FARM MURDER MYSTERY UNSOLVED

Repudiating an earlier 'confession' to police in which she told authorities she killed Eleanor Alderson common law wife of Guy Gonsaulie, in self-defense, Mrs. Nellie Kumler, 36, above, of Liberty, Ind., has thrown blame for the slaying on Gonsaulie, also above, for whom she served as housekeeper on the Gonsaulie farm near Liberty. A severe grilling by police of Gonsaulie failed to shake his denial.

This Is Year For Family Races For Public Office

Fathers, Sons, Wives and Husbands of President or Former Officeholders Are In Fight in This Campaign; Presidential Relatives Are Being Rung Up

BY RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Writer Washington, Aug. 25.—This is a big year for 'family stuff in politics. There is enough material for a new party which might be called the 'Next of Kin' party.

The 'T. R.' Parade: The Republicans are parading the surviving members of the famous Teddy Roosevelt family to convince voters that Franklin D. Roosevelt is neither the son of T. R. or T. R. himself.

Hoover's 'Shock Troops': The Hoover children and grandchildren are being held in reserve and are expected to be used as shock troops at critical moments during the shooting. Photographers are saving extra plates for them.

'Son' Charlie Crisp: Congressman Charles R. Crisp of Georgia, son of another famous speaker, is also out for the Senate. Crisp has been in the House for many years and it had been his lifelong ambition to be speaker, as was his father.

tactical to demand a cut virtually just as President Hoover was delivering his renomination acceptance speech in Washington. It scarcely was to have been expected that the rail workers would like such an account of the employing group's attitude, but Wall Street did; transportation shares advanced sharply on the strength even of a fair prospect of another cut in the employees' pay.

Perhaps not unnaturally, the employees betray considerable resentment at this manifestation of good cheer on 'change at their prospective expense. A remark dropped by Mr. Hoover in the course of his acceptance address has noticeably perturbed them yet further.

It may be that these hopes were uneconomic, but there is no doubt that labor, all along, has considered itself entitled to a larger share of the fruits of industry, counted on getting it through a stationary wage, with a declining index and is bitterly discontented over its discovery that no such intention exists among the vast majority of large employers.

RAILROAD WORKERS UNITE AGAINST ANY FURTHER WAGE CUT (Continued from Page One.) were not getting what they were entitled to at the peak. If they are receiving the equivalent of a small advance now, their spokesmen insist that they have long been entitled to it.

They did take a 10 per cent cut beginning last February. Railroad presidents assured them then that the economy would enable the companies to increase their staffs somewhat. Instead, Interstate Commerce Commission reports show that Class 1 roads had 19.12 per cent fewer men on their payrolls in mid-May this year than at the same time in 1911.

Not all the transportation presidents were favorable to it, however. Why (the dissenters asked) pile up additional obligations for repairs that can wait until times are better? Why, not, rather (it was proposed), seek the I. C. C.'s permission to trim wages again? Twenty per cent is said to have been the figure initially mentioned, though it is understood to have been agreed subsequently that, for the present, 15 would do.

To be sure, the session ended without any 'definite decision,' as President L. F. Loree of the Delaware and Hudson expressed it, having been reached, but the impression prevails in labor circles that the transportation chiefs only postponed action, because they did not think it would

Wake Leads State With Auto Deaths In Month of July

Raleigh, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Wake county led the 100 counties of North Carolina in automobile fatalities during July, having eight killed in motor mishaps, L. S. Harris, head of the Motor Vehicle Bureau, reported today. Wake's total was almost one-seventh of the State's aggregate of 54 killed. Thirty-three counties had one or more fatalities within their borders. Buncombe county came second in fatalities with five and New Hanover had three. The populous counties of Guilford and Mecklenburg, which usually are well up in the county list of fatalities, had only one person killed in each last month. Forsyth had none killed, though it usually is also listed for several.

The world's land area amounts to about 56 million square miles.
