A GOOD IDEA

The Hickory merchants and bankers have decided to close their places of business in Thursday afternoon of each week at 1 o'clock for the next few months.

Wouldn't this idea of giving an afternoon off for recreation, gardening, etc., be a good thing for the merchants, bankers and other business houses of Lenoir? The merchants especially, together with their help, are forced to keep longer hours than many other places of business, and we have no doubt but that these clerk would enjoy these afternoons, to the benefit of their employers. In other towns, and practically all cities, this custom is observed, thus alleviating the help to have a little time of their own. Lenoir News-Tonic.

NOTICE

In accordance with the custom of the merchants Association of allowing a half holiday on Thursday during the summer the Banks of Hickory will close Thursday afternoons at one o'clock instead of at two o'clock during the months of June, July and August.

IRON LIGHTNING, FAMOUS CHIEF, IS DEAD

By the Associated Press.

Pierre, S. D., June 3.—In the recent death of Chief Iron Lightning, at his home near Thunder Butte in the northwestern part of the Cheyenne Indian reservation, the country lost probably the greatest of the few remaining famous Indian characters who figured in the early history of Dakota territory.

Iron Lightning was one of the sub chiefs, who under Sitting Bull, participated in the memorable battle of the Little Big Horn, June 25, 1876, when Custer and his band of 261 men were annihilated. He is said to be the last of the chiefs who were in control of the Sioux Nation at that time. He was 76 years old at the time of his death and has for years made his home in the vicinity of Thunder Butte station.

Unusually tall and well proportioned, even for an Indian, and possessing a voice which commanded attention and obedience although it knew no word of English, Iron Lightning was a natural leader of men. In the early part of this century following the Ute Indian uprising when the Utes had been rounded up and sent to the Cheyenne reservation, it was Iron Lightning who went among them urging them to forget their grievance with the whites and settle down to peaceful lives.

He was the last Indian, so far as is known, to have continued to live with two wives after the order prohibiting polygamy and further polygamous marriages among the Indians was made. Iron Lightning was called to the Thunder Butte station when order was received and told he must choose between the two women with whom he was living.

"If the Commissioner has lived with one woman," the chief replied in Indian, "he will know how impossible it is for Iron Lightning to separate himself from two. Iron Lightning laughs."

This speech won for him his case and the two wives were retained. They live together in harmony, one doing the cooking for the family, which among the Indians is regarded other came into power for a like period as an honor, for one week when the job.

HARDING IS TRYING TO FIND MEMBERS

By the Associated Press.

Washington, June 3.—President Harding was given further consideration today to the selection of a chairman of the shipping board as a result of the definite withdrawal of Walter C. Teague of New York, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Chas. Piez, of Chicago, former director general of the emergency fleet corporation, also understood to be under consideration for the place.

READ POEMS TO CLUB

Mrs. C. C. Bost of Hickory, was the honor guest last Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the Hesperian Book club with Mrs. A. C. Avery, Jr., as hostess.

As a special feature of the program, Mrs. Bost was asked to read selections from her recent publication of poems, "Songs in Many Keys," which has attracted widespread interest and favorable comment.

Mrs. Bost read several selections from "Songs in Many Keys" and upon request read a number of others including two poems recently written and not appearing in the book, "My Prayer," and "War's Rosary," and concluding with "Lines to Phoebe." In this issue of the News-Herald "Wars Rosary" is published for the first time. Giving added interest to the readings were the author's little stories of the inspiration of many of her poems. There were told in a charmingly informal manner. Mrs. Bost was presented with an immense bouquet of sweet peas by the hostess. —Morganton News Herald.

IT DEPENDS

Statesville Landmark.

The Washington news seems to indicate that the situation as to Mr. Linney has been about reversed; that instead of small chance to be confirmed, as the first vote of the senate finance committee indicated, there is small chance that the Republican state chairman can be defeated, notwithstanding he is said to be standing pat with reference to the colored vote in North Carolina. This optimistic attitude is partially due to reports that at the instance of the national Republican committee, the party in Georgia, where the colored man has been rather conspicuous, is to be reorganized to relegate the blacks to the rear; and that it is the purpose of the Republicans so to do in all Southern states they realizing that the existence of the party in the south, or at least any hope of success, is dependent on that course. Hence Mr. Linney will be acclaimed rather than crucified for pointing the way. That program is all right so far as the south is concerned, but whether it can be put over depends on the influence of the colored vote in the north and west.

RED SOX DEFEAT BAPTISTS, 7 TO 8

By defeating the Baptists in a good game at Lenoir College yesterday afternoon, the Presbyterians tied the Methodists for second place and are planning to go still higher when they meet again. So are the Baptists, Methodists and Lutherans. The final score was 7 to 8.

The game, in spite of several errors, was exciting and the fans got their money's worth again. The pitching was classy and the hitting of Shuford and Whitaker for the Baptists and Cline and Matthews for the Presbyterians contributed notable hitting.

The attendance was slightly less than on Tuesday, judging by the amount of money collected. The games are averaging about $15 each.

COTTON

By the Associated Press.

New York, June 3.—The cotton market opened at a decline of one point on March, but generally unchanged to three points higher in response to Liverpool cables. No change was reported in British labor conditions, however, and prices here were lower.

RAILROADS TO REGISTER REASONS

(BY MAX ABERNETHY)

Raleigh, June 3.—North Carolina railroads have been instructed by Commissioner of Revenue A. D. Watts to send their representatives to the capital on June 21, 22 and 23 when their appeal from the original assessment of corporate property will be heard.

The lines are asking for reductions, contending that the assessments made are unfair. So far there are seven railroads that have notified Commissioner Watts that assessments as made on their property seems to have been valued excessively. The commissioner does not say whether, in his opinion, the property has been placed on the tax books at too high a figure but he thinks the railroad officials are entitled to a hearing. The roads will be heard by Commissioner Watts as follows: Norfolk Southern and Southern, June 21; Atlantic Coast line, Seaboard Airline and Washington and Candemore, June 23; Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio and the Winston-Salem South-bound, June 23.

Any North Carolina citizen interested in having the original assessment as made by the old state tax commission stand is entitled to appear before the commissioner, Commissioner Watts said today. A delegation is expected to attend since anti-revaluationists have consistently argued that the railroads were not paying their proportionate part of the taxes.
