THE CITY CALLS.

Always and always
The city calls to me:
I cannot fail to mind it.
No matter where I be,
My fathers lived in small towns,
Contented, too,
Green lawns and neighbor talk,
And little that's new.

I cannot hide the small towns,
Calm and there long,
I use my eagerness,
The world goes wrong,
But when I stand once more
In my crowded street,
Something sings in my heart,
And glad and sweet.

I cannot hide the small towns,
Side of crime and pall,
New York, where I was born,
The marvel of them all:
Paris and Los Angeles,
London and Santa Fe,
And how they call to me,
And miles away!

Woman's Club Plans For Its Relief Play

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club was held on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Episcopal Parish House.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of the health department, and the chairman, Mrs. F. D. Culpepper, had requested Dr. I. H. Hoyle, local dentist, to give a talk on the care of the teeth. Dr. Hoyle's subject was "Teeth and Their Relation to Health."

Beginning with a child as young as six months, if it has any teeth at that time, Dr. Hoyle described in what manner they should be cared for, and stressed the necessity of constant watching over and caring for the children's teeth along through the different stages of growth, stating that neglect of teeth often caused the most painful and serious disease; and frequently facial disfigurement. Dr.
Hoyle's talk was most interesting, instructive and enlightening, and was greatly appreciated by those present.

At the close of the program, the meeting went into a business session.
Mrs. J. F. Mills, president, stated that she had received a telephone call from Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, of Farmville, federation president, expressing regret at the club's withdrawal from the federation, and asked that the resolution be reconsidered and that she hoped in a few days to be able to present a plan to help the club solve its difficulties without withdrawing from the federation.

Mrs. A. B. Noell, chairman of the ways and means committee, asked the members to help in every way possible to make the play, "Once In A Blue Moon," a success. This play is to be presented on the evenings of November 3 and 4, and Mrs. Noell said that any aid can be given by the members, either helping those taking part in the play, selling tickets or other ways, will be greatly appreciated. She also urged every member to be present at one of the performances, at least, to show their interest in the work done.

The next program will be in charge of Mrs. J. K. Plummer, chairman of the American Home Department, and Dr. Carl Taylor will address the meeting on "Parental Influence." It is hoped that there will be a large attendance not only of the members, but the general public. The time and place of the meeting will be announced later.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames W. D. Burwell, chairman, I. W. Hughes, Rosa Epps, H.
A. Dennis, R. B. Crowder, George V.
Boyd, J. R. Biller, S. R. Chavasse and others.
