CAN BE MIXED AND USED UP TO DAY OF PLANTING.

OLD TOWN, MD., Aug. 1st, 1888. MESS. BOYKIN, CARMER & Co., BALTO., MD.

GENTLEMEN:—I have sold your "Home Fertilizer" for several years, and find it gives entire satisfaction wherever used. I of work in our line with great dispatch. MESS. BOYKIN, CARMER & CO., BALTO., MD. have used it myself on my farm, and can say, if people would only take the time to mix it, that it is one of the cheapest 'ertili-zers used and is as good, if not better than zers used and is as good, if not better than many that cost much more. Mr Francis Darke, who buys some from me every year, says there is no better and he doesn't care for any but "Home Fertilizer," if he can always get it. Hoping that all who use fer tilizer can be induced to buy the "Home," as it will save them much money, I remain, Yours respectfully, JNO. W. CARDEE.

MR. W. H. CACKLEY, of Dunmore, W. Va., in ordering some "Home Fertilizer" for his own use, writes under date July 31, 1888; "On a 17-12 acre lot, by drill measurement, I threshed 65 bushels of wheat, a fraction over 41 bushels to the acre. This piece of ground had been limed 3 years before heav-, and had been worked in corn for 3 years, with a liberal coating of stable manure each year, so you see the land was in good condition; but the "Home Fertilizer" undoubtedly more than doubled the yield of wheat on

THE YOU OF WASHINGTON

Lay green the her s by a recoon won; And several sections, weary of debates, Joined hat is at last and were United States

O City sitting by the Sea! How proud the day that dawned on thee, When the new era, long desired, began, And, in its need, the hour had found the man! One thought the cannon salvos spoke; The resonant bell to er's vibrant stroke, The volceful streets, the paudit-echoing halls, And prayer and hymn borne heavenward from St. Paul's.

How felt the land in every part
The strong throb of a nation's heart,
As its great leader gave, with reverent awe,
His pledge to Union, Liberty and Law:

That pledge the heavens above him heard, That vow the sleep of centuries stirred; In world wide wonder listening people bent Their gaze on freedom's great experiment. Could it succeed? Of honor sold

And hopes deceived all history told. Above the wrecks that strewed the mourn ful past, Was the long dream of ages true at last? Thank God! the people's choice was just The one man equal to his trust.

Wise without lore, and without weakness Calm in the strength of flawless rectitude: His rule of justice, order, peace, Made possible the world's release Taught prince and serf that power is but a trust, And rule, alone, which serves the ruled, is

That Freedom generous is, but strong in hate and fraud and selfish wrong, Pretense that turns her holy truths to lies, And lawless license masking in her guise. Land of his love! with one glad voice Let thy great sisterhood rejoice; A century suns o'er thee have risen and set

And God be praised, we are one nation yet. And still, we trust, the years to be Shall prove his hope was destiny, Leaving our flag with all its added stars Unrent by faction and unstained by wars Lo: where with patient toil he nursed

And rained the new set plant at first, The widening branches of a stately tree Stretch from the sunrise to the sunset sea And in its broad and sheltering shade, Sitting with none to make afraid. Were we now silent, through each mighty The winds of heaven would sing the praise

Our first and best: his ashes lie Beneath his own Virginia sky. Forgive, forget, O true and just and brave The storm that swept above thy sacred grave Forever in the awful strife, And dark hours of the nation's life, Through the flerce tumult pierced his warr ing word, Their father's voice kis erring children

The change for which he prayed and sought In that sharp agony was wrought; No partial interest draws its alien line One people now, all doubt beyond,

For rule and trust must needs be ours; Chooser and chosen both are powers Equal in service as in rights; the claim Of Duty rests on each and all the same. Then let the sovereign millions, where Our banner floats in sun and air, From the warm palm-lands to Alaska's cold, Repeat with us the pledge a century old:

Take on our lips the old Centennial vow.

A Great Cry for More Women has been going up from the far west for a pale, haggard, debilitated women. The beauty, but they need healthy wives. A great cry for health is continually going | SCROFULA tion from some of the most skill-great cry for health is continually going old, all over the earth. Countless remedies have appeared in answer. A few have succeeded, and none hold a higher place than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a sure cure for all those peculiar "weaknesses" and distressing ailments peculiar to the sex. -The funny man couldn't help it to save his life. He stopped in front of the Star office yesterday where two carpenters were putting up new steps to the entrance. "Well, well," said he, "the fellows are actually building steps to the Stars." Then he moved off, whistling very touchingly, "Climbing up the Golden Stair." - Wil-
