

"The Long and Short of It All"

The only reliable assurance you have of protection of your records against fire is the assurance by the Underwriters Laboratories that your safe or the identical model of your safe has actually been tested and proven that it will preserve its contents for two hours in a temperature of 1850° F.

GF Allsteel Model B Safes

offer this protection together with several superior constructional features. These we will be glad to explain.

The GF Allsteel lines is so complete that you can buy from stock any filing equipment you may require.

Wake Forest Commencement May 25th to May 27th

Special interest is being placed on Alumni Day. There will be reunions of all the classes of 1861, 71, 81, 91, 01 and 1911. The class of 1921 which numbers more than a hundred will be welcomed into the ranks of the Alumni.

From present indications this will be one of the largest and most enjoyable Commencements in our history. Wake Forest men everywhere are urged to meet their friends and college chums here during the exercises.

The program is as follows:

Wednesday, May 25th—1:00 P. M. Class Reunions; 3:30 P. M. Ball Game; 6:00 P. M. Alumni Banquet and Business Meeting; 8:30 P. M. Alumni Oration, President E. W. Sikes, of Coker College; 9:30 P. M. Senior Reception.

Thursday, May 26th—11:00 A. M. Commencement Address; 3:00 P. M. Class Day Exercises; 8:30 P. M. Baccalaureate Sermon, Curtis Lee Laws, D. D., New York City.

Friday, May 27th—11:00 A. M. Class Orations, Academic and Honorary Degrees, Baccalaureate Address.

The new dormitory and the Wake Forest Hotel will furnish ample accommodations. Any one wishing reservations in advance may notify Trela D. Collins, Alumni Secretary.

Pageant Sunday Night At All Saints' Church

Sunday night at 8 o'clock a religious pageant "The Awaiting World" will be presented in All Saints' (Episcopal) Church.

The pageant illustrates the work done by the United Thank Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The vested choir will assist. The public is most cordially invited.

PERSPECTIVE

Most troubles come from putting right things in wrong places. Christianity stands for a right perspective. It puts first things first and other things after.

Jesus said: "I Am The Bread of Life."

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread?"
