. In the second quarter Abbiatti carried the ball 42 yards on one play, bringing the ball to Montpelier's 12-yard line. Spaulding brought the ball to Montpelier's two-yard line on three plays and Abbiatti carried it over for the third touchdown.

Kelley, the diminutive end on the Montpelier outfit, who replaced Perolini soon after the second quarter started, was the star man on the Montpelier defensive game. His tackling of the dashing Abbiatti when the fleet back had started on a long jaunt down the field was the nearest bit of tackling during the first half.

The Montpelier team started the second half with a determination which staggered Spaulding. After kicking off and recovering they made two first downs in short time and it looked like a matter of a few seconds before they would cross Spaulding's line. But the Barre aggregation dug in and held them twice for no gain. Sheridan attempted a drop kick from the 20-yard line but the ball went wide.

Spaulding then commenced another march down the field only to lose the ball when Spooner intercepted a forward pass on his own 30-yard line. Sheridan was forced to kick and Erickson received on his own 25-yard line. This time Spaulding began a march down the field that was not to be stopped and soon romped over for the fourth score. Watkins kicked the ball over the bar this time and put Spaulding ahead by the score of 25 to 0.

The next touchdown was featured by a Spaulding sprint by Erickson, the Spaulding back, of 32 yards and on the next play he took it over the goal line. Watkins again came through with the extra point. Abbiatti and Watkins again put over the next seven points for the Barre boys.

The last touchdown was made with only three regulars in the Spaulding line-up. Montpelier also began to run in subs at this time. The flashy Galli carried the ball over the line, with darkness fast approaching and a full moon riding high over the field. Watkins kicked the goal from field but it hit the cross-bar and a few minutes later the game ended, with Spaulding on the long end of a 45 to 0 score. The summary:

Spaulding	Montpelier
Howie, lb.	Perolini, lb.
Melver, lb.	Sheridan, lb.
Kendall, lb.	Corliss, lb.
Smith, lb.	Heaton, lb.
Ellenwood, lb.	Leeden, lb.
Critchon, lb.	Johnson, lb.
Watkins, lb.	Pratt, lb.
Galli, qb.	Tomas, qb.
Erickson, lb.	Comi, lb.
Haley, lb.	Donnelly, lb.
Abbiatti, lb.	Spencer, lb.

Touchdowns, Ingram, Erickson, 2; Galli, 2; Abbiatti, 2. Goals from touchdown, Watkins, 3. Referee, Laird; umpire, Sanders; Norwich; head linesman, Barrett; Norwich; Sub, Montpelier; Johnson for Corliss; Kelley for Perolini; Perolini for Pratt; Heaton for Spooner; Spaulding, Ingram and Haley.

INTERSECTIONAL CONTESTS.

Heighten Interest In This Afternoon's Football.

New York, Nov. 4.—Three intersectional contests heighten interest in this afternoon's football schedule in the east.

Harvard with an eye toward the Princeton game a week from today, will call on its second string men to check Florida's invasion, unless the southerners display unexpected strength. Pennsylvania, revived by a brilliant victory over the navy last week, will be host to another eleven from Dixie, Alabama, while the third and most keenly awaited intersectional struggle will pit the strong Nebraska team against Syracuse which showed its mettle a week ago by holding Penn State to a tie.

Sharing interest with the intersectional contests will be the battle at the Polo grounds between Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson, two eleven undefeated since late in the fall of 1920.

Other outstanding contests on the schedule will bring together Yale and Brown at New Haven, Columbia and Cornell at Ithaca, Princeton and Swarthmore at Princeton, Holy Cross and Georgetown at Georgetown, Boston University and Dartmouth at Hanover, Union and Hobart at Geneva, N. Y., Lehigh and Colgate at Binghamton, N. Y.

THE MORNING NEWS SUMMARY

Liberal wings in Manchester and other Lancashire constituencies vote to unite against candidates of other parties and similar movements seem likely in other British constituencies.

Appointment of Baron Avenzano as ambassador to the United States to succeed Rolandi Ricci, officially announced in Rome.

Official report that German customs officials at Holland frontier have seized bridal gowns of Princess Hermine on ground that she failed to comply with necessary formalities.

Sultan presides at a council of his ministers despite specific decree by Angora assembly ordering his removal and some observers say ousted monarch will protest his dethronement which his cabinet denounces.

Speculators rush to turn marks into other securities as Berlin bourse as marks fall to 6,500 to the dollar.

Mrs. Catherine Rosier acquitted by Philadelphia jury on charge of murder of her husband and his stenographer.

Secretary Mellon announces that public debt of the United States has decreased $3,784,000, 000 from the peak of Aug. 31, 1919, until September of this year.

