

ARE AGAINST CARNIVALS

Merchants on Market Street Agree to Sign No More Carnival Petitions.

They Say Carnivals are Very Injurious to Business — Do Not Want Them Held on Market From River to Third Street—A Petition Against Carnival Was Circulated and Generally Signed.

The carnival which was held in this city last week was probably the last one that will ever be held on Market street. A petition was drawn up by one of the merchants on Market street to the effect that the signers agree to never sign a petition to allow a carnival or any street fair, given by either an individual or company to be held on Market street from the river to Third street and it has been generally signed. A representative of The Messenger was told last night that the petition was signed, with one exception, by every man to whom it was carried. The merchant who refused to sign is said to have done so on the general principle that he never signed a petition of any kind.

The carnival held last week was a good one and took in a large amount of money. Before it was placed on Market street the Red Men visited the different merchants who signed a petition agreeing for it to be held on Market street. The business men on that street desired to put themselves on record as being opposed to carnivals, so as to prevent any petitions from being presented to them in the future asking their permission for a carnival to be held on Market street.

Several business men who have stores on Market street and have been heard to speak of the matter, state that their business was materially affected during carnival week and one man made the statement that he had rather donated $100 than for the carnival to have been held on Market street. Now that the merchants have gone on record as being against street fairs on Market street they say that they will take steps to prevent a carnival from being held if permission is ever granted to place it on Market street west of Third. The merchants say they are bitterly opposed to allowing the streets to be practically blocked by a street fair of any kind.

JOE MASON SEEKS A PARDON
Sentenced to One Year on Roads for Highway Robbery.

An effort is being made to get a pardon for Joe Mason, a young white man who was sentenced to one year on the roads last spring for making a secret assault on Mr. George Smith with a deadly weapon.

The assault, it will be remembered, occurred on the Market street road a short distance east of the Federal cemetery. A number of shots were fired but neither Mr. Smith or his son, who was in the buggy, were struck. The two Masons and another white man were arrested near where the affair occurred. Mr. Smith and his son recognized the Masons. The case was really more highway robbery than anything else. At the time the men were sentenced it was the general opinion that all three had got remarkable light terms for the grave offense committed. Jesse Mason got six years and will Guthrie one year.

The attorney for Mason is Woodus Kellum, Esq.

COLONISTS ARRIVE
Party of Greeks Locate Near Burgaw. Quite a Number of Colonists Expected in November.

A crowd of colonists brought in by the Carolina Development Company went to Burgaw yesterday morning and will locate near that place. They were all Greeks and came from New York state. When one thinks of a Greek in this country it is to picture him as conducting a confectionary store but the colonists brought in are all farmers, and have had considerable experience.

It is said to have been a busy scene yesterday that confronted those who went to the section of the lands where the Greeks were going to locate. It was very much on the order of a newly settled town in the west. The farmers carried tents with them to be used until they can build houses.

The company expects to have no trouble whatever in getting colonists and for that matter, could have already sold many hundred acres of land, but it is their intention to bring in only the very best class of foreigners and not the general riff raff. Quite a number of colonists will arrive in November. Those arriving during the present fall will be located near either Castle Haynes or Burgaw.

"NORTHERN LIGHTS"
Another Large Audience is Pleased With the Woods-Browning Stock Company.

The Woods-Browning Stock Co., continues to attract large audiences at the Academy, where they are presenting the best popular price shows that were ever seen in Wilmington.

The members of the company all work with a will to please, and there is frequent evidence of the fact that their efforts are appreciated.

In "Northern Lights" last night the company appeared to good advantage before a large audience, as they did also in the afternoon when "Master and Man" was given as the matinee bill.

The specialties are features that are greatly enjoyed.

Tonight the play will be "Dens and Palaces."

Mr. J. W. Stanland, a young farmer of Calabash, died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital of consumption on Tuesday evening. The remains were carried to his late home for interment.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Bazaar Similar to One of Last Season to be Given in December—Several Basket Ball Teams Organized—Mr. James H. Parrish to Sing at the Men's Meeting Sunday.

