

MICHAELS & COMPANY,

Wholesale and Retail Druggists.

MID-SUMMER GOODS AT MID-SUMMER PRICES!

Our Soda Fountain, the Largest in the City, is being Worked Hard These Days, because those who Thirst visit Our Place to Quench their Thirst. Pay a visit to the Most Handsome Store in the State and try one of our Cool, Delicious and Delightful Drinks.

FRITZ CHEEK DIES!

After a Long and Wasting Illness
He Passes Away.

A Life Which Promised Much Is Suddenly Cut Short.

THE LAST RE-UNION OF VETERANS

People Who Come and Go—Brief Briefs of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

HENDERSON, Sept. 6.—[Special]—Fritz Cheek, whose condition has been considered critical for several weeks past, died this morning after a long and wasting illness.

Deceased was a young man of superior parts and with prospects of a brilliant career before him. At the age of twenty-four he had already achieved distinction in whatever field he had exercised his talents.

With an inherited love for military glory and the discipline which makes a true soldier, he has for several years been a conspicuous figure in the state guards and the recent encampment was promoted to the ranks of adjutant First battalion Third regiment N. C. S. G.

At the time he was taken ill he was doing business in Oxford as junior member of the firm of Osborn & Cheek.

Capt. J. A. Holt, Jr., Sgt. J. A. Haldin and Private J. F. Taylor, of Burlington, passed through to-day to attend the funeral to-morrow.

LIVE LOCAL LINKS.

The Day's Record of Current Events in the City and Vicinity.

—The season for fruit is almost gone.

—Best flour, all grades, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Virginia smoked sides at M. B. Wyatt's.

—New corned mullets at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Plenty of scuppernong grapes on the market.

—Virginia country hams, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Charlie Rogers will go to Greensboro to-morrow.

—Try Kingham's reliable hams, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Armour's best breakfast bacon, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Students come on almost every train for Trinity.

—The east bound train was two hours late to-day.

—Go to Morehead City on Thursday and have a good time.

—Jelly glasses, 4 pints, 40 cents per dozen, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Jelly glasses, 4 pints, 45 cents per dozen, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Jelly glasses and fruit jars, extra rubbers free, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Best flour, all grades, and Virginia smoked hams, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Kingham's reliable and Virginia country hams, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Extra rubbers free with fruit jars and jelly glasses, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Buy your fruit jars and jelly glasses, extra rubbers free, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—New corned mullets and Armour's best breakfast bacon, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Don't forget the excursion on next Thursday. It will be the most enjoyable of the season.

—If you want anything in the pipe line call on Heller at his Durham Cigar and Tobacco store.

—Virginia country hams, Kingham's reliable hams and new corned mullets, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—For heavy or fancy groceries at bottom prices call on W. H. Proctor at the Racket Grocery.

—W. T. Harton, on North Mangum street, planted what he thought to be squash seed, but he now has a fine lot of

Not Surprised That Way.

Lord Shadycove—Of course I can never be very intimate with your father, he being in trade, but he will not be surprised to find me with some insular prejudices, will he?

Miss Manhattan—Oh, no. Nothing foolish or ill bred that you can do will surprise him.—Life.

pumpkins which will be ready for use after frost.

—Armour's best breakfast bacon, Virginia smoked sides and all grades best flour, at M. B. Wyatt's.

—Try Oconeechee, Perfects, and Sweet Heart cigars at Heller's Durham Cigar and Tobacco store.

—Finest New York state creamery butter and cheese for sale at the Racket Grocery, telephone No. 23.

—Just received one car load of ceiling and flooring and one car good heart shingles at Jas. W. Jones & Co.

—Mr. Geo. R. Blackwell will give you better bargains in safes than were ever had in Durham before. Call and see him.

—W. H. Proctor, at the Racket Grocery, corner Mangum and Parrish streets, guarantees prices and goods, either wholesale or retail.

—Two dollars and fifty cents will pay your fare, round trip, to Morehead City on Thursday of this week, and allow you to remain there about two days at only $1 per day.

—First-class groceries of all kinds, polite and attentive clerks, first-class free deliveries always ready at the Racket Grocery. Send in your orders. W. H. Proctor, proprietor.

—The noon train, which was about two hours late, was loaded with republicans of every shade and color en route to Raleigh to the state convention, which meets there to-morrow.

—Strayed or stolen a small muley cow belonging to R. T. Howerton about six or eight years old, red head and white body with spots. The cow was bought from Mr. H. C. Ellis, of Chatham county, about the 20th of July and has given no evidence of being mischievous. Any information concerning her will be rewarded.

—The readers of THE GLOBE will be glad to know that George F. Heller has opened what will be known as the Durham Cigar and Tobacco store, where can be found the best cigars in the city. He proposes to prove to the smoking public that he can make as good cigars in Durham as are made elsewhere in this country. His place is on Main street. Call and see the tobacco clock.

THE LAST RE-UNION.

A Notable Meeting to Be Held at Cedar Fork on the 7th of October.

The last re-union at Cedar Fork will be held on Friday October 7.

The flag of the North Carolina Grays will be re-presented and then tendered to the governor of North Carolina.

