BATTLE WITH INDIANS.

OKLAHOMA SENDS TROOPS TO EXTERMINATE CRAZY SNAKE'S BAND OF MURDERERS.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Mar. 29.— Chief Crazy Snake and 100 followers retreated before five companies of Oklahoma militia, thus deferring an expected battle.

Hastily setting fire to his teepees and tents, the Indian leader, with his mixed company of redskins and negroes, fled from his blazing camp as the troops advanced.

Major Charles F. Barrett, in charge of the commissary, received hurry orders by courier to send supplies and additional ammunition to the soldiers at the camp.

Six men have been killed and a dozen wounded since the trouble began. This is the official report, and it is generally believed many more of the negroes and Indians are killed.

Crazy Snake, whose name is Chitt Harjo, and whose English name is Wilson Jones, is the leader of the Snake band of Creek Indians. This band of Creeks, unable to speak English, have never turned their faces from the old days and the old customs.

ABOUT OUR People

Miss Lula Waldrop has returned from Newberry, S. C.

Mr. F. G. Hart and family have returned from their winter's visit to Florida.

Kanuga Lake is the place for wild ducks. Ten were seen on the lake last Sunday, again.

Miss Annie Justus has returned from Tennessee where she has been the guest of Mrs. J. Y. Wofford since Christmas.

W. A. Smith and Jonathan Williams are making extensive improvements at Salola Inn, adding eight new rooms and putting the entire building in better condition. Mr. Williams may spend the season at this beautiful spot, as he did last summer.

Walnutta Hair Stain and Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by Hunter's Pharmacy.

Noticed those horse-show shoes in Glazener's window? Zeb Ar-ledge intends swearing out a warrant to compel them to keep the peace—they're so loud. They're trimmed modestly in brass, and made of black and red leather, and have cute little padlocks on them, and to each is attached a long leather strap which you hold in your hand when you appear in public with the shoes on your feet. A man under the influence of the weather saw them in the window. He gave a terrific, blood-curdling yell, hunted up Jim Waldrop, and signed a pledge never, never to touch another drop of blind tiger product as long as he lived.

Prof. E. L. Middleton, Sunday School Secretary of the Baptist State Mission Board, will be in Hendersonville on April 12th and will address the people in the Battist Church on the subject of Sunday School work, at 8 p. m. also at Pleasant Hill Church on April 13th, morning and afternoon services. He will be accompanied by Rev. W. R. Bradshaw, evangelist under appointment of the State Mission Board.
Everybody is cordially invited to attend these special services.
Those who fail to come will miss a fine opportunity to gain instruction and help in the line of Sunday School work.

MARRIED, March 14th, 1909, at Cocoa, Fla., Mrs. Bessie Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Eugene Stradley, to Rev. C. D.
Cole, both visitors from Hendersonville, N. C. The Rev. C. Cat-terall, who is spending the winter at Indianola, performed the ceremony after the usual evening service in the Methodist church.
It was a very pretty wedding, the church being decorated for the occasion. Miss Pearl Bradford, maid of honor; Mr. Ben Stradley, brother of the bride, best man.
Mr. and Mrs. Cole left on the midnight train for a few days' stay in Jacksonville, on their way to North Carolina.

D. S. Pace is slowly recovering from a recent spell of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnston of Bull's Gap, Tenn., are the guests of Mrs. Johnston's sister, Mrs. Shealey.

Station Agent Fullbright went to Asheville Saturday where he attended a meeting of the Agents Association.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tinsman are expected home this week from Williamsport, Penn., where they have been spending the winter.

Mrs. D. E. Hyder was in town Saturday for the first time in four weeks. She has been seriously ill and is still under the doctor's care.

A. W. Calhoun has bought one of those fine lots on Park avenue, part of the John Carson estate, and in the fall will build and occupy a residence he will erect there.

It's a sign of prosperity when mechanics leave Asheville for Hendersonville in search of employment. And they find it, too.

The Methodist Sunday School at Hillgirt wants to buy a good second-hand organ. If you know of one that can be had real cheap, report at Hustler office.

John L. Orr has bought an automobile for use between town and Osceola Lake, but it don't seem natural to see him behind anything but a good horse.