Herbert Hoover at Englewood, N. J., urges return of Republican Congress to insure government's co-operation with industry and commerce.

J. Thomas Gettigan, grocer, Revere, Mass., found guilty of manslaughter. He was tried on charge of murder of his aunt, Mrs. Lizzie McCook, who died of poison.

Dartmouth defeats Middlebury college in cross-country at Hanover.

Professor Austin J. McCormick of Bowdoin declines prison and jail conditions in leading Maine cities are very bad.

Rear Admiral S. K. retired, advocates 120,000 trained men for the United States navy in his address at Milford, N. H.

British schooner Marina, seized off Block Island, Aug. 12, by patrol boat Hahn, is freed from federal control by court order any sale from Providence with $75,000 liquor cargo, destination not given.

A Warning to Farmers.
Sound economics and patriotic statesmanship ring through President Harding's warning against deliberate decrease of production in agriculture as a means of increasing prices. While in abnormal times and under exceptional conditions the operation of the law of supply and demand may justify the disadvantage of farmers, this does not warrant them in attempting to create abnormal market conditions by decreased supply. Agricultural products are essential to life, and to limit the supply for the purpose of profiting on the resulting demand would be to traffic in human life.

No one is in better position to warn the farmers against such a course than the executive, for he has proved himself their unwavering champion and has earned their confidence by his unflagging zeal in promoting their interest—which he properly holds to be national in character. The improvement of agricultural conditions that has resulted from the remedial efforts of the Harding administration by itself and in cooperation with Congress bears convincing testimony to its sympathy with agricultural interests. Therefore the president's warning is to be accepted as the utterance of a friend, but being representative of the people, the administration would not be true to itself for the nation if it did not of agricultural production.—Washington stand against the deliberate restriction Post.

Women Need More and Better Blood
To be strong, well, equal to demands of home, society, office or shop. It is a fact proven by thousands of grateful letters that Hood's Sarsaparilla is remarkably beneficial to young or older women. The most common ailments of women drain and weaken the system and sometimes result in anemia, nervous weakness, general breakdown. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives the blood more vitality and better color, makes stronger nerves, and contributes to the length and enjoyment of life.

Value Unmatched at $995

Easy to drive, comfortable to ride in, beautiful to look upon and economical to maintain—the New Oaklands for 1923 satisfy every motoring requirement.

At its remarkably low price—$995—it has no equal in appearance and performance. Compare it—and you will want it.

H. F. CUTLER & SON
Opposite Fire Station. Tel. 750.

The New Oakland Six

BOSTON & MAINE PUTS EMBARGO

On Eastbound Carload Freight From Canadian Pacific R. R.

EMBARGOES WEST CAUSED BIG RUSH

Food and Perishable Products, Newsprint and Railway Material Excepted

Boston, Nov. 4.—A partial embargo on eastbound carload freight from points on and by way of the Canadian Pacific railway for delivery to the Boston and Maine at Newport, Vt., and by way of the Central Vermont railway for delivery to the Boston and Maine at any junction was announced by the Boston and Maine today. Food and perishable products, newsprint and railway material are excepted.

Embargoes in effect west of the road had resulted in an abnormal flow of traffic by way of the Boston and Maine's northern connections, the road announced.

QUARTERBACK DRISCOLL SMALL BUT MIGHTY

Used His Head As Well As What Bone and Brawn Nature Has Given to Him.

Burlington, Nov. 4.—The University of Vermont grid team has on its personnel one of the smallest, if not the smallest, player in college football this year. This is Joseph Driscoll of Nantuxet, Penn., who has played regular quarterback for the Green Mountaineers for two seasons. Driscoll weighs only 122 pounds and stands but five feet, two inches in height yet he is credited with being one of the ablest players in the smaller colleges of New England.

Besides being a heady player with an

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated almost uncanny ability of uncovering the opponents' weak spots during the early part of the game, he is himself a fine open field runner, famous for his running back kicks and punts. Last year, he made the second longest run in any football contest in the country when he received the ball on his own five yard line and ran it the length of the field for a touchdown.

Only twice during the two seasons he has played with University of Vermont has he been forced to quit the field from injury. Both of these occurred this season. In the Dartmouth contest which went to Vermont with a three point margin, Driscoll, during the third quarter, was the only man between Harris of Dartmouth and the Vermont goal line. The little fellow swooped down on the mighty Dartmouth back and stopped him on Vermont's 15 yard but was himself laid out on the play. He was also forced out of the Vermont-Holy Cross game through injury. Exclusive of these two injuries, Driscoll, in spite of his diminutive size has escaped injury in a game where strength and brawn for the most part rule.

