MATTERS IN COURT

United States District Court Opens This Morning at 10 o'Clock.

CADWELL CASE POSTPONED

News of the Probate Court—Bequests of Mrs. Lines—Robert Day Sues.

The February term of the United States district court will open this morning at 10 o'clock, with Judge James P. Platt on the bench. Among the cases which will be presented to the grand jury is that of Louis B. Ammerman, charged with stealing postoffice orders and passing the same on merchants in this city.

Criminal cases to come before the grand jury are those of:

United States vs. Lorman E. Roberts; United States vs. Adelbert Sisson; United States vs. John M. Feeney.

New cases to come before the grand jury are those of United States vs. Foster Dadson; United States vs. John Erickson; United States vs. Horace Pike; United States vs. Louis B. Ammerman.

The last named is charged with failure to scratch the internal revenue stamps from an alleged empty whiskey barrel. He was arrested several weeks ago by United States Marshal Parmelee at his place of business in Congress avenue this city.

Cadwell Case Postponed.

At the opening of the police court yesterday, Assistant City Attorney Hoyt asked for a continuance in the case of Clifford M. Cadwell who is charged with two counts of assault with intent to kill upon his wife, Mrs. Vera Peck Cadwell, and her sister, Virginia Peck.

Mrs. Cadwell has not yet left the hospital, though her sister, Miss Virginia Peck, has been out for some time. Two of the three bullets which struck Mrs. Cadwell are still in her body, and her right side is partially paralyzed. She will, however, probably be able to appear in court to testify against her husband next Saturday.

Mrs. Lines' Bequests.

The will of Mrs. Mary Ann Kimberly Lines, widow of Augustus E. Lines, who died last week at her home, 215 Whalley avenue, was filed yesterday in the probate court. The estate is estimated to be worth $60,000. No public gifts are made.

The bequests are $10,000 to George R. Kimberly of New London, a brother; $10,000 to Kate Cruttenden, a niece, of New Rochelle; $4,000 to Robert Sutton, a nephew; $1,000 to Henry W. Kimberly, a brother; $4,000 to Lucy F. Apell, a niece, of Santa Barbara, Cal., $1,000 to Harry K. Lines, a foster son. Mrs. Lines left $600 to Simon Johnson, her coachman, and to his wife.

The rest of the estate is to be distributed equally among the following: Leilia Cruttenden of New Rochelle, N. Y., Henry S. Kimberly, Oliver S. Kimberly and Arthur S. Kimberly of New York, Eli Kimberly of California, Fred R. Kimberly of New York, Della Weldon of New Rochelle and Harry K. Lines of this city. Attorney Frank S. Bishop is the executor of the will.

Mrs. Lines' death releases a trust fund of $120,000 established in her husband's will. The beneficiaries of the trust are Yale university, the Young Men's Christian association, the Church of the Redeemer, the Organized Charities, St. Francis' Orphan asylum, the New Haven Orphan asylum and Louise D. Lines.

Mrs. Feltung's Will.

Attorney David E. Fitzgerald, representing Harry Feltung yesterday in the probate court asked for a delay in the probating of the will of Mrs. Elizabeth Feltung, who died last week at her home, 80 Daggett street, saying that he wanted time to look into the matter.

Mr. Feltung, it is said, is not satisfied with the provisions of his mother's will. She left a house and lot at 80 Daggett street to her daughter, Mrs. S. Lewis Doble, a hack and pair of horses to Mr. Doble, her son-in-law, $300 to a daughter, Mrs. Mary Zeller; $100 to her grandchild, Louis Schuster, and $200 to her son, Henry Feltung. The rest of the estate Mrs. Feltung gave to Mrs. Doble.

Judge Studley continued the matter until a week from yesterday.

Bristol Will.

The will of Henry Bristol of Westville, was filed for probate yesterday. The estate is worth about $8,000. Anita Bristol Warren, a granddaughter, is to receive $400, and the rest is given to Mr. Bristol's daughter, Mrs. Nellie B. Cooper.

Robert E. Day to Sue.'

Robert E. Day, son of the late Horace Day, for many years secretary of the board of education, has brought suit in the superior court for a partition of the real estate left by his father. The defendants in the suit are Miss Anne P. Day and Mrs. James Woodward, sisters, and James Woodward, a brother-in-law. Mr. Day, who was formerly a newspaper man in this city and is now in New York, wants to secure his share of the property. Constable Roscoe Brown served the writs yesterday.

Robert E. Day a few years ago tried to break the will of his uncle, Prof. George E. Day, but withdrew his action.

AN OLD NURSE

Persuaded Doctor to Drink Postum.

An old faithful nurse and an experienced doctor are a pretty strong combination in favor of Postum instead of coffee.

The doctor said:

"I began to drink Postum five years ago on the advice of an old nurse.

"During an unusual busy winter, between coffee, tea and overwork, I became a victim of insomnia. In a month after beginning Postum, in place of coffee, I could eat anything and sleep as soundly as a baby.

"In three months I have gained twenty pounds in weight. I now use Postum altogether instead of coffee; even at bedtime with a soda cracker or some other tasty biscuit.

"Having a little tendency to Diabetes, I use a small quantity of saccharine instead of sugar, to sweeten with. I may add that to-day tea or coffee are never present in our house and very many patients, on my advice, have adopted Postum as their regular beverage.

"In conclusion, I can assure anyone that, as a refreshing, nourishing, and nerve strengthening beverage, there is nothing equal to Postum." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

"THE SONG OF THE WIND."

(By Charles W. Plummer, New Haven.)

I wandered afar when the moon was high,
When the stars were bright in the bending sky.
When the singing of birds was hushed and still,
When silence slept with the sleeping rill,
And my pinion was swift and my spirit was strong,
As the wide world over I rushed along—
For my life was aflame with poetic fire,
And I swept the chords of my mystic lyre.
With a darling hand, and I know my power,
Would shipwreck hopes in a single hour.
I scattered flowers o'er lonely graves—
I played like a child with the ocean waves.
Then I hurried away to an isle of light
Where oft I have sung with the seraphim bright.
And beside a cot, where the moonbeams fling,
Their lengthening shadows 'curled my wing
Then my song was hushed and my heart grew sick,
And my throbbing pulses were low and quick.
And my spirit forgot its might and pride,
For a child in the cot at that moment died.
And no mother was near to soothe its moans,
Or wildly listen to its startling groans;
For she toiled in the rich man's gilded home
For bread for her babe when the morn should come.
Alone he had died and alone he lay
In the desolate cot till the dawn of day.
Then I heard a shriek of such mad despair,
That I dared not linger longer there.
And onward I flew and my dirge like song
Startled the hills as I rushed along.
Till here by thy side I have paused to weep,
For I cannot sing and I cannot sleep.
