LEG BROKEN.

Distre-sing Accident to C. E. Grabam Sunday Morning.

Bodily misfortune has again befallen C. E. Graham, one of Asheville's best known citizens, and, following so classly upon his long illuess, makes the case all the more suddening. Early Sunday morning Mr. Graham, hearing of the death of the child of his old bussness partier, P. H. Abernathy, in South Asheville, procured a horse and storted
