NEW YORK, September 11.—The World this morning contains the folowing communication from Governor W. J. Northern, of Georgia, in response to a telegram sent by that paper asking his opinion of Englishmen meddling with American affairs in regard to the lynching in the south and elsewhere. An English committee is now in this city for the purpose of investigating and denouncing "southern lynching." and this fact called forth the request. Governor Northen replied:

NORTHERN DROUGHT BROKEN. Have their First Rain.

NEW YORK, September 11. New York has enjoyed its fall of rain since July 20. Th is over now, however, and the farmers are happy. The rainfall for twentyfour hours has covered all the country east of the Rocky mountains. From the reports received, it is evident that the drought has been practically broken. Crops will be materially bene. Southern Sick and Accident Benefit Asso fitted, but the fall of rain has not been sufficient to fill all the reservoirs and streams. The total rainfall in the eastern section since the storm will be about half an inch.