Those who were so pleased last year with "The Carnival of Nations," as planned and executed by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association, will be glad to learn that these ladies will hold their second annual bazaar during the month of December, beginning on Wednesday night the 6th. The plans for this affair are more elaborate this year than last and to those who remember the beautiful booths and costumes and other splendid features connected with that affair, this will mean much for there has never been a more beautiful and pleasing affair of this kind in the city.

The plans will be somewhat similar to those of last year except that different nations will be represented by both the booths and the costumes of the many young ladies who will participate. There will be many special features in music and other forms of entertainment which will make every moment of the time spent in the association hall where this will be held, very pleasant to all, both old and young. The articles which will be for sale will not be expensive, but will be such as will be useful for general Christmas presents besides being useful in a practical sense. More of this will be told in these columns as the season approaches.

Three more basket ball teams were organized yesterday afternoon when their players for the season. The captains chosen were Harry Morris, Allen Feshtig and Harry Solomon. They chose as follows: Captain Morris—Charles Terry, W. A. Wright, Sam Royal, Willie Sprunt; Captain Feshtig—Thornburn Bennett, Lawrence Everett, Arthur Buethenthal and Malvern Bell; Captain Feshtig—Lionel Kahn, Louis Hanson, Fred Poissona Leonard Wessen.

These boys will play a series of games for the championship of their department and it promises to be very interesting even if they are small. They are very quick and this is one of the essentials of good basket ball. The interest in this popular game seems to be on the increase as evidenced by the fact that more men and boys will be playing it this year here than ever before. There will be at least 60 different men and boys on regular teams this season besides at least 75 more who will play without being on any team.

The association has secured Mr. James H. Parrish, who is now directing the music at the First Baptist church, to lead the singing next Sunday afternoon at the men's meeting. He will also sing one or two solos and this will be a treat as he is considered a very fine singer, having not only a splendid voice, but being able to express every thought so clearly that he leaves no doubt in the mind of the well and favorably known here, will hearer as to the real meaning of the address the meeting. This will be a real treat to those who like good singing and speaking. No man in the city can afford to miss this meeting.

Arrangements are now being made to institute roller skating in the gymnasium of the association. This will be a new feature and promises to be very popular as it has been everywhere it has been tried. The association has arranged to secure several pairs of skates which may be sold to the members at a small cost. The gymnasium will be set aside on at least two nights per week for this delightful recreation. It is possible that the members will be allowed to take their lady friends with them and thus enjoy with them a pleasant evening in healthful exercise.

MATTER IS ADJUSTED
Disagreement Between A. C. L. and Armour Car Line Has Been Satisfactorily Settled.

Owing to a disagreement between the Atlantic Coast Line and the Armour Car Line the contract existing with the refrigerator line came very near being declared at an end several days ago, but the differences have now been adjusted and the Armour people assured the Coast Line officials that they might expect plenty of cars next spring.

Mr. William E. Springer, president of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers Association, was notified by the Armour Car Line of the disagreement and he at once took the matter up with the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line. A conference was held between the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line and Armour Car Line and resulted in a satisfactory agreement being reached.

The Coast Line has a contract with the Armour Line to furnish refrigerator cars for hauling all perishable products on their system. The Armour Car Line is by far the largest refrigerator line in the United States and by having a contract with one line it is claimed that better service is given than where no special line is guaranteed the business. The trouble between the railroad and refrigerator line grew out of differences resulting from the car famine last spring. The Coast Line's contract with the Armour Line expires in June, 1907.

MR. GEO. W. DOYLE DEAD

Met With Accident on Tuesday Night Which Caused His Death—Remains Will be Brought to Wilmington.

A telegram received in this city yesterday announced the death of Mr. Geo. W. Doyle, which occurred in a New York hospital yesterday morning. He was a former Wilmingtonian and the remains will be brought here for interment. He was about 56 years old.

The deceased was a native of this city and made his home here until about ten years ago when he went to Norfolk, Virginia, having made a contract with the Southern Railway to engage in the stevedore business at that place. At the time of his death he was assistant superintendent of the steamboat agency of Barber and Company.

