W. O. W. BENEFIT.
 The W. O. W. are preparing to celebrate the 4th, which comes on the 5th this year, in truly spectacular style.
 There will be a big street parade, floats and music, and members of the order from Spartanburg, Inman, Asheville and other points will be here and participate.
 Commencing on that date also there will be benefit performances at the Auditorium every night and two matinees, when an excellent program of vaudeville and moving pictures will be presented. Strip tickets good for 8 admittances will be sold for 50 cents for children and $1.00 for adults.
 There will be a picnic dinner on the grounds adjoining the Auditorium on Monday at one o'clock for the visiting Woodmen.

Miss Bertha Langford Killed In A Runaway.
 Miss Bertha Langford was fatally injured in being thrown from a buggy while driving near Skyland last Saturday, and died that night. Her mother, Mrs. Lucy Langford, jumped from the buggy, but was not seriously hurt. A negro boy sitting behind was thrown out and later found unconscious but not dangerously injured.
 Miss Langford held on to the reins after her mother and the boy had been thrown out, although the horse was going at a fearful rate. A quarter of a mile further one of the wheels struck a rock and she was thrown out. Her head struck a stone and the skull was fractured. The horse and buggy without a driver was later seen, and a search led to the discovery of Miss Langford lying unconscious by the roadside. She was carried to the Biltmore Hospital, but died within a few hours despite all efforts to save her life.

EDMONDSON-DILLARD.
 The marriage of Miss Nettie Edmondson, of Mississippi, and Mr. H. R. Dillard, of Spartanburg, S. C., occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lott Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, which was a very pretty, quiet affair. Those present besides the family were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hatton, of Mississippi, who are visiting here for the summer; Miss Laura Dillard, of Spartanburg, S. C., aunt of the groom; Master Hunter Dillard, of Spartanburg, brother, and Mrs. Lillie Yarborough, of Cross Anchor, S. C., sister of the groom. Also Miss Elizabeth Garland and Miss Lillie Mae Orr, of Hendersonville. The wedding march was played by Miss Cora Lott and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Doctor Grinnan, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Hendersonville. The bride and groom left on the 5:15 train for Asheville for a short stay. They will return to Spartanburg in about a week, where they expect to make their future home.

LOCAL NOTES.

Mrs. Dorothy Hyman, of Pittsburg, formerly of Flat Rock, is visiting friends and relatives in Montrose, Colorado.
 Mr. and Mrs. N. Buckner have returned from a pleasant visit to Buncombe County, where they were the guests of Mrs. Buckner's sister.
 Mrs. Gilbert has returned to town and has rented the building recently vacated by Mrs. Gover, which, in the future, will be known as "The Gilbert."
 There will be an old time wagoner's reunion at Bowman's Bluff on July 3d. Also an old book singing on Sunday, the 4th, by S. W. Hamilton.
 The Auditorium Theatre is closed until Thursday night, while certain changes and improvements are being made. It will open on Thursday with a strong attraction.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson of Charleston, who are on their bridal trip, spent several days in town last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Staton, leaving for Lake Toxaway on Friday.
 Mrs. Singleton Farmer, formerly of Flat Rock, has many friends here who will regret to hear she is suffering from severe injuries caused by a fall down a flight of stairs at her home in Washington.
 Mr. Frank Campbell, a brother-in-law of Mrs. M. C. Toms, died at his home in Mississippi on Sunday last. Mrs. Hart, a sister of the deceased, left Hendersonville two weeks ago for Mississippi and was present when the end came.
 The police have started a crusade against the idle negroes in town. They must either show they are working, have a certain amount of cash on hand or go to work on the chain gang. The crusade is having an excellent effect.
 Mountain View Inn, formerly known as "The House that Jack Built," will be opened about July 1st, by its new owners, Messrs. Rigby, Morrow and Gentry. Mrs. McClure, of Wilson, N. C., thoroughly experienced in the hotel business, will manage this beautifully located hotel.
 Editor M. L. Shipman who came up here from Raleigh, Tuesday afternoon to attend the North Carolina Press Association, has gone to Brevard where his family is visiting, being called there on account of the illness of an infant son. He expects to return to Hendersonville Thursday morning. Mr. Shipman attended the International Association of Labor Bureau officials in Rochester, N. Y., last week, returning by way of the Thousand Island route, which included a sail across Lake Ontario, down St. Lawrence River to Montreal, Canada, Albany, New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

SUGGESTS PRESENTING M. L. SHIPMAN WITH A LOVING CUP.

