The three beautiful medals awarded the successful competitors at the High School commencement were designed and made by W. H. Hawkins and Son, jewelers, right here in Hendersonville. And they are beauties, too.

The Pythian, the state organ of the Knights of Pythias, will have a full page description of Hendersonville, illustrated, in its next issue, which will be an edition of 5000 copies. What is this worth alone, as advertising for Hendersonville?

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Whitaker, Mrs. Posey and Mrs. Louise Hurt have returned from Charlotte, where they attended the recent Odd Fellows convention. Mrs. Whitaker was there elected president of the Rebekah State Assembly, newly organized, a distinct honor to that lady and to Hendersonville. Mrs. Posey went to the convention in her capacity as lady attendant to help confer the degree of chivalry, and the entire party, who registered at the Hotel Selyn, have nothing but words of praise for Charlotte and its leading hotel.

The many friends in Hendersonville, of Hon. Thos. S. Wood, of Brevard, will regret to hear of the misfortune that princely gentleman experienced on last Sunday night in the loss by fire of his splendid barn and seven head of horses. Total loss is estimated at $2,500 to $3,000. Mr. Wood was attending church and knew nothing of the affair until he returned to find the labor of years in ashes. Mr. Wood discovered the blaze in time to save the cattle, but could not reach the horses. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Staton Cash Shoe Store has been doing a remarkably successful business since their opening, and this really metropolitan shoe store, which would be a credit to any town, is a decided addition to the business life of Hendersonville.

"Uncle Ben" Merrell, an aged and highly respected citizen of Little River, in Transylvania county, died at his home on Monday of this week. "Uncle Ben" was well and favorably known in this county and numerous friends will regret to hear of his demise.

For a full case of delicious ginger ale, soda and other drinks, the entire Hustler force is obliged to Mr. H. Houtz, of the Crescent Carbonating Works. The product of this firm is known all over the Western part of the State, and its rapidly increasing sales testifies to its popularity.

To the Editor: Hendersonville is a resort town. We want to make people feel at home when they come to spend the summer in the mountains. We want to treat them courteously, see that no extortion is practiced, and let them know we are glad they are here, appreciate their presence and wish them to return. There are many little ways by which we may convey this impression and I think it would be profitable, were we to practice them.
