

TELLING THE NEWS WITH PICTURES

ELINOR GLYN, famous authoress, has returned to her native England after a long period in the movies.

GEORGE M. APPLETON, captain of the Harvard varsity crew, which threatens to defeat Yale with "open water" in the annual boat race. (Int'l News Reel.)

MINUS HAT AND HOSIERY—Miss Fannie S. Kimball, Pasadena, Cal., on the last leg of a trip around the world, without hat or stockings. She was once arrested for appearing in that garb and is "showing the world." (Int'l News Reel.)

BELLS FOR BELLES' GARTERS newest mode in San Francisco. Miss Beatrice Roberts appeared as witness in divorce court with the tinklers.

DOG AIDS CHARITY in New York City with a contribution box strapped to its back. With Mrs. Harry W. Gibbs (left) and Mrs. Nettie Lamont (right) and Miss Mercerta Esmonds on watch, it solicits funds for the Bide-a-Wee Home. (Int'l News Reel.)

JOE MARTIN, famous movie chimpanzee, looks docile enough with Edwin Hubbell on his neck. He "went bad" recently and was subdued only after terrific fight. (Int'l News Reel.)

J. E. HARGREAVES, seventy-nine, wool merchant, of Kendall, England, has just reached the United States, completing his 269th ocean voyage. (Int'l News Reel.)

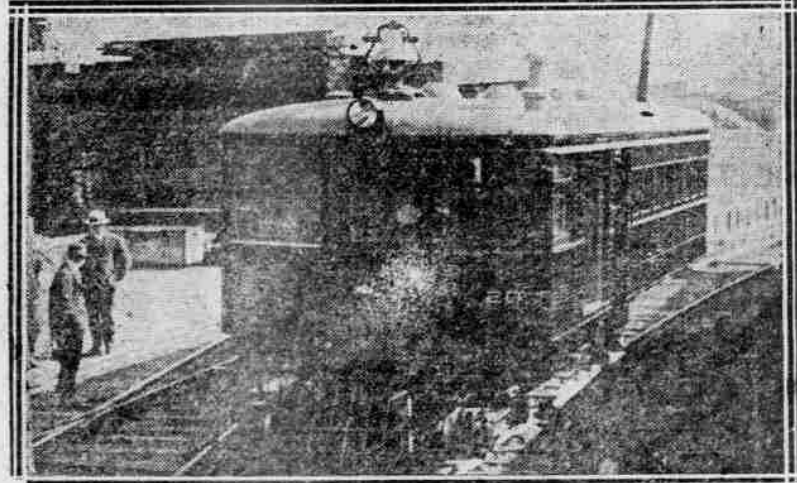

SEEKING TENNIS CROWN. Miss Edith Sigourney is on her way to England with Mrs. Molla B. Mallory.

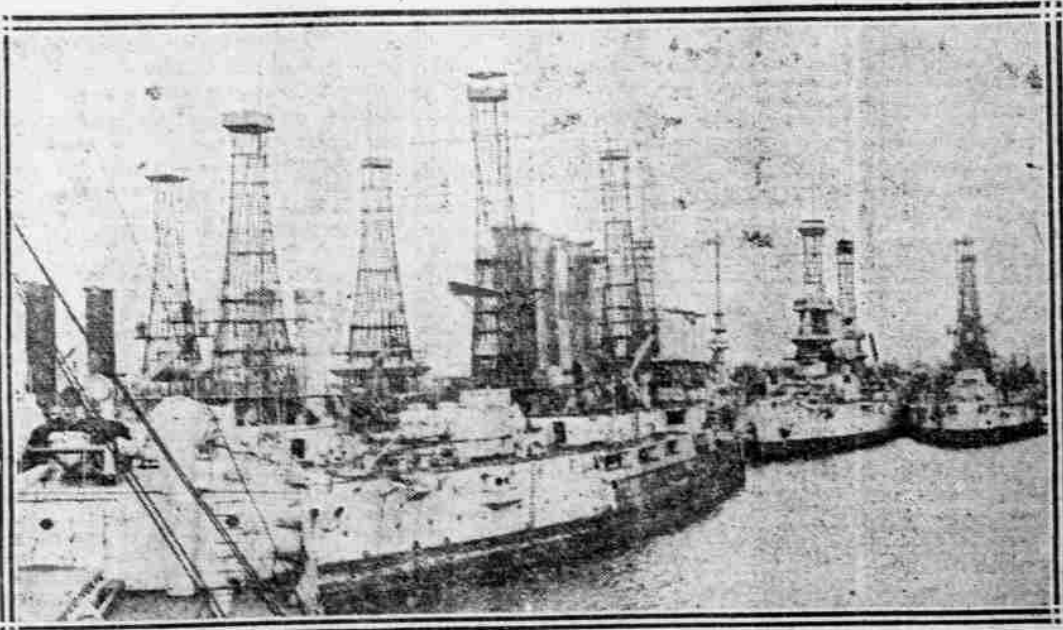

AMERICANS BEST HUSBANDS, is the decision of Princess Rhoda Ateresco, Rumanian splinter.

SECOND HONEYMOON has begun for former Fire Chief Kenlon, of New York, and Mrs. Kenlon. They are touring Europe, official duties having prevented it earlier. (Int'l News Reel.)

MECHANICAL HYBRID, cross between automobile and locomotive, completed trial trip over standard gauge railroad track, Philadelphia to Washington. (Int'l News Reel.)

REMEMBER THE MAINE! The U. S. battleship Maine, as she was being prepared for towing from League Island Navy Yard, Philadelphia, to a commercial yard, where she will be scrapped. (Int'l News Reel.)

DEAD FROM FRIGHT, the victim of shock, was the fate of Lillian Givner, five, of New York City. (Int'l News Reel.)

FIRST CABINET BABY, Jean Allys Davis, four weeks, in arms of her father, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis. (Int'l News Reel.)