The meeting was presided over by Mrs. T. B. Rose, Jr., president, and devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Sallie Garlick.

Good reports were turned in by all of the committees. Seventeen members answered to the roll call with two visitors.

At the conclusion of the business session, a very delightful social hour was enjoyed during which the hostesses served an ice course.

Plans Are Pushed For Charity Ball spen! Friday night with Misses Annie and Roya Satterwhite. Winston Hester spent Friday night

Plans are progressing for the staging of the charity ball which is being sponsored by the Rotary Club of this city, and is under the direction of the Community Service Committee of the club, of which W. H. Fleming is chair-

It was stressed today that this ball will be a community undertaking with all civic and other organiations cooperating with the Rotarians. It was said that all the proceeds of the ball will be used for local welfare work in this community during the coming winter. The date and place have not been decided by the committee as yet. but it was said that the ball would be held before schools in this vicinity open for the new year. Negotiations are already under way for the music, and an announcement will be made in the near future giving the full details as to the place,

Miss Vail Bride Of George C. Fox

ime and music,

In a ceremony of charm and simplicity, Miss Mary Caroline Vail and George C. Fox were united in marriage at two o'clock in the afternoon of last Saturday in the Methodist Episcopal church in Windsor. The vows were said before Rev. T. W. Lee, the pastor, in the presence of a few Regular Meeting relatives and friends. The ring ceremony was used.

Appropriate music was given by cousin of the bride The bride was becomingly attired in an ensemble of beige crepe, with harmonizing accessories. Her corsaye was of sweetheart sories. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses and valley lilies. Mrs. Fox is the sister of James W. Vail. of Mare Island, California, and received her education at the Florence high school and the Florence University of Business, in Florence, 3. C. The R. E. Marston, of Henderson, and is connected here with the Henderson Furniture Company.

After a wedding trip, the couple will make their home at 553 Rowland street, Henderson.

Miss Stewart Is Bride Ohio Man

A marriage of much interest to friends of the couple here and elsewhere was solemnized at 11 o'clock this morning in the home of the bride's mother, when Miss Tempe Stewart, daughter of Mrs. Alice Eliz-Stewart, of near Manson, in Warren county, became the bride of Frank B. Hunt, of Cleveland and Norwalk, Ohio. The wedding vows were pro-nounced by Rev. P. D. Woodall, pastor of the bride and the Middleburg cir-cuit of the Methodist Episcopal

For the ceremony, the living room was attractively decorated with ferns, ivy and garden flowers. Tall candles in silver holders cast a soft glow over the room. The bride was smartly attired in a three-piece semi-tailored brown ensemble, with beige galac fur trimmings. Accessories of brown completed the costume. Mrs. Hunt was educated at Fredcricksburg College, Fredericksburg, Va. The groom is the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hunt, of Cleveland. He is now located in Norwalk, where he is in business.

Immediately after the ceremony which was attended by only a few members of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Hun left by automobile for a northern trip, after which they will be at home at 73 South Linwood avenue, Nor-No invitations or announce were issued for the wedding.
