One Poultry, One Cattle Feeding and Other Crop Production Loans; Most of Them Run for Nine Months

Applications have been made by six farmers for the first loans from the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation of Raleigh, a government bank for furnishing of credit to farmers. Each of the six applicants is a landlord farmer.

Four of the loans applied for are crop production, one is for poultry raising and the other for feeding cattle. They run about nine months each and the average of the six loans applied for is estimated at around $450.

Applicants for loans from the Raleigh bank are made through J. W. Sanders, county farm agent, and are made up in his office in the Law Building. It is expected that a number will be asked.

Credits extended from this organization may be larger and security offered may consist of both crop liens and chattels, whereas government seed loans, made through another channel are restricted to $300 as the maximum to one applicant and crop liens only are required.

The Raleigh bank was opened just before the end of the past year, and this is the first season it has functioned. John P. Stedman, of Raleigh, its active vice-president of the corporation, who made by this organization are charged for at the rate of a trifle less than seven percent, including inspection fees and the like, though the applicant must pay attorneys' fees where titles have to be certified.

Crop Production Loans May Start By March 1st

Maximum Limit To Individual Borrower Will Be $300; Restrictions on Acreage Announced; Aggregate Loans on Any One Farm Held to $1,200

Disbursement of crop production loans will begin about March 1, according to announcement in Washington by Secretary of Agriculture Hyde.

Secretary Hyde announced that $300 will be the maximum loan to any farmer from the $90,000,000 fund set aside by Congress for crop production financing.

In addition to reducing the maximum from $400 in 1932, Hyde issued regulations providing that farmers who are delinquent in repayment of two or more prior loans will be limited to $100 in order to conserve the fund from which nearly one million farmers are expected to seek assistance. The loan will be a first lien on the crop produced.

Congress authorized the Secretary of Agriculture to require acreage reduction up to 30 per cent as a loan condition, and Hyde said this will be enforced except in the case of minor producers and growers of perennials. Orchardists will not be required to cut down their trees or other wise reduce their producing capacity to qualify for aid.

Shortly before Hyde's announcement Don McVay, chief of the crop production loan office, made a vigorous denial before the House Expenditures Committee that government employs in his division had engaged in unusual political activities.

In Hyde's announcement, he said the acreage reduction requirement will not apply to farmers who intend planting no more than 8 acres of cotton, 2 1/2 acres of tobacco, 40 acres of wheat, 20 acres of corn, 2 1/2 acres of truck crops, 12 acres of sugar beets, 8 acres of potatoes, 30 acres of rice, or 8 acres of peanuts.

The aggregate loans for tenants of an individual land owner will be limited to $1,200, compared with $1,600 in 1932. When more than $64,000,000 was loaned to 507,632 farmers, an average of $126. Interest will be at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent, the same as last year, with the obligation due next October 31.

In counties where fertilizers are not commonly used, the rate of borrowings must not exceed $3 an acre for general field crops and $12 an acre for truck crops, including potatoes. In counties where fertilizer is required, the rate for general field crops will be $6, with $10 in the case of tobacco, and $20 an acre for truck crops.

Special provision is made for additional loans, within the $300 maximum, for financing the purchase of materials for spraying and dusting crops, to protect against insects and diseases, payment of water charges in irrigated districts, and costs of hand labor in the case of sugar beets, sugar cane, hops and rice. Loans up to $250 an acre will be available for summer following.

Borrowers will be required to agree to plant a garden for home use, and to grow a sufficient acreage of feed crops to supply their livestock. A total of $1,000,000 of the appropriation has been set aside for feed loans for livestock in drouth or storm-stricken areas.

Hyde said that loans will be made

"Hot Pepper", New Flagg and Quirt Film at Stevenson

Flagg and Quirt, the militant Marines, have exchanged their uniforms for silk hats and full dress clothes. They appear in the Fox comedy, "Hot Pepper," dressed in the height of fashion and living like kings in their roles as night club owners. The production comes to the Stevenson Theatre today and tomorrow.

Preserving the spirit of the characters of Flagg and Quirt, originated by Lawrence Stallings and Maxwell Anderson, they continue to battle over women and particularly over "Pepper," an impetuous and fiery little stowaway from South America found on one of Flagg's rum ships.

Edmund Lowe again appears as Quirt and Victor McLagley as Flagg. The role of "Pepper" is enacted by the vibrant and dynamic Lupe Velez. El Brendel, the Swedish dialect comedian, plays a feature role and others in prominent parts are Lillian Bond, Boothe Howard, Gloria Roy and Russ Clark. Much color is said to be added to the night club scenes by a singing and dancing chorus with which Miss Velez appears in a dance number.

"Chesterfields Satisfy"

WHEN smokers keep buying the same cigarette day after day... it's a pretty good sign that they're getting what they want... mildness, better taste—a smoke that's always the same.

So we're going right on making Chesterfields just as we always have... selecting choice, ripe tobaccos... ageing them... blending and cross-blending them... making them into cigarettes in the most scientific ways that are known.

As long as we do these things we know that smokers will continue to say, "They Satisfy". For that's what people are saying about Chesterfields.

If you smoke, why not find out about them? A package or two will tell you the whole story.
