GIFT OF LONELINESS.
For the gift of loneliness
I take with thankful heart,
Although Pain's heavy fingers press
When we are far apart.

For lonely paths once lured me far
Int' the leafy wild,
Where I pursued a lonely star
A small forsaken child.

I do not know the half of love—
Its heights and depths—unless
The acting of my heart can prove
The gift of loneliness.

—Anne Campbell.

Officers Are Elected
By The Woman's Club

The Woman's Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Waddill with Mrs. J. Franklin Mills, president, presiding.

The meeting opened with the singing of "America, The Beautiful," followed by the Lord's Prayer.

After the routine of business was disposed of, Mrs. Mills presented Mrs. R. B. Green, who very forcefully stressed the need of the backing of all the citizens of Henderson in carrying out the unemployment program now in progress. The club voted to support Mrs. Green and her committee in this worthy undertaking.

It was decided to plan a "Clean-Up and Paint-Up Week" in April, and in this way many unemployed should be given work.

Mrs. W. R. MacNair, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers and department heads for the coming year. The following were elected: Honorary president, Mrs. F. R. Harris; president, Mrs. J. F. Mills; first vice-president, Mrs. L. D. Wall; second vice-president, Mrs. W. D. Burwell; third vice-president, Mrs. L. R. Gooch; recording secretary, Mrs. H. H. Hargett; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. B. Daniel, Jr.; custodian, Mrs. J. R. Singleton; auditor, Mrs. Henry Howell, Jr.; departments, "American Home," Mrs. K. P. Plummer; civic, Mrs. A. A. Hargett; dramatics, Mrs. Henry Perry; education, Mrs. M. J. O'Neill; health, Mrs. F. D. Culpepper; music, Mrs. W. M. Coffin; creation, Mrs. S. P. Cooper.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of the Education Department, Mrs. S. E. Jennett, chairman.

Mrs. Jennett gave an interesting sketch of the life of America's first sculptor, Patience Wright.

Mrs. J. H. Bunn read an excellent paper on the life and work of Gutson Borglum.

Mrs. Jennett displayed a unique assortment of statuettes made by the children of North Carolina out of white soap. She also showed soap statuettes made by children of the sixth grade of West End school, which showed real talent.

The Music Department, with Mrs. F. R. Harris, chairman, at the piano, closed the program with "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," Mrs. Morton.