Gentlemen—Be Cheated
We say, "The cost of living reminds us of Banquo's ghost."

Then you say: "Why does the cost of living remind you of Banquo's ghost?"

Then we say: "The cost of living reminds us of Banquo's ghost because it will not down."

Thank you.—Don Marquis, in New York Sun.

AFTER TEN YEARS' TEST MOTHER OF THESE CHILDREN PRAISES FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

After using Father John's Medicine for over ten years in her family Mrs. Swan Pearson of Oakland, Nebraska, writes, "Whenever any of my family get a cold or need building up I give them Father John's Medicine. Two of the children had pneumonia and I am sure it helped them to get well. I can't praise it enough and as long as I can buy it I shall never be without Father John's Medicine."

This experience is like that of thousands of other mothers who depend on Father John's Medicine for colds, coughs and as a general body builder. It is safe for all the family to take. A pure food medicine. No drugs.—adv.

This is the Home of VICTROLAS and VICTOR Records

We have on our floor every type of VICTROLAS from $25 to $375. Our VICTOR RECORD stock is the most complete to be found anywhere. Buy the Genuine Victor Records by The World's Most Famous Artists. They cost no more than any others. Open every evening.

Littlefield Piano Company, Inc.
Formerly Bailey's Music Rooms,
Tel. 399-W.
"The House of Music"

THIRTY-THREE MEDALS FOR HEROIC ACTIONS

Thirteen of the Persons Lost Their Lives in the Attempt—Carnegie Commission Honors Heroes.

Pittsburg, Nov. 4.—Thirteen persons who lost their lives in performing heroic deeds were honored by the Carnegie hero fund commission at its fall meeting here yesterday. Thirty-three acts of heroism were recognized by the commission, which awarded silver medals in four cases and bronze medals in 29 cases. The dependents of eight of the heroes who sacrificed their lives were granted pensions aggregating $8,750 a year, while in four similar cases, $2,500 was awarded.

One hero who was disabled was given $1,500 and benefits of $20 a month. In seven cases awards aggregating $11,200 were appropriated for educational and other purposes, while in eleven instances the commission awards aggregating $9,000 were approved for other worthy purposes.

The heroes who gave their lives in efforts to save others follow:

Albert H. Croyle, Colgate Heights, Springfield, Ark., died attempting to save a man from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

John H. Eden, 532 Hamilton avenue, the Jernigan-Nichols, which awarded silver medals in four cases and bronze medals in 29 cases. The dependents of eight of the heroes who sacrificed their lives were granted pensions aggregating $8,750 a year, while in four similar cases, $2,500 was awarded.

One hero who was disabled was given $1,500 and benefits of $20 a month. In seven cases awards aggregating $11,200 were appropriated for educational and other purposes, while in eleven instances the commission awards aggregating $9,000 were approved for other worthy purposes.

The heroes who gave their lives in efforts to save others follow:

Albert H. Croyle, Colgate Heights, Springfield, Ark., died attempting to save a man from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

John H. Eden, 532 Hamilton avenue, the Jernigan-Nichols, which awarded silver medals in four cases and bronze medals in 29 cases. The dependents of eight of the heroes who sacrificed their lives were granted pensions aggregating $8,750 a year, while in four similar cases, $2,500 was awarded.

One hero who was disabled was given $1,500 and benefits of $20 a month. In seven cases awards aggregating $11,200 were appropriated for educational and other purposes, while in eleven instances the commission awards aggregating $9,000 were approved for other worthy purposes.

The heroes who gave their lives in efforts to save others follow:

Albert H. Croyle, Colgate Heights, Springfield, Ark., died attempting to save a man from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

John H. Eden, 532 Hamilton avenue, the Jernigan-Nichols, which awarded silver medals in four cases and bronze medals in 29 cases. The dependents of eight of the heroes who sacrificed their lives were granted pensions aggregating $8,750 a year, while in four similar cases, $2,500 was awarded.

One hero who was disabled was given $1,500 and benefits of $20 a month. In seven cases awards aggregating $11,200 were appropriated for educational and other purposes, while in eleven instances the commission awards aggregating $9,000 were approved for other worthy purposes.

The heroes who gave their lives in efforts to save others follow:

Albert H. Croyle, Colgate Heights, Springfield, Ark., died attempting to save a man from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

John H. Eden, 532 Hamilton avenue, the Jernigan-Nichols, which awarded silver medals in four cases and bronze medals in 29 cases. The dependents of eight of the heroes who sacrificed their lives were granted pensions aggregating $8,750 a year, while in four similar cases, $2,500 was awarded.

