500 ATTEND ROBINSON CLUB ANNIVERSARY BALL

The Joseph L. Robinson Veterans Club held its first anniversary ball Friday nite, Feb. 14 at Temple Hall.

The great affair was initiated at 10 P.M. as Ike Quebec, tenor sax stylist, and his Blue Note Recording artists began to play their rendition of "How High The Moon".

At 1 A.M. the Grand March was held under the direction of Dr. James Lee. The March was led by President K. David Holmes and as his partner Mrs. Holmes.

Out of town guests attending the affair were: Miss Marie Harris of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Nelson of Hartford, Mr. Edward Jones of New Britain, and Mr. Russell Myrick, a former Waterburian now a student at N.Y.U., and a host of others.

WATERBURY METEORS

DRUB PRINCETON, N. J.

The Meteor's A.C., after getting off to a slow start, turned on the heat in the second half and went on to defeat a weak Princeton, N. J., team by a score of 65 to 38 at the Pearl Street Community House last Saturday nite before one of the largest crowds of the season.

Big Jim Spohn, Frankie Silva and Si Holmes led the Brass City boys offensive, each accounting for three quarters of the total points scored.

In the preliminary the Princeton, N. J., girls team beat the Waterbury girls team 27 to 19.

On March 1, the Meteors will travel to Princeton, N. J., to attempt to make it two in a row over he Princeton, N. J., team.

In observance of Lincoln's Birthday at the State Capitol in Hartford, New Haven's own Edward Miller, of Stevens St., was honored guest to sing the National Anthem in the place of Marion Anderson, who was unable to appear due to her concert tour.

Plans are completed for a dinner to be given at 239 Dixwell Ave. by the Usher Board of St. Paul's on March 6th. Tickets are on sale at 239 Dixwell Ave. and members of the Board.

Congratulations goes to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whittaby of Webster Street. They are the proud parents of a son born in New Haven Hospital Thursday. Mrs. Whittaby is the former Miss Kittie Sheats of Dixwell Ave.

Mrs. Margarite Byrd and granddaughter, Margaret, of Foote Street, accompanied this year by her sister, Mr. Lula Taylor of Orchard Street, are visiting in Macon, Ga., with relatives and friends.

A few friends gathered in the home of Mrs. Edward Miller of Stevens Street to celebrate the birthday of Mr. Miller on Saturday, Feb. 8th. A very enjoyable evening was had by all.

The Westville Masonic Temple was the scene of a Valentine Dance given by the Craftsman's Club Friday evening. A tremendous capacity crowd gathered to make it a gala affair, long to be remembered. Understand this was the first dance given in years by the club. So it is compliments to the club for its elegant affair and I'm sure they will be having another one up their sleeves for the near future.

As I gazed over the crowd, I could see a few guests from Waterbury, Ansonia, Bridgeport and other neighboring cities. From all indications my good friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Camp of Waterbury and company were having a pleasant evening. Al Simmons and his boys did wonders on the music for the dancing pleasure.

On the half hour after twelve, refreshments were served down stairs. Following the dance the Belmont Restaurant served a delicious dawn breakfast. Many gathered there until the wee hours of the morning.

If there's ever a whipping, Amos Thomas should remember its the one he received Thursday night at the Musician's Club. Even though it was a belated birthday whipping, the boys didn't have pity on him at all. Amos was on his way out of town when Richard Giles picked him up like a baby and carried him on the stage. The audience later sang Happy Birthday to Amos on his ??? Birthday.

A birthday party was given in honor of Billy Powers, of Northwest Drive, on his tenth birthday, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powers.