Hon. W. A. Smith, speaking of the growing importance of Hendersonville as a convention city, said to a Hustler reporter: "The geographical location of Hendersonville, within 24 hours of all the great cities, its superb hotel accommodations and the public spirit of its citizens all have contributed to the increasing importance of Hendersonville as a convention city. And speaking of public-spirited citizens makes me think of 'Mitch' Shipman, the capable Commissioner of Labor and Printing of North Carolina and the benefit this town and county has derived from having a State official as one of its most valued citizens."
 "Hon. M. L. Shipman has rendered good service to his home town. His loyalty to Hendersonville is known to all, and the prestige his connection with the State government gives him has undoubtedly benefitted greatly this town and county."
 "As I now understand it, last year he brought the Odd Fellows here. This year he has been the cause of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias meeting in Hendersonville and the editors of the State, now in convention here. And by the press dispatches I see that he has induced the International Association of Bureaus of Labor and the International Convention of Factory Inspectors to meet here next year!"
 "Surely he has demonstrated his loyalty to his home town by his energy and ability in securing these conventions, for the material advantages resulting to Hendersonville from all these gatherings of representative men are certainly very great and I congratulate Mr. Shipman on his success and the town and county on the fact that it numbers amongst its people so loyal a citizen."
 "I suggest to our people the propriety of at some time in some way, showing our appreciation of this man, by presenting to him a loving cup."
 Geo. V. Alwarden and family, of Columbia, S. C., are occupying their summer residence on Park avenue for the season.
 The many friends of Rev. R. V. Miller, our late townsman, will be pleased to hear that he has been called to supply the pulpit of the First Baptist Church of Asheville during the month of July, pending the arrival of their newly called pastor, Rev. W. M. Vines of Brooklyn, N. Y.
 Joe Summey, colored, was arrested at Zirconia on Saturday, placed in Sheriff Blackwell's hotel and will be given a hearing next Saturday on an old charge of breaking into Mrs. Robards, residence on February last. Joe left town then before the officers could get him and when caught Saturday had a return ticket in his pocket to Tennessee. He will not use the ticket.
 U. G. Staton, ex-sheriff Freeman and J. P. Case were returning from Asheville, Sunday, in two automobiles, and when near Dr. Dixon's house on the Asheville drive came upon a man, who, it is said, refused to either drive to one side of the road or drive ahead, but kept steady in the middle of the road. The autoists, stopping suddenly, to avoid collision, bumped into one another, smashed their lamps, and want to know if the owners of automobiles have any rights on the road? They certainly have as much rights as any other vehicle, and common sense should be required of all users of the public highways.
 For Rent or Sale—A two-room house. H. C. Perkins, South Main street.

JOHNSTON STORE ROBBED.
 Buglars broke into S. Johnston's store on Monday night, ransacked the entire store, took $15 in money, scattered Mr. Johnston's papers all over the floor and left a roll of $50 in an upper drawer of his desk. The police are working on several clues, but, as yet, have made no arrests.

Revival Meetings Closed.
 The special meetings at the Presbyterian church closed with a deeply impressive service Tuesday night. While there were many things to detract from the attendance, still we feel the Lord has greatly blessed the faithful, clear-cut, definite gospel preaching so ably done by Rev. Wm. Black. Having practiced law for a number of years, he has a very definite way of making the audience feel as if they were the jury. He then uses the same logical reasoning for a verdict against sin, and for right, holy Christian living.
 There is no mistaking brother Black's sincerity and belief in the blessed old Book as being the word of God, and his belief in the existence of sin, and faithful warning against its penalty, and his earnest desire to uplift God's own people to a higher plane of Christian living. Shall we not then say the meeting was a success? Many earnest hearts will remember brother Black as he goes from place to place, proclaiming the blessed words of peace.
 A HEARER.

A MODERN FAMILY HOTEL.
 The new "Kentucky Home," Mrs. Gover's superb family hotel on Academy street, has now about forty well-pleased guests and Mrs. Gover looks for a most favorable season.
 This new hotel is a credit to Hendersonville and a monument to Mrs. Gover's well-known energy and executive ability.
 Located on one of the prettiest, best-shaded streets in town, one block from Main street, surrounded by pretty grounds, the big four-story building with its wide and cool verandas is seen from almost any point, and the view from any one of its scores of windows is magnificent.
 There are 47 bed rooms in the building, they are all outside rooms, all large and so cool and pleasant! The big halls, the wide, low stairs, the cool restful parlor, and the really surprisingly attractive dining room, with its seating capacity of 150 guests, are all a delight to the eye and refreshing to the body, while the taste displayed in the furnishings and decorations leaves nothing to be desired.
 Mrs. Gover's reputation for excellent cuisine has spread far, is well deserved and will be increased by the larger number of guests she will accommodate here in her new and larger hotel, and Hendersonville's fame as a good place for a rest or vacation will not be diminished by the excellent treatment guests receive at her hospitable and well-managed hotel.
