IRA SANKEY DEAD; BLIND FOR YEARS

Singing Evangelist and Noted Hymn Writer Passes Away After a Lingular Illness.

WORKED HIMSELF BLIND

Meeting Moody by Accident, They Afterward Toured World Together—Hymns Known World Over.

New York, Aug. 14.—Ira D. Sankey, known as an evangelist throughout the Christian world, died last night at his home in Brooklyn, but the news of his passing did not become generally known until to-day. Mr. Sankey was sixty-eight years old, and for the last five years he had been blind and suffered from a complication of diseases brought on from overwork. Almost to the very last he worked at hymn writing, the gift which had brought him fame in every corner of the earth. His tours throughout this country and Europe with Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist, brought him into wide prominence. Sankey, it might be said, wrote the Gospel Hymns of the world. In China, Egypt, India, Japan, in almost every language known to man, Sankey's hymns are sung. He received a large income from his publications and had acquired a considerable estate.

Among Mr. Sankey's most familiar compositions are "The Ninety and Nine," and "When the Mists Have Rolled Away." His songs are said to have had a circulation of more than fifty million copies. Mr. Sankey was a rapid composer, some of his songs being written in the afternoon and sung at the evening service. "The Ninety and Nine" came to him as an inspiration as he sat at the organ before a great congregation in Edinburgh, Scotland. He was called upon for a song, and he could think of nothing appropriate for a moment. While he hesitated, he remembered a few lines of a verse he had clipped from an English journal the day before and thrust into his pocket. Placing the clipping before him on the quaint little organ, that he always took with him on his travels, he made up the tune as he went along. He made not a single change in transcribing the music after the meeting closed.

It was one of the most impressive hymns ever written. Apparently Sankey's source of supply was inexhaustible, for he wrote book after book of gospel hymns. In the last five or six years he was interested in preparing and publishing the story of gospel hymns. At the same time he saved his wonderful voice for posterity by singing into phonographs. The records were sent all over the world. Sankey first met Moody by accident at a Y. M. C. A. convention in Indianapolis. They visited Great Britain from 1873 to 1875, and again in 1883, and made many tours throughout the United States. When Mr. Moody died in 1889, Mr. Sankey felt keenly the loss of his friend. From that time he tried to conduct the work alone which they had hitherto shared between them, but the task was too great. In 1903 his physical condition compelled him to give up most of his evangelistic engagements, although he continued for some time to do editorial work in compiling a new series of hymn books.

Then came falling eyesight, which speedily developed into total blindness. With the blindness came also a nervous breakdown. After his retirement from public life the impression became general throughout the country that he was dead. He himself used to tell of an argument he had with a man on a train as to whether or not he was dead. In the beginning of his active life Sankey was a Methodist, but for the last seven years he was a member of the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian church of Brooklyn. He is survived by a widow, Fannie V. Sankey, his two sons, I. Allen Sankey, and Edward Sankey, and two grandchildren.

RIOT IN UNION MEETING

Stationary Engineers in General Fight and Police Are Called In.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—At a meeting here last night of the stationary engineers' union a dozen men were hurt, two severely. Some men attempted to bolt the meeting because three of their number had been expelled and had started a separate organization of engineers. The leader of the bolters struck the sergeant-at-arms over the head with a chair for closing the door at the order of the president, George W. Goding, and the fight became general. Another bolter sent in a riot call for the police. When they appeared no one seemed to wish to press charges and the police left.

OPERATE ON GUILD FOR APPENDICITIS

Following Closely Upon Almost Fatal Illness, Governor Undergoes Critical Operation.

CONDITION SATISFACTORY

Quick Return from Maine Camp Necessary by the Sudden Attack—Doctors Act Promptly.