One hero who was disabled was given $1,500 and benefits of $20 a month. In seven cases awards aggregating $11,200 were appropriated for educational and other purposes, while in eleven instances the commission awards aggregating $9,000 were approved for other worthy purposes.

The heroes who gave their lives in efforts to save others follow:

Albert H. Croyle, Colgate Heights, Springfield, Ark., died attempting to save a man from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

John H. Eden, 532 Hamilton avenue, the Jernigan-Nichols, which awarded silver medals in four cases and bronze medals in 29 cases. The dependents of eight of the heroes who sacrificed their lives were granted pensions aggregating $8,750 a year, while in four similar cases, $2,500 was awarded.

One hero who was disabled was given $1,500 and benefits of $20 a month. In seven cases awards aggregating $11,200 were appropriated for educational and other purposes, while in eleven instances the commission awards aggregating $9,000 were approved for other worthy purposes.

The heroes who gave their lives in efforts to save others follow:

Albert H. Croyle, Colgate Heights, Springfield, Ark., died attempting to save a man from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

John H. Eden, 532 Hamilton avenue, the Jernigan-Nichols, which awarded silver medals in four cases and bronze medals in 29 cases. The dependents of eight of the heroes who sacrificed their lives were granted pensions aggregating $8,750 a year, while in four similar cases, $2,500 was awarded.

One hero who was disabled was given $1,500 and benefits of $20 a month. In seven cases awards aggregating $11,200 were appropriated for educational and other purposes, while in eleven instances the commission awards aggregating $9,000 were approved for other worthy purposes.

The heroes who gave their lives in efforts to save others follow:

Albert H. Croyle, Colgate Heights, Springfield, Ark., died attempting to save a man from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

John H. Eden, 532 Hamilton avenue, the Jernigan-Nichols, which awarded silver medals in four cases and bronze medals in 29 cases. The dependents of eight of the heroes who sacrificed their lives were granted pensions aggregating $8,750 a year, while in four similar cases, $2,500 was awarded.

One hero who was disabled was given $1,500 and benefits of $20 a month. In seven cases awards aggregating $11,200 were appropriated for educational and other purposes, while in eleven instances the commission awards aggregating $9,000 were approved for other worthy purposes.

THE WONDERFUL FRUIT MEDICINE

"Fruit-a-lives" Is The Only Remedy made from Fruit juices

MARVELLOUS RESULTS

The fact that "Fruit-a-lives" is the only medicine in the world made from fruit juices—that it is entirely different from any other preparation for the treatment of disease—is the one big reason why so many people are willing to give it a fair trial. They have used dozens of other treatments for Constipation, Liver and Kidney Trouble; Headaches, Rheumatism and Neuralgia; Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervousness; Lack of Appetite, Poor Blood, Skin Diseases and run-down condition of the system. They realize that they must have something different from the ordinary remedies in order to cure themselves.

"Fruit-a-lives" is different. It is the discovery of a physician, who—after long experiments—succeeded in transforming the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes into an entirely new compound. By combining these intensified fruit juices with tonics and antiseptics, he created a new substance, which had all the medicinal properties of fresh fruit, but in a more efficient form. There can be no substitute for "Fruit-a-lives" because "Fruit-a-lives" is the only medicine made from fruit juices.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or from FRUIT-A-LIVES Limited, OGDENSBURG, N. Y.

saved a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

Have You Noticed

That proud look on the faces of the wearers of Fancy Knit Vests purchased from us?

These are about the latest things in the apparel line and if you have not seen them you should no longer delay.

$6.00

Moore & Owens
Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes
Barre's Leading Clothiers,
122 North Main St. Tel. 275-M.

Radio Equipment

COMPLETE SETS IN STOCK
INSTALLED READY FOR USE

Call, Telephone, Telegraph. We will send an expert. Hear through the air all the concerts, foot ball games, speeches, recitals, bands, and most everything to entertain for the winter months.

REYNOLDS & SON
BARRE, VT.

rescue a man whose clothing was in a well at North Boston, N. Y., Aug. 10, 1921.

Lewis C. Tilletson, 16 Wolcott street, Rochester, N. Y., saved a man from drowning at Rochester, Jan. 26, 1921.

Bentley H. Gailman, R. D. 1, Eden, N. Y., saved a farmer from suffocation at Rochester, Jan. 26, 1921.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to save a companion from drowning at Brownsburg, Pa., July 31, 1919.

Jerome B. Johnston, 720 North Fourteenth street, Fort Smith, Ark., attempted to save a boy from drowning at Alma, Ark., June 12, 1919.

George L. Thompson, 908 Marshall avenue, New Castle, Pa., attempted to