The blue flag of the Sixth North Carolina regiment commonly known as Fishers Flag will be there and a fragment of the Battleflag of the Seventh North Carolina regiment.

Capt. W. C. Stronach will speak for the Soldier's Home. A collection will be taken for the support of the veterans in the home.

Let us hope that the re-union will be largely attended, the call for aid liberally responded to, and the soldiers materially helped.

Buy a Cheap House.

Over 2,500 feet of lumber and 10,000 brick in the Blackwell stable. For sale cheap. Apply to J. W. BLACKWELL.

Sick-headache? Beacham's Pills will relieve.

A CITIZEN ROBBED!

Tough Citizens Forget the Sabbath Day to Keep It Holy.

Silas Crooks on His Way Home Attacked by Unknown Parties.

THE COMMUNITY GREATLY EXCITED

No Clue Has Yet Been Found as to the Identity of the Ruffians—The Authorities Thus Far Baffled.

RANDLEMAN, N. C., Sept. 6.—[Special]—The community is greatly excited over an outrage committed here Sunday night. Silas Crooks, while on his way home, was attacked on the covered bridge by three unknown parties, overpowered and robbed of $42.50, which he carried on his person.

A scramble ensued, and Crooks inflicted a severe cut in the arm of one of his assailants.

The ruffians then fled with their booty, and the authorities have, so far, failed to locate them.

Citizens in and around Randleman are justly alarmed and indignant.

COMING AND GOING.

Durham People on the Move and Visitors in the City.

E. N. Madra left this morning for Hillsboro.

W. A. Erwin, of Burlington, is in the city to-day.

R. S. Davis, of Louisburg, is at the Hotel Driver.

E. H. Holt left this morning for a trip to Clarksville.

Mrs. W. H. Branson left to-day for a visit to Concord.

Mrs. J. F. Montague went to Carthage to-day to visit relatives.

Walter Henderson left on the morning train for Newport News, Va.

Rev. C. R. Hairfield went to Wake Forest to-day to enter school.

Mr. C. M. Thompson, of Lexington, came in on the noon train to-day.

Charles Warren, of Reidsville, is employed as clerk at the Hotel Driver.

Dr. C. Durham, of Raleigh, passed through the city this morning en route west.

Thomas Stringfield, of Waynesville, entered Trinity college as a student yesterday.

Clayton Giles, Jr., and P. J. Thomas, of Wilmington, were in the city yesterday evening.

Mrs. W. C. Thaxton, of Oxford, passed through the city this morning en route to her home.

H. P. Harrell left on the noon train for Raleigh to take a position on the State Chronicle.

Mrs. W. D. Latta, of University Station, is in the city as the guest of Mrs. Albert Whitaker.

Sidney Oldham, of Chatham county, passed through the city to-day en route to Wake Forest college.

Judge A. C. Avery, of Morganton, has arrived in the city and entered upon his duties at Trinity college.

John A. Ramsay and James H. Ramsay, of Salisbury, passed through the city to-day en route to Raleigh.

W. J. Christian, Jr., left to-day for Wake Forest college, where he will attend school the present session.

Mrs. W. H. Pucket and Miss Sadie Pucket, of Smithfield, were in the city to-day and left on the noon train for their home.

Rev. T. J. Hudson, of Halifax, Va., and W. L. Foushee, of Roxboro, passed through the city to-day en route to Wake Forest college.

Rev. J. E. Dowd, of Chatham county, who has been in the city a few days with his brother, J. W. Dowd, will leave to-morrow for Wake Forest college.

When weak, weary and worn out, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine to restore your strength and give you a good appetite.

DO YOU WEAR SHOES

If so, and you want a Bargain that is Genuine, go to

THAXTON & PATTON,

MAIN STREET.

Where the Great Slaughter Sale in Shoes is On.

A General Stock of Merchandise is also going Low, but this week we want to talk

SHOES!

Come and See!

THAXTON & PATTON.

EMBROIDERIES!

Two job lots of Embroideries go at two-thirds value.

250 yards first-class Cambric Embroideries, good work, neat patterns, worth 8 cents, go at 5 cents a yard.

500 yards showy patterns, excellent wearing quality, worth 15 cents, go at 10 cents a yard.

Remnants of all kinds on sale.

500 yards Lace Scrim in short lengths, worth from 8 to 15 cents a yard, go at 5 cents for choice.

A few choice patterns of Matting on hand, and will be sold at prime cost.

Ellis, Stone & Co.

MY FRIEND:

I do not wish to bore you—my tale of woe is short and sweet—will you listen to it?
I have a stock of

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

Which is Full and Complete in Every Department. I do not want to keep this stock so I will give you a chance to take any part of it at

LOWER PRICES

Than you have ever seen. Talk is Cheap, but I am paying good money to let you know that I can save you

25 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR!

And I am prepared to prove it to you if you will call and see. I buy goods by the Car Load, and I have Groceries and Clothing and Dry Goods and Furnishing Goods—in fact

ANY AND EVERYTHING

Ever found in a general first-class store. I am in Durham to establish a trade and want you to give me a call.

A. MAX.

Just below Reams Warehouse, across from Postoffice.