Contractor Henry Jordan has started work on the cement walks again. The work will be pushed from now on until the whole fine improvement is completed.

T. A. Jackson has bought a new lot of high grade carriages, buggies, etc., for his livery business. Mr. Jackson looks for a big crowd this season and will be prepared for them with his new equipment.

Rev. Z. A. Shipman will preach at Dana Methodist church (formly Blue House) on third Sunday in April at 11 o'clock in the morning. The public cordially invited to attend.

Postmaster Lee Hart, of Saluda, was in town last week. Mr. Hart has the reputation of being the "obliginist" man in seven states, and has memory for names and faces which is remarkable.

The basement of the building occupied by The Calhoun-Wilkins Company, wholesale grocers, will be floored and remodeled and used by the Company for store-age, as more room is required for their increased stock.

A look-in at J. D. Boyd's new storage room, with its hills of salted meats, makes you wonder where it is all consumed. In the summer time the stock is replenished every ten days.

A. J. Baird, who died here on the 16th, was insured in the Knights of Pythias for $2,000, and his widow will immediately receive that sum from the order, of which Mr. Baird was a most highly esteemed member.

Miss Nannie Lou Waldrop has returned from Winterville, N. C., where her ability as a music teacher has been so highly appreciated. Miss Waldrop's health is not robust, and much against her inclination she has been obliged to relinquish her position there and return home.

Work on the telephone line and the new private road from town to Kanuga Lake is rapidly progressing. The lake is about one-half full of water. A very large number of men are busy erecting the new buildings there, and everything will be well in hand in time for this season. Of course it will take several years to work out the gigantic proposition, to build all the drives and mountain trails, and to complete the whole comprehensive scheme of landscape architecture, but sufficient will be done by June to give the members a definite idea of the ultimate beauties of Kanuga Lake.

HIDE to WEARER

Kromelk Double Wear Shoes

KROMELK is the wonderful new sole leather that out-wears two pairs of ordinary soles.

KROMELK is so far superior to ordinary leather that there is absolutely no comparison.

Not only does KROMELK give double service but it is practically heatproof and waterproof—is lighter in weight and more flexible than common sole leather.

Years of constant and concentrated effort were spent by ENDICOTT-JOHNSON CO. in perfecting the tanning process of KROMELK. It is the greatest achievement of the century in the shoe and leather industry.

Yet, with all these remarkable qualities, KROMELK soled shoes cost no more than the other kind.

We have them in all grades for Men and Boys.

SOLE BY HENDERSONVILLE MERCANTILE COMPANY

You are protected against imitations of this leather as "KROMELK" is stamped on every genuine KROMELK sole, together with the name ENDICOTT-JOHNSON CO.

cial prices after eleven o'clock on Monday morning.

Mrs. Mary Farmer Died in Electric Chair.

Auburn, N. Y.—Mrs. Mary Farmer, who died in the electric chair in the state prison for the murder of Mrs. Sarah Brennan, at Brownsville, has made a statement, it was learned, which she believes will exonerate her husband, who is also under sentence of death for the same crime.

Negro Hero's Memory Honored.
Montgomery, Ala.—Remarkable honors were paid to the memory of Bob Goodwin, a negro hero, who was drowned in the Alabama river March 11, while trying to rescue two white men. The white men drowned with him. Hundreds of white persons, men, women and children, took part in the funeral services, and eight cadets of a fashionable military high school served as pallbearers.

Newspaper Man Shot Wife and Self.
Boston.—A startling tragedy was enacted in the public garden near the entrance of the Boylston street subway. Suffering from nervous trouble, with which he had been afflicted for several years, Lawrence R. Boyle, a well-known newspaper man, shot and killed his wife and then ended his own life by the same means.

Electric Cars Head-on Collision.
Pittsburg, Pa.—Three persons were killed, two probably fatally hurt, and 15 others sustained injuries that necessitated their removal to their homes, in a head-on collision between two electric cars on the Pittsburg and Butler street railway, near Bryant station.

Aged Professor Dead.
Oxford, Ga.—After an illness of four weeks, Dr. John S. Moore, 80 years old, former professor of Latin at Emory college, died. He was well known throughout the south, both as a minister and teacher.