Boston, Aug. 14.—Following closely upon his recovery from a protracted illness that nearly proved fatal, Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., was to-day operated on for appendicitis at the Charles Gates hospital, a private institution in the Back Bay district. The operation was pronounced successful by the surgeons, and the governor's condition following it was said to be most satisfactory. The governor had been spending his vacation at a camp in Sebago Lake, Maine, but on account of his illness he was obliged to cut short his sojourn there and he returned to Boston yesterday. Early to-day his trouble was diagnosed as appendicitis, an operation was advised and early in the afternoon he was taken to the hospital and submitted to the operation.

Gov. Guild had but recently recovered from a serious illness of more than 13 weeks, during much of which time his life was despaired of. He was taken ill on March 12 with acute inflammatory rheumatism, which affected the heart and brought on complications. He recovered owing to his wonderful vitality and resumed his duties as governor on June 10.

The governor went to Sebago lake on August 4th, expecting to remain until the end of the first week in September. He joined a camping party on the shores of the lake and seemed to be gained in strength and health by the outdoor life, fishing and other exercise.

A week or more of rain and exceedingly wet weather interfered with the comfort of the outing, however, and the latter part of the last week the governor complained of not feeling as well as he wished. It was not thought at the time that the trouble was serious.

The slight indisposition of the governor, combined with the disagreeable weather, however, led the party to break camp and Governor Guild, accompanied by his brother, Courtney Guild, returned to Boston last yesterday afternoon.

Early this morning Dr. E. P. Joslin, who attended the governor during his last illness, was summoned. He did not like the symptoms and immediately called in consultation Dr. James G. Mumford.

The case was diagnosed as appendicitis. Dr. Mumford concurring in this view, and it was deemed best that the governor submit to an operation at once. Governor Guild was then taken to the Charles Gates hospital, Mrs. Guild accompanying him. He arrived at the hospital at 12:20 p. m., and the operation, performed by Dr. Mumford, was completed at 2:15 o'clock.

A bulletin issued immediately after the operation, stated that the governor stood the strain well, and that he was resting comfortably.

The following bulletin was issued at 10 o'clock to-night by Dr. James G. Mumford.

"The condition of Governor Guild may be said as a whole to be little changed. He rested comfortably to-night, suffering very little pain and little fever."

GETTING DESPERATE

Reported That Forces Behind

Lilley Are Sending Out

Misstatements.

IN REGARD TO CAUCUSES

Delegates Said to Favor Waterbury

Man When They Are Pledged for Lake.

The forces behind George L. Lilley are beginning thus early in the campaign to send out stories that are untrue as regards the caucuses being held in the various towns. Yesterday morning the report was published that in the town of Enfield two delegates were elected for Mr. Lilley and two for Mr. Lake. The report further stated that Mr. Morrison led the forces for Lilley, but graciously allowed two of the four delegates to be classed on the side of Lake.

The fact of the matter is that the four delegates elected are all pledged for Mr. Lake and furthermore, Mr. Morrison, who is alleged to have worked for Mr. Lilley is working tooth and nail for Mr. Lake. In like manner other reports are being sent out and published in papers, which for some reason seem to be under the control of the influence of Mr. Lilley, which would tend to make the race of Mr. Lake look like a joke.

The truth of the whole controversy is that a scare has been thrown into the ranks of the Lilley men in the past few days and many of the leaders in several districts, who were believed to be favorable to the Waterbury man's candidacy, have been found hobnobbing and working with the Lake forces. It will not be surprising, therefore, if such work will continue, for the Lilley backers have found that runaway race for the nomination successfully blocked before it really had begun.

In Windsor Locks two delegates were elected for Mr. Lake, and yet the morning papers yesterday, which favored Mr. Lilley, made no mention of the fact. The voters of the state need not be surprised to see statements of the standing of the two men issued, in which Mr. Lilley is leading from two and three to one. This is all done to mislead citizens who are anxious to see some other than George L. Lilley receive the republican nomination for governor. Possibly to-day a true statement will be given out, with a guarantee mark attached to it and perhaps some names may appear in the list for Mr. Lake who are now boomed as Lilley exhorters.