On Tuesday night Mr. Doyle fell into the hatchway of a vessel and sustained injuries which resulted in his death yesterday morning.

Mr. Doyle began his business career as a clerk in the office of Harris and Howell, an important shipping firm of this city. After being in business with this firm for some years he entered into business for himself and for a number of years was successfully engaged in the stevedore business in this city.

The deceased had many warm friends in this city who will deeply mourn his death. He was generous and a man of very impulsive disposition. Mr. Doyle was a member of the old Volunteer Fire Department, of this city, and was also an enthusiastic member of the Wilmington Light Infantry.

The deceased leaves to mourn his loss his wife and a number of children, who are, Mrs. R. W. Farmer, Miss Nannie Doyle and Mr. Armand Doyle, of this city; Misses Mamie, Eugene, Ellen and Fannie Doyle, of New York city; Mr. Harrison Doyle, of Portsmouth, Va.; and Mr. George Doyle, of Norfolk, Va.; and Mr. E. M. Doyle, of Pittsburg, Pa.

The remains will be brought to Wilmington for interment but it is not known when they will reach here.

DO NOT LIKE BERRYVILLE
People of Rocky Point Want Town to Keep Old Name.

Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Point, was in the city yesterday. He is not at all pleased with the action of the postoffice department in changing the name of the postoffice at his home from Rocky Point to Berryville. Efforts are being made, he says, to get the department to reconsider their action and allow the office to be known as Rocky Point.

The section known as Rocky Point was settled long before the Revolutionary war and there are many incidents of historic interest connected with the little town. Around Rocky Point in Revolutionary days lived the Moores, Claytons, Moseleys, Lillingtons, Swanns and other families who were recognized as being the wealthiest and most prominent in eastern Carolina. It was at Rocky Point the patriots gathered and held their meetings prior to the Battle of Moore's Creek. Dr. Porter thinks it a shame that the name of a town with such historic traditions should be blotted from the map. Hawk's history of North Carolina shows that Rocky Point was settled in 1663.

Letter to J. C. Stevenson, of Wilmington, N. C.

Dear Sirs: Why, do you think, can Devoe sell pure paint as low as others sell adulterated paint?

There are 30 or 40 or 50 different makers of paint, that rank in a way, as "first-class," they have their regions; one's region is large, another's is small; everyone is "first-class" in its region.

Of these 30 or 40 or 50, one is best, another next, and so on down; but the prices are all the same or about the same—you can buy one for less than another though; a personal matter sometimes.

But how, do you think, can Devoe sell the best for no more than the rest? The answer is: it costs to sell it; more to make, less to sell. Reputation helps sell it. Its 150 years help sell it.

Go by the name. Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.
M. W. Divine & Co., sel. four paint.

EXECUTED PAUL YOUNG

Was in Raleigh and Warrant Was Served on Him Charging Vagrancy.

The notorious Paul Young recently made his appearance in Raleigh, but he left there as he did Wilmington without giving notice of his proposed departure. He was sentenced to a term on the roads in New Hanover county and the case was carried to the supreme court. The verdict of the lower court was affirmed, but in the meantime Young had departed.

Yesterday's News and Observer gave him the following notice:
"Paul Young, of Wilmington, who has lately 'hung out' in Raleigh has disappeared from the city and is not to return, so the Dicky Bird says."
Young was served with a warrant on Monday evening charging him with vagrancy. He was to have appeared before Justice Badger yesterday morning, but failed to show up. He had moved on from Raleigh, having previously quit Wilmington, as it is said they were after him there."

THE CONSOLIDATED SUE
Several Small Suits Instituted by Consumers Ice Company.

Three small suits have been instituted against the Consolidated Ice Company by the Consumers Ice Company for damage done to horses, wagons and harness. During the month of September several wagons of the Consumers Ice Company were struck by street cars. The amounts sued for are $25, $35.75 and $50. The cases were to have been tried before Justice Furlong yesterday but owing to the absence of one of the attorneys the case was postponed until next Tuesday.

Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan is attorney for the Consumers Ice Company and Messrs. Davis & Davis for the Consolidated Company.
